The Rev. Canon Benham, the rector, has presented to the Church of St. Edmund-the-King, Lombard Street, in the City of London, the actual desk Prayer-Book used in the Church before the abolition of such books by Act of Parliament during the Commonwealth. The volume, which is dated 1633, and is stamped with the words, "St. Edmund's Church, Lombard Street," was recently sent to the rector by a stranger.

An interesting and touching ceremony took place in Carlisle Cathedral lately, when a handsome tablet of coloured marble was unveiled in the presence of a great concourse of people of all classes. The tablet has been erected by public subscription to commemorate the names of officers, non-commissioned officers, and men of the Border Regiment who fell in action or died from disease during the late South African War.
