WILL REMOVE THE TRACKS

P. M. R. R. Makes Proposals Re The Nuisances At The Eau

Likely That Agreement will Prove Satisfactory to Harwich Council

Some time ago The Planet published the proposed agreement which the Pere Marquette Railway Company stated they were willing to live up to, with regard to the grievances at the Eau. This agreement was recently taken up by the Harwich Council, who approved of the suggestions therein made, and notified the railway company to that effect. This means that the Eau trouble is practically settled. The railway company have agreed to remove their southern track, which encroaches most upon the highway near the Crawford House. They undertake to remove the railway so that the only track which will encroach upon the highway will be the one along which the scales are located, and this removal, the railway company say, will be made without delay. The other track, which leads to the scales, encroaches only a short distance upon the highway, and the railway people think that the municipality should experience no inconvenience from it, and they undertake to operate the road so as not to create the nuisances heretofore complained of by the residents in that neighborhood. Orders will be given that no fresh coal or new fire shall be put in the engines while weighing cars, and in this way the smoke nuisance will be almost entirely avoided. Weighing at night will be discontinued altogether, and no switching will be done at night, unless absolutely necessary. The verandah or porch at the south of the Bungalow will henceforth be looked upon as part of the public highway. It is understood that these conditions will prove satisfactory to the Harwich Council.

The highest manhood resides in disposition, not in mere intellect.

GIRL MAY SAVE FATHER

Houston, Va., June 26.—The trial of former Judge Loving, charged with the murder of Theodore Estes, was resumed yesterday. After an argument of an hour, Judge Barksdale permitted the defendant, who was on the stand, to relate a conversation with his brother-in-law, Harry Sneed, who told him of the alleged drugging of his daughter which led to the killing.

"This revelation came to me as a thunderbolt from a clear sky," said the defendant. "I loved my daughter and no power on earth could have restrained my hands."

Here the witness wept and several of his relatives also gave way to tears. Continuing Loving said: "In this condition of mind I went out intending to put that man to death. I got my shot gun and drove at once to Lovington. When I got there I called a boy and asked for Estes, but found he was at Oak Bridge. I went to Oak Bridge and I inquired for Estes. I learned that Estes was in a car at the station. I then turned my horse to a livery stable and got out of the buggy and loaded my gun. I saw Estes in the car with two negroes and waved them aside and said to Estes: 'You are the young man who takes ladies out driving and drugs and ruins them'."

"I heard no reply and when he made a motion as if to leave the car I shot him. I then surrendered myself to the nearest magistrate."

He was followed on the stand by Sneed, who corroborated him. Streaming from her eyes, Miss Elizabeth Loving, aged 19, testified of her alleged ruin by the young man, whom her parent shot to death.

Estes, she said, gave her a drink of whiskey from a flask he had in his pocket, while they were out buggering on the afternoon prior to his being killed. After taking the drink, she declared that she immediately began to feel dizzy and her head "spun around" as if she had been given some powerful drug. In this condition her escort drove her along an unfrequented road and then abused her.

She realized nothing more until she regained her senses in bed late that night at the home of County Clerk E. L. Kidd. On the following morning she related to her father on bending knees the statement she made yesterday.

The recital, the defence contends, so affected the mind of Judge Loving that he committed a crime which, according to his statement, could have been prevented by no power "except God Almighty."

Nothing Serious.

Paris, June 26.—The sensational newspapers are printing extras announcing new munitions, troops in the south, but the war ministry declares that nothing serious has occurred.

The seer is naturally serious.

JIMMY BURNS GETS SOAKED

Noted Police Court Celebrity Goes To Kingston For Thirty Months

Hit Jaen Sing On Head With Catsby Bottle

Restaurant-keeper Jaen Sing, proprietor of the King street Chinese chop suey house, his head bound up in cotton, and smelling of strong liniments, was again a complainant in the City Police Court this morning. Jaen's sore head was the result of a blow from a catsby bottle in the hands of Jimmy Burns, during a lively mix-up in the eating house last night.

It seems that Burns and a private from the 24th Regiment had some words in the restaurant, which came near ending in a fight. Burns picked up a catsby bottle from the table he was sitting at and made for the door. Jaen Sing feared that a scrap was pending, and ordered Burns out, and when he attempted to give Burns some assistance out of the door, the prisoner turned and dealt him a heavy blow on the head with the bottle, inflicting quite a gash on the Chinaman's scalp.

Burns has quite a long and eventful record in both City and County Police Courts and the authorities have become tired of his promises of reform. He has been up in City Police Court ten times, and his County Police Court record is almost as bad. Crown Attorney H. D. Smith, who prosecuted, drew attention to these facts, and said that Burns had got about all the leniency from the Court in the past that he deserved. He had not profited by the mercy shown him in the past, but had abused it. He could hardly expect to get off with a light sentence.

He was sentenced to two years and six months in Kingston Penitentiary. Burns says he has been following the race track for a living, and that he came up here from Windsor track yesterday. Jimmy Burns is a brother to the famous Jockey, Tommy Burns.

A middle-aged man, who had been too friendly with John Barley-corn, wore the regulation look of penitence when he came before Judge Houston this morning. The celebrant bears a good reputation, and this was his first appearance in Court. He was fined $1 and costs—$3.75 in all.

The Judge told him that he had better leave whiskey alone, or he would soon be a nervous wreck. The man made a sincere promise that he would never touch liquor again.

VOICE FROM THE DEAD

Wilmington, Del., June 26.—As a coffin was being lowered into a grave at a negro funeral near Denton, Md., Sunday, Samuel Johnson, a negro ventriloquist, threw his voice into the opening and said, "Let me down easy." The mourners concluded it was the corpse speaking, and with a scream, they fled. The pall-bearers hurriedly dropped the coffin. Johnson was arrested for disorderly conduct and malicious mischief, and held in jail.

LOOKS LIKE A MURDER.

Woman Found Hanging In Barn—Evidence of an Assault.

Hamilton, June 26.—Word has just been received here of a tragedy at Benford, a postoffice five miles south of Ancaster. Mrs. John Reinhardt was found dead in the barn by her husband when he returned home on Monday night. The woman was hanging by her neck and had evidently been strangled. From marks on her body it looked as if she might have been assaulted. When Crown Attorney Washington was notified he took charge of the case and ordered an investigation.

A DOUBLE MURDER

Sudbury, Ont., June 26.—A double murder and suicide took place at Creighton Mine, some 12 miles from Sudbury, on the Manitoulin and North Shore Railway, about 11 o'clock on Saturday night. The victims were John Restula, his wife Sophia Restula, and the latter's paramour, Herman Vick, Jr., all Finlanders. The three bodies were found early Sunday morning on the railway track between three and four hundred yards west of the station, which is at the west end of the village.

Shot Wife First. Apparently Restula had shot his wife first in the back of the head, close to the neck. Vick, who had evidently started to run away, was shot in the back, under the left shoulder blade, and dropped within a few paces. Restula then turned the revolver, a 32-calibre, on himself, firing one shot near the left side of the throat, and another in the left breast. He fell close to his wife and all were found lying face downwards.

Vick Had a Weapon. In Vick's hand was a 32-calibre revolver, but not in very good working order and apparently discovering this fact, he had started to run away. Restula went to work at Crean Hill mine a short time ago, leaving his wife at Copper Cliff. Some two weeks ago she left there and went to Creighton Mine, where she took up with Vick, and they lived in a house at the Gertrude Mine, one and a half miles west of Creighton.

Restula was informed on Friday how his wife had acted, and on Saturday came to Sudbury and purchased a revolver in one of the hardware stores. Before leaving Crean Hill he told his foreman, Frank Anderson, that if he found his wife with Vick there would be some shooting, and he kept his word.

An inquest was held by Coroner Struthers on Monday, and a jury, of which J. C. Kelly was foreman, brought in a verdict in accordance with the facts as given above. Restula was about 25 years of age, and Vick about 23 years.

LAWN BOWLING

Yesterday two local rinks of lawn bowlers journeyed to Leamington and Kingsville, where two very interesting matches were played off. The Chatham line-up was as follows:

John McCorvie, Mr. Oldershaw, W. H. Robinson, R. G. Fleming, Skip. F. Somerville, W. W. Turner, A. E. Pike, A. H. VonGuten, Skip.

At Leamington, Mr. Fleming's rink won out by a score of 23 to 21, and Mr. VonGuten's by 19 to 16. At Kingsville, Mr. Fleming's rink was defeated by 21 to 26, and Mr. VonGuten's was tied by a score of 17.

IS IN FAVOR OF CHEERFUL FUNERALS

London, June 25.—The Rev. Frederick Spurr, one of the best known Baptist pastors in London, startled the mourners at the funeral of one of the deacons of his church on Thursday by officiating in a gray suit of clothes. When questioned on the subject, the pastor declared himself a believer in cheerful funerals.

"I am heartily sick of the paganism connected with Christian funerals. The deacon was 82 years of age. He had been a good Christian all his life, and died of old age, and so at his funeral I wore a gray suit, and we sang the Easter hymn."

BANBURY WANTS EXTENSION.

Longer Time For Grant of Dominion to British Columbia.

London, June 25.—In the House of Commons in committee yesterday on the British North America bill, Sir F. Banbury moved as an amendment that the period during which the annual grant of £100,000 is to be made by the Dominion to the province of British Columbia should be extended from ten to thirty years. Banbury was speaking when the House adjourned. Churchill said it was a most disgraceful and flagrant act of obstruction.

We read of Spring, Summer, Autumn and Winter medicines. As if the Stomach, Liver, Kidneys, etc., underwent a dangerous period of transformation every three months. These three month periods are merely a human arrangement for convenience in expressing the climatic variations during the year. When you feel well, leave well alone; you are well. ## TWO FACTS!

There are just TWO FACTS which we wish to impress indelibly upon the mind of the Clothing buyer, that is fortunate enough to be reading this article now.

FACT ONE

When we buy our Clothing, Hats and Furnishings, we make it our particular business to secure the best of everything that can be produced.

We stop at nothing—we hunt out the Country's best Manufacturers—Makers who have a reputation for making the very best in their respective lines—and then we purchase or order made for our trade their best productions.

FACT TWO

After we have secured the best, we then place a moderate and conservative price on every article—a live and let live price.

Nothing that smacks of a fancy figure, but a price as low as our high standard of quality will allow, and then we back our quality and our price with a guarantee.

NOW

In view of these facts, may we not have the pleasure of seeing you, when in need of any article in our line.
