Cupid's "Chart."

A honeymoon down a coal-pit sounds a bit weird and dark; but that, at least, was the first trip made by bride and bridegroom after the church ceremony. The bridegroom was a coal-pit manager, and his new wife had never been down a coal-pit, or even seen one, till the wedding day. At her own request they went from the church, dressed in suitable attire, stepped into the cage and were taken to the bottom of the shaft, where they had a rousing reception from miners armed with pick and shovel.

Youth.

We should pay as much reverence to youth as we should to age; there are points in which young folks are altogether our superiors; and I can't help constantly crying out to persons of my own years, when busied about their young people—leave them alone; don't be always meddling with their affairs, which they can manage for themselves; don't be always insisting upon managing their boats, and putting your oars in the water with theirs.—Thackeray.

COULD SING FOR JOY, SHE STATES

Sydney Woman Praises Tanlac For Relieving Her Three Years Suffering

"It's such a relief to be free from sick headaches and to feel really well that I could sing for joy," said Mrs. John Ross, of 43 Henry street, Sydney, N. S.

"For the past three years I have had so much sickness that I thought I should have to give up altogether. After every meal my food would sour and I would bloat up with gas until I nearly choked. I often had spells of biliousness and terrible headaches that kept me in bed for days at a time. I would toss about for hours at night unable to sleep, and it was often two or three in the morning before I could close my eyes. I became very much depressed about my condition, for although I tried nearly every medicine under the sun I could get no relief.

"Then a few months ago I decided to give Tanlac a trial. The very first bottle started me on the road to recovery and I've been progressing ever since. The depression left me and I began to brighten up. I could notice myself getting stronger every day, and now after taking four bottles I am a perfectly well woman. My appetite is just splendid and I can eat anything I want and never have a touch of indigestion or biliousness. It is a rare thing for me to have a headache and I sleep so soundly at night that I get up in the morning feeling as fresh as a daisy."

OBITUARY

At the home of her son, David Kilpatrick, Mrs. Eliza, wife of the late John Kilpatrick of Lower Greenfield, passed away to her eternal rest. Formerly she was Miss Ervine of Andover, an aunt to the late Rev. S. D. Ervine.

Deceased was a member of the Presbyterian church of Lower Greenfield, and the funeral service was conducted by Rev. I. F. Keirstead and her remains were interred in the cemetery near by. She saw much sorrow during her life, having lost her husband and seven children. Three sons and a number of relatives survive to mourn their loss.

Who Wants This Beautiful Home in Hartland

Allen A. Waters offers for immediate sale his fine house situated just off the Main street, south end. The location is a beautiful high and slightly one and the house is surrounded by lovely shade trees. The house itself has 10 rooms and bathroom, nicely fitted up and with a constant supply of running water. The house is thoroughly well finished throughout and is warm and comfortable in winter and accessible to pure, fresh air in the summer. There is a large woodshed attached and a clapboarded and painted barn that will accommodate several horses; also a garage. Never-failing supply of water in the yard and at the kitchen sink. Enough ground for a good-sized garden. This is an ideal home for a couple that wishes to retire, or for any family. The house has four sleeping rooms and more could be finished in the attic, which is reached by stairs.

Mr. Waters also offers for sale a farm in Ashland district, three miles from the river, with a down-hill haul to market. Of this 100 acres, 30 acres are cleared and a part freshly seeded, 10 acres ploughed and the remainder in grass. There are 70 acres of woodland that will yield enough fire-wood to pay for the place and leave many years supply. There is also a good quantity of pulp and lumber. The prices of both these properties will interest any buyer, and full particulars of the whole may be had from Mr. Waters, at the house. DON'T DELAY. These properties will move quickly. Part of the purchase price may remain on mortgage if desired.
