I know of a very affable salesman in a wholesale dry goods eatablishment who became a dissipated man from having to invite customers to lunch with him over a bottle of wine! His employers set that bright young man to tempt other people, and he did it at the cost of his own character. The various athletic contests and inter-collegiate ball games are attended with an enormous amount of hard drinking; much of it takes the form of "treating" by those who have won their games or their bets. It is not too much to say that a vast amount of intem-
