ANOTHER FIRE.

The Flames in Crabb's Block-Catheart's Printing Office on Fire—Bamage to Vic-toria Hall,

About 12.15 on Thursday morning the fire alarm rang out its warning, and upon investigation it was found that the flames were making headway in the rear end of Cathcart's printing office in Crabb's Block. The firemen were promptly at their post, and the engine took its place by one of the tanks on the Square. A ladder was procured, and Branchman Curry and his assistants quickly mounted, entered the burning building, and poured a heavy stream upon the flames. In the first attempt to bring up a second branch to play on the interior of the burning edifice an accident happened by the breaking of the ladder, and Branchman Robinson came suddenly to the ground, still holding firmly on to the "nozzle." A spectator was lighting his pipe at the door of Butler's billiard hall when Robinson descended so suddenly, and his pipe was put out in a very summary by a collision with a full head of mannei water from the wriggling branch. By his time the fire had worked its way be tween the partitions to the . third story and a long ladder had to be procured so as to enable the branchmen to follow. This was done, but not until the flames had begun to issue through the roef By untiring exertions the fire was got under.

The fire is believed to have originated n a small room or closet, used by Catheart, job printer, who, we are informed, had been in the habit of keeping his ashes there. The flames evidently spread from that spot, and partly by the fire, but chiefly from falling plaster, cinders, and water, the contents of the office were badly "pied." The landing above the closet was also badly burnt, and it is estimated that it will take about $500 to fully rebuild and plaster that read and passed. W. Hicks was apportion of the building destroyed. Mr. Cathcart is insured for $400 on his stock; Crabb's loss will be fully covered, he having an insurauce of $1,000 on that portion of the block injured by the portion of the block injured by the fire. Mr. Butler who has his billiard tables on the ground floor, sustained heavy loss owing to water from the upper flat flooding through. No insurance.

removed another of the early pioneers of this country, in the person of Robert Proctor, of the Huron Road, who died on Sunday last, at the ripe age of 80 years. He was only sick a very short time, having been walking around on the morning of that day. He came to this county from Ireland, 49 years ago, settling on the lot where we died, and bravely endured all the hardships incident to pioneer life, making a very large circle of acquaintances during his lengthened residence here. He was quiet and unobstructive, taking no active part in public affairs, and leaves a wife, three sons and a daughter, to mourn his loss (the former, we regret to learn is in very poor health.) His remains were interred in the Goderich cemetery, on Tuesday, a very large number following them thither.
