Honolulu and Uncle Sam.WASHINGTON, July 23.—The Administration has three days in which to determine whether to recognize the new Hawaiian Republic promptly or to withhold its formal recognition another fortnight.
The question will probably come before the Cabinet tomorrow, and if decided then in the affirmative formal instructions to Minister Willis may be telegraphed to San Francisco and forwarded by next Thursday's steamer. Otherwise they will wait until the formal recognition will not be made with undue haste, on account of the Administration's contention that Americans were too active in overthrowing the old Government.Children Cry for*Pitcher's Castoria.*Children Cry for*Pitcher's Castoria.

LONDON GROCERS' PICNIC.

The Evening "Advertiser" Will be Delivered Early on Wednesday.

In consequence of the grocers' picnic, on Wednesday next, the Evening ADVERTISER will be printed and delivered to agents and subscribers at an early hour on the morning of that day. We wish the grocer-men and their many friends every success in their annual outing.

LONDON AND ENVIRONS

"No time for rest!

The sunlight streams
Across the west;
In golden beams;
No time for play!The future lies A closing day, Before my eyes!"

"No time for rest!

The flying hours
Must ever attest
Decaying tower—
Yet evening's gloom
Or rising dawn,
The voice of doom Is on and on!"

"No time for rest!

The spirit springs
With care distress
On tireless wings
Through smiling morn
Or midday flame,
On hope forlorn.
To wealth and fame!"A time for rest
The shadows fall
Across the west;
Like funeral pall;
At last success
Of woe and strife—
A lasting peace!
But what was life?

—The next British Methodist Episcopal Conference (colored) will be held in London in 1898.

—Mr. Oliver, South street, has obtained a permit to build a $400 addition to his house.—The London Furniture Company's establishment closed down yesterday for a week, pending repairs.—Mr. T. K. Grigg, late of the Grigg House here, and the Queen's Hotel, Winnipeg, is now manager of the Windsor Hotel at Regina, N. W. T.—The games committee of the Irish Beneficent Society picnic have arranged a splendid programme for the great outing, with a number of new features and big cash prizes.

—The members of the defunct Order of Fraternity Guardians in this city on Saturday received checks for 52 per cent of the moneys paid in by them. A short time ago they were paid 32 per cent.

—Miss Belle Saunders has returned from a visit to her sister, Mrs. (Rev.) Leith, Toledo, and will assume charge of the organ and choir of Union Street Methodist Church during Mr. Morison's absence.—Prof. J. W. Robertson, of the Dominion Experimental Farm, Ottawa, will be married in a month or two. His future wife belongs to Toronto, and is said to be the daughter of Rev. Dr. Ryckman, formerly of London.—High Treasurer Atwell Fleming and Supreme Auditor Benjamin W. Green, of the Independent Order of Foresters, left last night to attend the opening of Forest Island Park, near Deseronto, by Dr. Oronhyatekha.—Mary McKay, who claimed to be married and a resident of Ingersoll, was found in a livery stable near the corner of York and Richmond streets last night and was arrested as a vagrant. She promised to leave the city and the magistrate let her go.—The advertisement in today's issue regarding the great St. Patrick's demonstration and Highland games at Port Stanley on Tuesday next will interest thousands of ADVERTISER readers. Cut it out for reference as to train service. The famous Forty-eighth Highlanders bagpipe band is one of the attractions.—It is reported that Sir Henry Tyler, president of the Grand Trunk Company, favors taking back into the service of the C. and G. T. Company many men for whom there is work who did not take part in the acts of violence during the recent strike.

That is a generous proposition, and it is to be hoped that it will be done.—[Port Huron Times.—Cayuga Advocate: The conversation held on Tuesday evening, July 17, at the residence of Mrs. Hull, was a most enjoyable affair and was attended by a large number of our citizens. Miss Nora Hillier, of London, recited in excellent style, her several pieces showing that she is an eloquentist of more than average ability.
She was also kept quite busy telling fortunes by reading the lines of the hands.—At the 24th annual games of the Buffalo St. Andrew's Society on Saturday little Bertie Allister, the 7-year-old son of Mr. Joseph Allister, Elizabeth street, secured the gold medal and first prize in the Highland fling competition. The little Londoner had to compete with children nearly twice his age, as 12 years was the limit. He traveled to Buffalo alone, and has been in charge of Frank Wilson, a well known dancer and London boy.—Constant Reader.—I ordered a monument from a tombstone agent to be erected the last of May or first of June. About June 20 I received a card to be at centery at a certain date and have foundation ready. I did so, but they only brought the bases, saying the other would be ready in a week. It has not yet arrived. About a week ago they were told to take away their bases. Am I compelled to take the monument now? Ans.—Upon the facts stated you must take the monument, but are entitled to damages for their delay, etc., to be deducted from the price.Who Should Advertise.

Who should advertise is a question that has been propounded and answered in different ways.Our answer: Every one who has anything to sell, whether it is a product of the hand, brain or machine, and in cases where those who wish to buy, or secure, or exchange anything that they cannot obtain conveniently, they should advertise.Into Liquidation.

The Canadian Masonic Mutual Benefit

Association has been ordered by the Inspector of Insurance to go into liquidation, and Mr. Andrew Ellis, its secretary-treasurer, has been appointed liquidator.
The association was established here 22 years ago, and its members include Masons all over the country. It is given out that the advanced age of many of them caused such heavy assessments that it was not continue to do business. The directors made every endeavor to place the affairs onChief Attraction.Among the chief attractions in the procession of the Cook & Whitby circus last Saturday was the yellow wagon, which conveys throughout of Canada that most desirable of cures—"Williams' Royal Crown Remedy." This is what Mr. Weir says, whose life it saved: "This is a most marvelous cure. I became pale as a corpse; my blood seemed to be turned to water. I had dizziness and a ringing noise in my head; my hands and feet were cold all the time, and my limbs were completely swollen up to the body. Some doctors called it consumption of the blood. I got so weak that I could not walk, and finally took to my bed." Mrs. Weir says: "All Mr. Weir has told you is true. At times he lay for days unconscious and unable to take nourishment of any kind, and was reduced to a mere skeleton of 84 pounds; and I fully believe if we had been one day later in getting Williams' Royal Crown Remedy he would be in his grave today. So it may well be said "Williams' Royal Crown Remedy saved John Weir's life." The best druggists keep Royal Crown Remedy; but if your druggist does not, remedy direct to Isaac Williams Company, London, and they will send it to you by first express. The price at which Royal Crown Remedy is sold makes a course of treatment comparatively inexpensive as compared with any other medical treatment. Six bottles for a satisfactory basis, but without avail.

Complaint was made by dissatisfied members to the registrar of friendly societies, who instructed the inspector of insurance to investigate the association's business.
Liquidation is the result.Gen. Booth's Coming Visit.

Commander Ballington Booth, of the Salvation Army, who arrived in New York on Saturday from Europe, brought the news to the defenders of the faith that his father, Gen. Booth, would visit America next fall. Commander Booth said that the general had not been here for nine years, and that when he got here again his visit would be made the occasion of vast religious demonstrations. Commander Booth was accompanied on his way from England by Capt. Taylor, the cowboy evangelist, and Richard Holz, of Buffalo.

They all participated in the international congress in London from July 7 to 14, and they were such a success that they were sent on an ecclesiastical starting tour through the English provinces. It is likely that Gen. Booth will visit London and other centers in the Dominion.Labor Day.

The Labor Day demonstration committee held its inaugural meeting on Saturday night, when preliminary arrangements were made for a fitting celebration of that day on Monday, Sept. 2. Bro. Joseph Baker was appointed chairman and Frank Plant secretary pro tem. It is the intention of the various unions to make the celebration such a success as has never yet been experienced. The parade in the morning will be a novel feature. Among the societies represented at the meeting were the Tinners, Typographical Union, Amalgamated Engineers, Carpenters and Joiners, Cigar-makers, Directory No. 7 Industrial Brotherhood, Railroad Trainmen and Bricklayers. Several committees were appointed, among them being the music, printing and entertainment committees. It is proposed to have a firemen's tournament in connection with the sports. Companies from surrounding places will be invited to attend.

The Patrons of Middlesex will be invited to take part. The committees who have the affair in charge are most enthusiastic and look forward to a grand day.National Union Picnic.The members of Ontario Council, 209, National Union, held their annual picnic at National Union Park (Wonderland) yesterday afternoon. Some 75 members and 100 guests took the steamers Thames down and remained on the grounds until 6 p.m.
On arrival at the park a long table filled with a great variety of eatables greeted the picnickers. It was "help yourself," and few were lax in doing so. A baseball game was played with a soft ball. Trees were located as bases. It was a laughable game, and the double amping of Messrs.
Eli Griffith and Thomas Gillean was harshly criticised. Putting the heavy stone, hop, step and jump and other games found many competitors. Distance was not checked, all prizes being awarded by time. The swimming match, was the feature of the programme. The entries were Eli Griffith, R. K. Cowan, Joseph Gould and Al. Lays. Across the river and back was the distance, and Mr. Lays carried off the prize. Many complimented Mr. Griffith for the strong and dexterous stroke he showed for a man of his weight.
All swimmers were gaudily attired in bathing suits. Water Commissioner Cowan was an expert swimmer, his forte being floating. Perhaps his experience as a commissioner has educated him in this line of sport. His exhibition of "Sandow feats" in costume was loudly applauded.
The members and guests were well satisfied with the outing.Asking."He stole from my bosom a rose, My cheek was its color the while;
But, ah! The sly rogue, he well knows I had he asked it, I must have said mine."Yes, I remember that occasion. I was young then. I am not old now. I had not a pain or an ache. My blood was pure and my cheeks showed their crimson. I was happy and healthy. But now, woe is me!
I do not see a well day. I have these dragging down pains, this constant weakness, and I feel all the time worn and weary. My husband says he hardly dares to ask me to put a red rose in my bodice now, its color mocks my cheeks. Oh, that I might once again be well! You can,
