

an ordinary ex-

ing considerable stir in the Window Shade All we ask is that you inspect our stock

190 DUNDAS STREET.

The White Lady

addressed to Miss Anna Sutherland, Devonshire, England, was delivered by the carrier with the usual morning mail. Anna glanced at the handwriting, and a flush passed over her face, eyes caught a large blue pencil mark opposite one reading thus:

opposite one reading thus:

"At the embassy, on the 14th inst.,
Archibald Hillhouse, Esq., to Henrietta, relict of the late Patrick E. Con"I guess it's a fraud," said Watts.
"Let us go down to the town. Where in their establishment this coming nan, of New York."

quiet tone that Watts looked fac

'How is Mrs. Hillhouse-quite well, don't know; in fact, there is no Mrs. P. E. Connan, of New York,

Well, you needn't: I am well rid of her. I assure you, but it served me right, he mills of the gods grind slow, Watts, but I find they grind exceed- the shade again.

"Yes. And I just took an odd fancy and visionary calm.

"Dear Archie, you know I love you "Dear Archie, you know I love you you mind giving me the address or a man? Isn't it funny, at her age?" hote of introduction?"

Hillhouse frowned slightly, but he onswered:
"Certainly; I shall give you the address. I suppose the Madonna herself archie! But we will be so happy.

will be changed in these ten years; Auntie's husband has bought back the "Oh, that doesn't matter. Married to the Luggie side again, and you an or single, she will always have that I, Archie, will walk in—" sweet womanly look of goodness which All this she said, with her thin face gave the peculiar charm to that head. and sweet eyes full of love looking up row has been scalping at the exprescomprehending horror. Watts had sibly attend to both churches.

as to conceal the frown which gather-ed on the brow of Hillhouse.

fully around.

"The shadows!" she whispered, "the lying in his buggy. ed on the brow of Hillhouse.

"Ah—well—should you go—you need not mention my American experiences. They frighten me! the shadows, oh! They frighten me! the shadows, oh! the shadows!"

They frighten me! the shadows, oh! the shadows!"

They frighten me! the shadows, oh! the shadows!"

y glad to think they are-but J disappeared. shan't mention you at all. Besidessomething else may turn up—and I witness of the scene, drew a long may not go. But you have not yet heard of this place being haunted have No, not I. As I told you, I have just where she had vanished; a cold dew got here a few hours ago."

"Well, the most charming legend! It | glistened on his pallid face, his hands | felt like ice; he shook like one in an seems that a white figure is seen to ague fit. glide up and down this avenue and out and in among the trees after dark. "Come, old boy," said Watts, kindly; and Hillhouse, shivering, suffered him-It was seen last night by my land- self to be led away. who was passing this gate here. and he swears he saw her glide and

The Very Finest In the Land . . .

Nothing Like It.

Ordinary price in large cities, $5.00 per lb.

We offer a special lot at to introduce High Grade Teas.

Fitzgerald, scandrett & Co., 169 DUNDAS STREET.

You Will vanish behind a tree. The poor fellow "Bosh! Some practical joker, very

"That's what I think myself, and an ordinary explosion for several miles. You hear, however, about us all over years, they tell me, since this ghost years, they tell me, since this ghost began walking here at night—and yet I cannot hear of any tragedy having happened on the grounds. All very commonplace and nineteenth century conventionality, so far as I can make

> "Queer!"
> "isn't it? You are not in a hurry, > are you? Let us get in behind that > great chestnut there, and have a smoke "All right. Anything to pass the But come half way up the ave-There is a hollow there in the Watts. "I would really like to see a bona fide White Lady."

"Come this way," Hillhouse said, stepping inside the gate. "The place is quite familiar to me. Should the admission.

shows a surplus of $190.

Both Erin and Freelton fairs were largely attended on Friday. At Erin it is estimated that 10,000 people paid admission.

wner challenge us for trespassing, One month after this a newspaper ing a look at the old place. By the ddressed to Miss Anna Sutherland, way, who lives here now, I wonder?" "An elderly man and his wife, I hear, and the White Lady, of course." The two walked over the grass a few steps, and laid down in the hollow of steps. leaving it paler even than usual. She the bank, but though they lay there turned the paper over and over till her talking over everything until the twieyes caught a large blue pencil mark opposite the marriage notices; directly sank behind the encompassed hills, and "At the hotel, for the present. Yes, | winter. It was not until after another inter- as you say, this haunting business is It was not until after another interval of five years that Watts met Hillhouse again, and then it was on the banks of the Luggie, in the kind gray Scotch gloaming.

Both met at the entrance to the avenue which led up to the old house showing spectrally among the trees, and the new moon leaning back, peered at them curiously through the spaces between the trees.

But was not until after another interval of five years that Watts met Hillhouse, so you say, this haunting business is evidently a fraud. Still, the place will always be haunted for me. I passed the best and purest hours of my life in this same spot," remarked Hillhouse, getting up to his feet, and sighing audifoly as he looked down the avenue. Watts, who was already on foot, did not reply. He was peering intently through the trees.

"I could swear I saw a gleam of the best and purest hours of my life in this said that D. R. Ross, the well-known Embro miller, is about to purchase the old Great Western mills, now owned by Walter Thompson, of Woodstock.

Mr. Charles Richardson, who resigned his seat in the St. Marys town council to enter the mayoralty contest was re-elected to fill the vacancy by acclamation on Friday.

The brewery on Goyeau street, in the 51st year of her them curiously through the spaces through the trees.

"I could swear I saw a gleam of Hillhouse was leaning over the gate white just now," he said, in a whisper. Windsor, owned by the Windsor Brewwith his chin between his hands, sunk in reverie, when the familiar voice roused him.

"Hello! Well, of all people, you are "Hello! Well, of all people, you are "Shows the power of imagination, my dear fellow," laughed Hillhouse, but at that moment his arm was clutched as in a vise by the hand of the windsor, owned by the Windsor, and the windsor, in graph of the gate with the power of imagination, my dear fellow," laughed Hillhouse, but at that moment his arm was clutched as in a vise by the hand of the windsor Brew-ing Company, was sold at auction for $3,400—a little more than the mortgage.

Jake uthard bought it in.

The death occurred at his home in belonged to a friend of mine-let me the sudden rude grasp in which she see-some ten years ago, but they sold was so unexpectely enfolded, but Anna the place and went to Devonshire, in had drifted into a region where there she fled down toward the house and

He was still gazing at the spot

In eloquent silence they walked slow-and haggard face in piteous appeal to believe in things more than I do. Do you think God will ever forgive me

"I don't know, Hillhouse—how should I know? Can you forgive yourself?"

SHE WAS A CRIPPLE

But Four Boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills

Put Her on Her Feet.

Hamilton, Oct. 18 .- Public interest enters on the startlingly wonderful re-overy of Mrs. A. Waddell, 178 Queen street north. She was a cripple for four years. Today, through the agen-cy of Dodd's Kidney Pills, she is sound and well. Her story is short, but convincing. "For four years," sne states,

"I was the victim of kidney disease and lame back. I could hardly move about by Dodd's Kidney Pills, I tried them. I used four boxes, and can now get along without any help. I am curea, and you may publish this for the benefit of

He who waits to do a great deal of good at once will never do any.

The criminal is not another kind of being; he is ourself in our worst moods.

. Hearing of the great good done without the aid of a chair, on which that-that murder up there?"

(The End.)

down toward the town. They were ntering it when Hillhouse, under a imp-post, stopped and turned his wan

"Jear Arche, you know I love you always, and when you are a great and through the Aberfoyle swamp, on his way to town, Mr. George Farncombe killed a woodcoc. With a whip as it flew across the road. Mr. John Goldie bought the bird and will have it Typhoid fever claimed a victim Frience.

pounds.-Walkerton Telescope.

I shouldn't wonder if the years have only added to its loveliness. Time does in some faces, especially if soryour Madonna to give me a sitting or the eyes of the murderer.

Two for her head."

The twilight was not yet so profound his slackening grasp and glanced fear
two for her head."

The twilight was not yet so profound his slackening grasp and glanced fear
two for her head."

The twilight was not yet so profound his slackening grasp and glanced fear that he had been robbed of $700 in when a stranger asked him for a ride, was inclosed in a wallet in a pocket stranger leaped from the wagon, takof Rosebrough's overcoat, which was

Had to Stop and Rest Because fast would make me gasp for breath, and many a time I have had to stop on the street to rest and regain my breath. and my nerves were much unstrung. Anything annoying or worrying me produced extreme weakness, and would set my heart beating so fast that I thought I was dying. Sometimes I would become so nervous as to tremble like a leaf. I began taking Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills early last February, and have been getting better ever since. My nerves are much stronger. I can walk without difficulty, and the palpitation, fluttering of the heart, shortness of breath and nervousness trouble me no more. I gladly recommend these pills as the best medicine I know of for heart and nerve troubles on account of the great good they have done in my case." 221 they have done in my case."

Western Ontario.

A Woodstock Widow Leaves With an Unknown Man.

Four Months Old Lamb That Weighed 170 Pounds,

Big Shipment of Sheep From Guelph-Robbery at St. George.

Wyoming butchers report a scarcity of fat cattle. Brigden's new elevator will soon be shall tell him that I was merely having a look at the old place. By the ago, and a few nights ago the coil was returned to him intact.

Riding of Oxford Agricultural Society shows a surplus of $190.

The House of Industry committee of the Kent county council have decided Following the advice of her doctor End school, Oil Springs will rest from her labors until after Christmas.

It is said that D. R. Ross, the well-

"Hello! Well, of all people, you are the last I should expect to see here."
Hilhouse started, stared, and instinctively extended his hand.
"Watts! this is indeed a surprise!"
"It is to me," said Watts, shaking hands heartily. "Why, I understood heartily. "Why, I understood hands heartily. "Why, I understood heart a figure in white. All white save for the dark hair which hung tangled upon her shoulders and about her to Mr. John Myers, Colorado. The bought the bird and will have it Typhoid fever claimed a victim Fri-heard of, this year, at least, is one that was sold the other day by Mr. factory a few weeks ago. Two of his Fred Schumacher, of Carrick, to his neighbor, Mr. McCullough. It was only 4 months old and weighed 170 time. Eighteen days ago he was tak-

Mrs. Eliza Cook, 109 Palmerston Ave., Toronto, says: "Seven years ago I had the grip, followed by inflammation of the lungs. I have been afflicted ever since with heart trouble. To walk anyway

I had bad smothering spells at night,

PONTON LOSES HIS PLACE. son Charlie, who left home on the 4th inst. His parents are anxious about Belleville, Ont., Oct. 19.-W. H. Pon him. He is 16 years old, and small ton, the Dominion Bank teller, who for his age, quite boyish in his ways, was acquitted at Napanee on Saturand had no clothes with him but the day of the charge of robbing the Mrs. Catharine Patterson, wife of warmly welcomed in this city, and John Patterson, con. 11, Yarmouth, died spent Sunday at his home here. He Saturday night after a lengthy illness, went to Napanee yesterday morning in the 51st year of her age. Besides and roffered his services at the bank, iome. The sons, John and James, live The many friends of Rev. R.M.Craig, former pastor of Melville Church, Fergus, will be pleased to hear of his success in another land ing of the Presbyterian Synod of New Mexico, held Oct. 1, Mr. Craig was we shall see," Watts continued. "Let us hide behind this tree."

Passively and without a word Hill-house suffered Watts to drag him in behind the tree, and in a few minutes they were certain that it' was no ghost; the crunching of her shoes upon the gravel declared her to be some human being walking leisurely along. Watts craned his neck and peeped watts craned his neck and peeped without the shade again.

"It's a woman." he breathed; "she shade again.

"Woman or spirit, or whatever it is, Advocate.

The wedding cake found on the M. C. R. mail train, at St. Thomas, the other day, belonged to Mr. Reuben Newell, who was married at Spring-field on Wednesday. The cake was returned to the owner.

The 100-acre farm of the late Daniel Dempsey, situated on lot 26, con. 8, Ellice, was sold on the Stratford market by auction Saturday afternoon. Michael Crowley, of Ellice, was the purchaser, the price being $3,010.

"It's a woman." he breathed; "she with the past three years Berlin has lost by death five of its veteran had not the form to he highest honors in the gift of the church.

On Wednesday, Oct. 13, at the home of the bride's father, a wedding took place, the contracting parties being James Albert Donley, Eiglinfield, Ont., and Bertha, third daughter of Joseph O'Neil, Southgate, Ont. The Rev. Robert Wilson, of Trinity Church, Birr, officiated. The bride was attended by Miss Donley and Mr. Donley late the purchaser, the price being $3,010.

"It's a woman." he breathed; "she elected as superintendent of missions shipment is valued at $1,900.-Guelph for the territories of Arizona and New

Within the past three years Berlin has lost by death five of its veteran g small. You bet they do:
"And how goes painting—selling is quite close—sh!"
But Hillhouse looked round the when his horse dropped dead on the publishers, namely, D. McDougall, late registrar, founder of the Telegraph; P. Weil?"

Weil?"

But Hillhouse looked round the other side, and as she passed within a yard of them he sprang out, and with a wild cry caught her fast in his arms, and holding my own, at least. Sold a picture for two hundred and fifty the other day. But why were you mooning up here? Come to see the White Lady. Ike myself?"

What White Lady? I only landed here any more. It would have been natural had she fled shrieking from natural had she fled shrieking from the language of the sudden rude grasp in which she helphaged to a friend of mine-let me.

But Hillhouse looked round the other side, and as she passed within a yard of them he sprang out, and with a wild cry caught her fast in his arms. "Anna! oh, my darling! What is this? Why are you here? Speak to me, Anna; have I startled you?"

It was Anna, but she was not startled; nothing on earth could startle her any more. It would have been appointed superintendent of the central creamery, is to receive $960 per annum, with free horse and buggy to travel and oversee the five skimming stations in the district. Detective Campau has gone to day) to revise the Tilsenburg voters."

But Hillhouse looked round the other side, and as she passed within a yard of them he sprang out, and with a wild cry caught her fast in his arms. "Anna! oh, my darling! What is this? Why are you here? Speak to me, Anna; have I startled you?"

It was Anna, but she was not startled; nothing on earth could startle her oad. The animal had been in the possession of the family for 29 years, and Mr. McFarlane feels the loss keenly.

Mr. James Stonehouse, of St. Marys, who has been appointed superintendent of the central creamery, is to receive $960 per annum, with free horse and buggy to travel and oversee the five skimming stations in the district.

At the court held year of the Telegraph; P.

E. W. Moyer, founder of the Berlin Daily News; Casper Hett, of the Berlin Daily News; Caspe

tled; nothing on earth could starte her any more. It would have been the any more. It would have been the sudden rude grasp in which she the sudden rude grasp in which she was so unexpectely enfolded, but Anna had drifted into a region where there was no expectation and no disappointment, no sorrow, no joy, only a strange and visionary calm.

"Dear Archie, you know I love you "Dear Archie, you know I love you "Eriday morning, while driving the constraints of the list struck off. All but four of the list struck off. All but four of the server and the spring and oversee the five skimming stations in the district.

At the court held yeareday (Thurston, the court held yeareday (Thurston, the court held yeareday to revise the Tilsonburg voters' list the Conservatives asked that 30 new voters be put on, and 26 of these was tried at the spring assizes, but the jury disagreed.

"Dear Archie, you know I love you the part of the court held yeareday (Thurston, the court held yeareday to revise the Tilsonburg voters' list the Conservatives asked that 30 new voters be put on, and 26 of these was tried at the spring assizes, but the full yeareday (Thurston, the court held yeareday (Thurston, the court

The heaviest lamb that we have day, in the person of Ralf Storey, of Woodstock. Mr. Storey sustained a ounds.—Walkerton Telescope. en with typhoid fever, which resulted in his death. Deceased went to chapel of the Ascension, that has been woodstock from Brantford about a maintained by the congregation of All year ago, and had since been working Saints' Church, Windsor, for the benefit in the Bain Wagon Works. He leaves be closed, as Canon Hincks cannot pos- A Walkerville dispatch tells of a row has been scalping at the expression. At all events I am going to heard of no tragedy connected with the paint a Madonna for next year's exhibition at Munich, and shall try to get your Madonna to give me a sitting or the eyes of the murderer.

| Comprehending horror. Watts had heard of no tragedy connected with the place. Friday morning, Chief Ahern, Galt, received word by wire from Mr. Justice Rosebrugh, of St. George, stating that he had been robbed of $700 in the eyes of the murderer. ing with him the money pouch of the driver, the straps holding the pouch having been severed with a knife. Be ver, young Schotts leaped after him lively tussle ensued, and the plucky lad succeeded in regaining his money bag. He threw it into the wagon and started for town, his assailant having

The Ontario Gazette announces the formation of the following companies: The Milner-Walker Wagon Company, of Walkerville, Limited, with a capital of $250,000, and composed of Wm. Milner, J. R. Milner and J. E. Milner, of Chatham; Hiram Walker, of Isle Aux Peches, and D. R. Pierce, of Detroit. The Kent Mills Company, Limited, to acquire the milling and farm produce business carried on in Blenheim and Chatham by the Stevens Chatham Company, Limited; capital, $99,900. The Westminster Company, Limited, to take over the business carried on under the firm name of the Westminster Company and also the name, good-will and subscription list of the Canada Presbyterian; capital, $50,000.

The residents along Ingersoll avenue are just now engaged in discussing a little romance which developed dur-ing the past week. On Thursday light a middle-aged and attractive widow with her two children, who had hitherto lived on the avenue, left per G. T. R. for Fort Erie. Her house-hold goods were sent on to Buffalo, where it is said that a young man, a picture agent, is awaiting to make her his wife. Nothing is known of the young man in Woodstock other than that he was in town for some weeks enlarging photos and incidentally pressing his suit on the Ingersoll avenue widow. Prior to her departure the lady sold her house on Delatre street for $2,100, considerably less han it is reported to be worth. A relative told the Sentinel-Review this norning that the proceeds from the sale of the house were supposed to go towards educating the children, but that he was rather anxious now as to the probabilities of this taking place. No one seems to know the man name.—Woodstock Sentinel-Review.

Worms cause feverishness, moaning and restlessness during sleep. Mother Graves' Werm Exterminator is pleasant sure and effectual. If your druggist has none in stock, get him to pro-her husband she leaves four daughters but was at once dismissed by Man-and two sons. Her daughters are: Mrs. ager Baines. H. Lewis, con. 10, Yarmouth, and Misses Flora, Maggie and Iames, live

"THEY DON'T TELL THE TRUTH."

grocer has sold you Rolled Oats and called them "pan dried." And when you're eating them you say "those Tillson folks don't tell the truth; here's a hull-a black speck, and where's that nutty flavor that they tell about?"

You didn't ask for "Tillson's" brand, and you didn't get it if you did. Some grocers sell inferior brands under the guise of "pan dried." The original are just as we advertise them, but because they meet with popular favor the words "pan dried" are used indiscriminately.

Tillson's Pan-Dried Rolled Oats

"Tillson's" is the original-"Pan Dried" tered trade mark. No one but Tillson can lawfully use the words is their original regis-"Pan Dried" on bags or other printed mat-

The Tillson Co'y, Limited Tilsonburg, Ont. Thisonoury, Ont.

CURES COLIC. CHOLERA, CHOLERA-MORBUS, DIARRHOEA, DYSENTERY,

And all SUMMER COMPLAINTS of Children or Aduits. Beware of Imitations

Navigation and Railways Royal and United States Mail Steamers for Queenstown and Liverpool. ...Oct. 20, noon ...Oct. 27, noon ...Nov. 3, noon Nov. 17, noon Nov. 24, noon *MAJESTIC. *Superior second cabin accommodation on *Superior second cabin accommodation on these steamers.

From White Star dock foot West Tenth St. Saloon rates—On Teutonic and Maiestic, $100 and upwards: second cabin rates. Majestic and Teutonic, $45 and $50; round trip, $85 50 to $95, according to location of berth. Saloon rates on Germanic and Britannic, $75 and upwards. Steerage at lowest rates. Company's office, 41 Broadway New York.
For further information apply to SOLE AGENT FOR LONDON.
Office-"Clock," corner Richmond and Dundas.

208, 210, RUNIANS & BUTLER, DUNDAS STREET.

London's Greatest Store.

Price is a Powerful Argument. Particularly when backed up by such stocks and qualities as you get here.

Our Bargains Are the Talk of Every Household.

Storekeeping nowadays is different to what it used to be. Trade conditions have completely changed during the last few years, and the old-time store-keeper don't seem to be in it any more. We're new and up-to-date in everything, never hesitating to take advantage of new ideas, or providing extra facilities, when business demands it. This fact relates to the Big Extension recently added to The Big Store, making London's Departmental not only the most economical, but the most comfortable and convenient for the masses to do their shopping.

More New Dress Goods.

Ex S.S. Labrador, another large shipment of beautiful styles, comprising the most select weaves of rich fabrics, of the choicest description, in elegant designs and marvelous combinations. These will be shown this week for the first time, and are remarkable value, making our Dress Goods Display the finest in the west.

Gloves, Hosiery, Underwear.

These departments are in keeping with the good name of the house, and are in perfect harmony with your many wants for all kinds of weather. This week we'll offer such phenomenal values that will make these sections the most popular in the Big Store. All this week, remember, Gloves, Hosiery, Corsets and Underwear, at very special prices.

Jackets and Capes.

This week we will hold a Special Exhibition in our Mantle room of three cases new goods, the latest Paris and Berlin novelties, all beautiful garments and exceedingly good value.

NEW FURS ....

We are now prepared to show an elegant assortment of Fine Furs, at from 15 to 25 per cent. cheaper than most houses, in Jackets, Capes, Muffs, Ruffs Caps, etc.

Blankets, Comforters and Quilts, every size, weight and price, at prices in favor of the buyer. We Sell the "New Idea" Patterns, at 10c.

Runians & Butler.

- IMPORTERS

GRAND TRUNK POLYER Hunters' Excursions

Muskoka Lakes, Bala, Beaumaris, Hamil's Point, Foote's Bay, Blackstone Moon River District, Redwood, Port Cockburn, Maganetawan River, Rosseau, Penetang, Midland, Argyle to Coboconk, Cameron to 'Haliburton, Severn to North Bay, Points on C. P. R., Mattawa to Nipigon and Spanish River via North Bay inclusive.

- AT-Single First-Class Fare, Going Oct. 26, 27, 28, 29, 30 and Nov. 1, 1897. alid for return until Dec. 14, 1897 Full particulars at "Clock" corner Rich

From Brockville and West in Canada

TOURIST CAR SERVICE TO THE PACIFIC COAST. EVERY FRIDAY AT 12:55 P. M. (NOON).

A Fully-Equipped Tourist Car Leaves Toronto and Runs Through to Seattle, Wash. Without Change. Also From North Bay at 10:15 P. M. EVERY THURSDAY. Accommodating Passengers for Revelstoke. Asheroft. Vancouver, Victoria, Portland and all Pacific Coast Points.

Ask any Canadian Pacific Railway Agent for pamphlet "To the Pacific Coast Without Change," or write C. E. McPherson, Toronto. THOS. R. PARKER, city passenger agent, 161 Dundas street, corner Richmond. City

MICHIGAN CENTRAD Boston, New York, And the East,

Chicago And the Nashville, Tenn.,

All particulars at the city office, 395 Richmond street. Phone 205. JOHN PAUL, City Agent, O. W. RUGGLES, JOHN G. LAVEN, General Pass. Agent. Can. Pass. Agent

At Low Rates.

City Bindery...

BOCK & FYSH, Formerly of E. H. Kordes' Bindery, now open for all kinds of work.

Government of E. H. Kordes' Bindery, now open for all kinds of work.

For rates of freight and other particulars apply to ELDER, DEMPSTER & CO., Montreal, or R. DAWSON HARLING, 23 Seets Street, Toronto, Telephone 2,845.

Navigation and Railways. | Navigation and Railways

The direct Route between the West and all points on the Lower St. Lawrence and Baie des Chaleur, Province of Quebec; also for New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, Prince Edward and Cape Breton Islands, Newfound land and St. Pierre. Express trains leave Montreal and Halifax daily (Sunday excepted) and run through without change between these points. The through express train cars of the Intercolonial Railway are brilliantly lighted by electricity, and heated by steam from the locomotive, thus greatly increasing the comfort and safety of travelers. and safety of travelers.

Comfortable and elegant buffet, sleeping and day cars are run on all through express trains. The popular summer sea bathing and fishing resorts of Canada are all along the Intercolonial, or are reached by that route.

Canadian-European Mail and Passenger Route.

Passengers for Great Britain or the Contin-ent leaving Montreal Sunday morning will join outward mail steamers at Rimouski the join outward mail steamers at Rimouski the same evening.

The attention of shippers is directed to the superior facilities offered by this route for the transport of flour and general merchandise intended for the Eastern Provinces, Newfoundland and the West Indies; also for shipments of grain and produce intended for the European markets, either by way of St. John or Helifax.

Tickets may be obtained and all information about the route, also freight and passenger rates, on application to

N. WEATHERSTON,

Western Freight and Passenger Agent,
93 Rossin House Block, York street, Toronto,
D. POTTINGER,
General Menager.

Railway Office. Moncton, N. B.,

21st May, 1897.

Royal Mail Steamships, Liverpool, Calling at Moville. From Montreal. Oct. 17 Oct. 23 Oct. 31 Nov. 7 Nov. 13 Nov. 21 Carthaginian. California.... RATES OF PASSAGE. RATES OF PASSAGE.

First cabin Derry and Liverpool, $52 50 and upwards; return $105 and upwards. Second cabin, Liverpool, Derry, London, $34. Steerage, Liverpool, Derry, Belfast, Glasgow, London, everything found, $22 50 and $23 50. Liverpool. Derry, Bel everything found. $22.5 Glasgow-New York York: Mongolian, Oct everything found, $22 50 and $23 50, Glasgow-New York service — From New York: Mongolian, Oct. 15. Cabin, $45 to $65; return $90 to $123 50; second cabin, $36; return, $64 13; steerage, $28 50,
AGENTS—E. De la Hooke, "Clock" correr Richmond and Dundas, Thos. R. Parker. southwest corner Richmond and Dundas streets, and F. B. Clarke, 416 Richmond street. DOMINION (Elder, Dempster) LINES.

Montreal to Bristol (Avonmouth) Direct S.S. Merrimac..... S.S. Etolia.... And weekly thereafter. Montreal to London Direct.

S.S. Queensmore........Wednesday, Oct. 20 S.S. Parkmore........Saturday, Oct. 30 And weekly thereafter. Cold Storage Accommodation provided on Bristol steamers.