MRS. LINK EXPLAINS THE QUARANTINE CASE
Alleges That She Was Not Properly Treated By the Medical Health Officer.
A letter has been received by The Advertiser from Mrs. Link, of Ridout street, whose daughter was accused by the health authorities with breaking quarantine. She declares that her house was locked up before she had an opportunity of getting any supplies, and makes the statement that there were no provisions sent to the house for almost a week. The letter is as follows:
"I came in the Saturday evening's issue of the Advertiser that Dr. Hutchison has had a warrant issued for my daughter. He shut my house up on Saturday before I could get anything to eat, and I had nothing from Saturday until this Friday, except a little food from my former landlord brought to us on Wednesday, and that was only enough to last a day. I am just as much as the girl, as I told her that there was no small box in the house. My husband and both of them broke out in a rash afterwards from bad blood. Those who have been sleeping with them have not taken the disease. There are seven of us in the house, and none have contracted it. I am as much as fault as the girl, and if they want to arrest any person, they had better arrest both of us. The girl is not 20 years of age, but will be 17 on June 18. Sincerely yours,
"MRS. LINK, 351 Ridout street."

Glencoe Sends an Invitation to Hold the County Convention There.
The change from the correct date for the meeting of the Women's Christian Temperance Union did not affect the audience unfavorably, as the room above the public library was well filled Tuesday. Preliminaries ended, Mrs. John Williams, county president, read a cordial invitation from the temperance ladies of Glencoe to hold the county convention in that place.
Mrs. Gordon Wright led the devotional exercises, after which the president of the union, Mrs. Herbert Ashplant, called Mrs. M. R. Thornley to the front to introduce her guest, Miss Sproule.
This lady gave an account of her last 62 days in the lumber regions. Her work is undomestic, and she finds adventure, and receives kindness from Protestant and Roman Catholic alike, and her audiences are composed of all the men of both forms of religion, who in each camp understand English.
Refreshments were served and enjoyed after Miss Sproule's address.

NO SCHOOL PICNIC BOARD DECIDES
Said That It Interferes With the Studies of the Scholars.
SCHOOL IMPROVEMENTS
May Well Be Made This Year at a Cost of $26,000—Other Matters Before the Board Yesterday.

There will be no school picnic this year. At the meeting of the board of education yesterday afternoon, it was decided not to have a picnic.
The board was practically unanimous in this, and the $900 "kiddies" will not have the pleasure of a ride to Springbank this summer at the expense of the city.
Trustee Strong brought the question up, and said that it was about time the board did something if it was the intention to hold the picnic. The entrance examinations were earlier than usual this year, and the picnic should take place early in June. He suggested that it be held on June 8.
Inspector Edwards thought the earlier the better.
Trustee Gammage thought it had better be held at the beginning of the holidays, as the attendance was generally poor when it took place early. He suggested as late in the term as possible.
Broke in on Studies.
Dr. Teasdale suggested to the board that they consider the advisability of holding a picnic. There was no doubt it broke in upon the teacher's work. A majority of the trustees considered the picnic harmful as it prevented work for some days before and after the event. The day itself was a considerable strain upon them.
Trustee Gammage moved that the picnic be scheduled for July 1.
"We cannot get away on holidays, Wednesday, nor Saturdays," said Trustee Graham.
Trustee Weeks also opposed the picnic and stated that it was undoubtedly harmful to the children at this time of the year. It took away months of their studies, and had no benefit.
"I withdraw my suggestion," said Trustee Strong. "A number of the trustees are against it, and it is a matter of economy not to hold it. I will favor it."
Trustee Teasdale moved that the picnic be discontinued for this year.
Teachers Opposed To It.
"Ninety per cent of the teachers, and a large number of the parents are opposed to the picnic," said Dr. Teasdale. "Let us give them a chance this year."
His motion carried with little or no opposition.
The board decided yesterday to ask the council to issue debentures for the sum of $26,000 to build the four-room addition to the Waverley road school, and for lavatories and heating systems in several others.
The items were as follows:
New Works.
Four-room addition to the Waverley road school, including new heating apparatus, new lavatories, and alterations ..... $18,000
King street, new lavatories ..... 1,500
Henry street, new lavatories ..... 3,500
Empire avenue, new lavatories ..... 2,500
Colborne street, new lavatories ..... 3,000
Quebec street, new lavatories ..... 1,500
Colborne street, new heating plant, 4,000
Colborne Street School.
Dr. Teasdale objected to the expenditure of $7,000 on the Colborne street school, a $6,000 building. Trustee Gammage pointed out that it was necessary to make the improvements as something had to be done to properly heat the school, and provide accommodation. The saving on fuel bills alone would more than pay the interest on the money invested. The school would be outside the school, and if it were ever necessary to erect a new school, the heating plant would still be of use.
The items all carried.

Fuel Supply.
The tenders for the fuel supply were awarded as follows: Hard coal, Connell Coal Company, $5.90 per ton; best lump, Youghloughery, John Mann & Sons, $4.25 per ton; long wood, maple, J. A. McLurg, $6.80 per cord; blocks, maple, J. A. McLurg, $7.75 per cord.
The contract for lumber was awarded to the London Lumber Company, it being the lowest.
It was also decided to partition the assembly rooms at the Collegiate, to give more room for teaching.
Sand Pans.
Sand pans will be furnished the pupils of Grade 1, and the janitor of Simcoe street school will be paid at the same rate as the other janitors throughout the city.
The board of works were empowered to go ahead with the needed changes.

Wortley Road Addition.
Trustee Strong asked if the plans for the Wortley road additions were ready yet, and Trustee Gammage reported that Mr. Nutter was working on them and that they would be ready shortly.
Mr. Alex. Muir applied for the position of manual training instructor. No. 1.
Miss Annie Wilson thanked the board for their kindness at the time of the death of her father, Mr. Nicholas Wilson.
Those present were: Chairman Westervelt, Trustee Gammage, Strong, Hamilton, Teasdale, Wyckoff, Graham, Mullan, Gunn and Weeks, Inspector Edwards, Principal McCutcheon, Trustee Officer Weir, and Secretary McElheran.
