The Baseball Bulletins

The Advertiser score-by-innings bulletin service is discontinued today. The press of war news upon the Canadian Associated Press wires has led the central organization to suspend the service from now until the end of the season. The final scores will be posted each day. As the Canadian League ends Monday the chief interest in bashall in this city is gone, at least until the world's series commences. The Advertiser will give its usual service on the world's series, bulletining each play from the start to the conclusion.
