Mocha Shriners Hold "At Home"

Hundreds of Guests Present at Brillia Event-Patrol Drill Features.

Once again members of Mocha Temple Shrine proved themselves genial hosts, when last evening in Masonic Temple. they were "At Home" to some hundreds of guests from the city and other points; The hall presented a gay scene, during the mazes of the dance, the patriotic decorations forming a fine setting for a very bower of greenery; the windows and balcony were draped in orange, red and blue, and canopies of Union Jacks over the floor of the dance-hall completed very attractive decorations.

Excellent Program.

Previous to the dancing, a most excellent program was introduced by W. W. Gammage, the following taking part: Cutcheon; violin selections, Miss Florence Eggelstone; harp solo, Joe Cortese; vocal duet, Messrs. Coddling and Hen-silwood. Noble C. E. Wheeler acted as happily chosen a comedy drama, with Shriners, stating that in spite of the me pleasure and enjoyment necessary, id so had not withdrawn the annual At Home.

A feature of the evening, and one that licited the warmest praise and admiraion, was the drill of the "Arab Patrol. which some twenty-five members, captained by Colonel A. E. Somerville, crosses, squares, circles, and many other ed with precision and rapidity. Entrancing Music.

An evening of unadulterated fun was enjoyed last night by an audience that crammed the Grand Opera House for the many handsomely costumed women, an annual most popular event, the and the fez-crowned Shriners. Immedi-University play. The Western colors atly in the centre of the stage-front was were everywhere in evidence, adding suspended the mystic symbol of the Shriners, a huge crescent and sword, outlined with solvered light and sword, outlined with solvered light and sword, outlined with solvered light and sword, light and sword, outlined with solvered light and sword, outlined with solvered light and sword, light outlined with colored lights, and the word "Mocha" apparent on the swordblade. Scores of palms made the stage ative bands on the programs. The audience was also a festive one, that had "dressed up" for the occasion, and come prepared to sympathize with and thoroughly appreciate the student thespians.

From the rising of the curtain to the last drop, not a single moment Songs, Manchester Male Quartet; vocal dragged, and the amateurs acquitted solos, Miss Beatrice Hunt, W. A. Mc-themselves in a manner that would have done credit to a professional company of good rank.

To begin with, the play was most
