Captain John Towers, of St. Catharines, well known in this city, who for a number of years has commanded the steamer "Ocean," running between Montreal and Toronto, has received the appointment as superintendent of the Richelieu & Ontario Navigation Company's steamers, between Montreal and Toronto. Capt. Towers will have entire supervision of all the steamers on the route.

The Windsor Quill says:-The Pennefather case in Chatnam has been adjourned until the Fall Assizes, the Crown not being able to go on, giving as their reasons the illness of two witnesses. In speaking of the matter a gentleman who is behind the scenes said:-"This talk about the illness of the janitoress and Manager Ireland is all bosh. The whole sum and substance all bosh. The whole sum and substance of the affeir is that the prosecution has been beautifully done up by parties from The Canada Packing Co.'s extensive whom they expected strong evidence."
