Anglican Missions on the Fraser.

His Lordship Bishop Hills has just returned from his visitation of these Missions, which extend from New Westminster to the Bonaparte River. Those interested in the work of the English Church in this Colony will be glad to hear of the success which has attended the ministrations of the Rev J B Good at Lytton, and of Mr D Holmes at Yale, There are over 150 fully enrolled Catechumens at Yale. His Lordship during his short stay there addressed the congregations; assembled from villages between Spuzzum and Ohaynish, which filled the little Church to suffocation. one occasion an Indian interpreter fainted from the heat and closeness.

On approaching Lytton a party of 60 horsemen, consisting of chiefs associated with the Lytton Mission and the principal men of their tribes, met the Bishop's carriage, panied him to Lytton. There a procession of 700 Indians assembled from all the villages fifty miles round and waited to exchange greetings. Some most interesting services were held at Lytton, especially one for the public reception as a do candles 20 bles call 10 2 and so a do candles 20 and so a do candles 20 and so a do candles 20 and s Catechumen of a once notorious sorcerer and Medicine Man " named Pasco. v These services were mostly in the open air, the Mission School being too small to accommodate half the crowd of eager listeners. The two chiefs, Sassiatun and Spintlum, are warmly attached to the mission. In all, 16" chiefs, are intimately connected with the Lytton Mission, and six with that at Yale. The number of Catechumens associated with Mr Good's mission is 580.

On his return His Lordship inspected the Christ Church mission farm at Hope. Thirmade to as many of the more industrious families attached to the Yale Mission. Nearly 130 persons are directly benefitt d by these gardens. At the time of His Lordship's visit many were camped on the ground in order to attend to the growing crops. Mr Holme's tent, with his Catechist's flag hoisted, was pitched at a little distance from the main camp. In all about 13 acres of land bave been brought under cultivation, and the whole church estate fenced in by statute

The inhabitants of every village on the way turned out to greet His Lordship. Not a single case of drunkenness was seen during the whole journey-a fact attributable to the rigorous administration of the existing law as it affects both buyer and seller of intoxicating liquors.

The road is reported to be much cut up, especially between Spuzzem and Yale, and bridges being under repair.
