Toronto, May 10. The Early Closing Bylaw.

Editor World: I would like to call the tention of our worthy aldermen again to the early closing movement. As they are going to have the management of our stores in the future and close them at 7 o'clock, why don't they have some cards printed and distribute them among us! The movement is a disgrace to the city, and shows how the rich can grind down the poor. And you might say men who are no longer free, but have their stores run by the aldermen who, I suppose, will see that the rent is paid in the future.

Toronto, May 10.

Gillespie and The Globe. Editor World: The question is not who is to get credit for this 5 per cent, coup d'etat with the Bank of Montreal, but why is it that a wealthy city like Toronto should be setting living from hand to mouth, as it were, and runliving from hand to mouth, as it were, and running its little business on borrowed money? The man or the city that depends upon borrowed money to carry on business is surely in a bad way. It may suit boodlers and bloodsnekers, but it is rot an honest way of making a living. If the principal of 'pay in advance' is right for the water rates, then it is also right for the taxes and should be applied at the last year's rates, for instance, be taken as an approximation of values with a tail for six months faxes in advance, and I feel sure that a very honest taxpayer will only be too glad to, respond to the call, for the beauer aid credit of the city we love. tit of the city we love. Referring to Piano Fortes of Messrs. Heintzman & Co., Dr. Stainer says as follows: "I much regret that, owing to the late period at which I was called upon to make a report, all the more important instruments exhibited by this firm HAD BEEN SOLD AND REMOVED. But those remaining fully justified their high reputation. An Upright Grand, which I examined was in every respect a fine instrument; the touch was sympathetic and had a good repetition; the tone was full and rich. I also tried a specimen style No. 9, which was equally deserving of unqualified praise." SEND FOR ILLUSTRATED CATALOGUE.
