The Free Press

Published by The London Free Press Printing Co. (Established 1849.)

TELEPHONE NUMBERS: 5200-Private Branch Exchange-5200 After 10 p. m. and Sundays: Business Office, 3080; Editorial and Reporters, 6426; Composing and Mailing Room,

The Free Press is delivered in the city at the rate of 15 cents per week, 65 cents per one month, $3.90 for six months, $7.80 for one year. By mail in Canada payable in advance — one month, 50 cents; six months, $2.50; twelve months, $5.00. To the United States — one month, 65 cents; six months, $3.50; twelve months, $7.00. Foreign subscriptions, $13.80 a year.

ADVERTISING BRANCH OFFICES: Charles A. Abraham, 232 St. James street, Montreal, Quebec. E. J. Guy. 302 Royal Bank Building, Toronto. Ont.

D. J. Randall, 341 Fifth avenue, New C. W. Wallis, 1243 First National Bank Building, Chicago, Ill. Circulation audited by A. B. C.

Tuesday, September 2, 1924.

Our Third Greatest Industry.

Even the most casual observer must be impressed with the number of American automobiles to be seen in London, the towns and cities of Western Ontario and along the highways. Nearly every other car seems to bear an American license. ranging from Michigan to Florida and California. What this means to mates the tourists left the following money in Canada in 1923:

British Columbia	36,000,000
Alberta
Sask'wan and Manitoba	10,000,000
Ontario	30,000,000
Quebec
Maritime Provinces

Total $136,000,000

In this same year, 1923, according to the Department of Customs, 122,247 American automobiles entered the Province of Ontario and received permits to remain there for a period of from two days to six months-this in addition to 1,600,-000 odd which came over the Niagara and Detroit frontiers and received permits for 24 hours only There were 85,758 similar permits issued in Quebec and 55,447 in British Columbia; for the whole nine provinces there were 274.400—of least 95 per cent. were on pleasure bent, rather than on business. Last registered in Canada as of Cana-

If these figures are correct, then the tourist industry is the third largest in Canada, ranking next to agriculture and lumbering. These figures take account only of American tourists, There is, also, annually, a stream of European, Australian and Oriental tourists. It is a business which is growing and a business worth catering to.

increase this business. He suggests, in the first place, better ad- this situation when in a statement they treason, and a hundred other pranks. vertising. The fact that British said: "The trouble with the Maritime It may seem that men unholy down the EMPIRE RECIPROCITY advantages, but because it early good press agent. realized the value of publicity. Better highways, of course, are anwhich is doing a splendid work in fering and shame; "Total loss, without Unhappily, there are those who take fering and shame; "Total loss, without the opposite view and by trifling maother necessity. Good hotels are bringing the attention of Canadians to another requisite. Finally he suggests that various communities has practically met this need by issuing falter as she trails from lodge to lodge, should pull together, not knock Maritime Provinces, one on New Bruns- the crook who tries to dodge. each other in publicity and adver- wick and the other on Nova Scotia. tising. This is a feature the value These publications contain concise of which Western Ontario is begin- descriptions of the individual provinces, ning to realize. Western Ontario with an outline of the progress each is towns and cities at one time pulled the development of the many resources in opposite directions, owing to with which the Maritime Provinces have foolish local jealousy. However, been so richly endowed. this feeling is breaking down. Western Ontario communities appreciate that their interests are one. This year, for the first time a number of Western Ontario boards of trade and chambers of commerce breaking all records. Just wait until the united in issuing joint literature for Western Fair gets started.

Reforming the Civil Service

A news dispatch from Ottawa gives the interesting news that the Civil principle of promoting efficient em- because she does. ployees rather than advertising the jobs, following the recommendation of the Senate. It is hard to understand why people beautiful, but you don't see very a mile in the ocean and then suddinly such a common sense principle was not many pretty politicians. adopted long ago. Why should not efficient employees be promoted when there are openings, as would be the plan

We are referring to this dispatch, the top. however, with a view to calling attention to the fact that this recommendation comes from the poor, old, muchabused Senate. There have been innumerable investigations into the operation of the civil service, and none of them has made as many sound, sensible recommendations for its reform as the ried on last session Despite all talk of economy and reduc- to idolize the Prince of Wales. tion of staff, the civil service, like a snowball, keeps rolling up yearly. The in 1913-14 there were 29,135 civil servants, with a pay roll of $24,341,188. Naturally the war swelled the numbers, The Government could make no better you want eny results you haff to take until in 1919-20 there were 50,307 em- appointment. ployees of the Government, with a pay roll of $52,459,614. This was reduced the following year to 41,641 employees, but with a pay roll as high, totaling $53,- 6.

42,238. The Senate is convinced, like everyone else, that there is overlappin and overmanning and gives as the mai auses the following:

uses the following:

1. The indiscriminate appointment, prior to the passing of the present Civil Service Act, of persons whose the property of the present Civil Service Act, of persons whose services were not necessary. For this abuse, deputy ministers cannot be held fully responsible.

2. The building up of large war staffs, and the retention of large numbers after their services had ceased to be necessary until otherwise placed in the service.

3. The retention on compassionate grounds of employees who through inefficiency would have difficulty in obtaining a livelihood outside the civil service.

4. The retention of old employees who have exceeded their period of usefulness, but who have been allowed to continue in their positions in the hope that an adequate superannuation act would be passed at some future time.

In addition to a reorganization of the

In addition to a reorganization of the Here they come with bright eyes ervice, which should be carried out hrough the Civil Service Commission, with the aid of the deputy ministers, the mmittee recommends the following But I know by all the laughter subsidiary measures: 1. The retirement of employees who, on account of age, have exceeded their period of usefulness, where this can be done without inflicting undue hardship, and the immediate release of inefficient employees.

2. Careful scrutiny by the Civil Service Commission, after consultation with the minister or deputy minister, of all requisitions for new appointments; no new appointment should be made unless absolute need for the position can be demonstrated. for the position can be demon-strated. 3. The abolition of vacancles which have remained unfilled for six months. If a position can stand vacant for that length of time, it is not essential to the organization.

A Contrast-France and Canada.

The Free Press editorially drew attention recently to the mutilation of trees Canada is shown by figures pre- glong the highways of Western Ontario, pared by the National Parks De- and suggested that the Provincial Govpartment. The department esti- ernment, following the example of France, might adopt a policy of planting trees along the roads of the bird in the nest and the twisting of

> This month's magazine, Canadian Forests and Outdoors, has an interest-fashioned, but she has more to teach than she has to learn. In one respect, tree preservation, she is particularly sane and wise and Can-ada would profit by following suit. France and Germany are famed for eier extensive forest reserves, but France, the systematic utiliza-on of the roadsides almost uni-ersally for tree plantation, is of hief interest to Canadians chief interest to Canadians.

"The roads and many canals are bordered by single, double and sometimes triple rows of trees. In the North of France these are generally plane or poplar, and in the South more often pine, olive or cork. In the tablelands the road dies in the distance holding an unswerving tree-framed vista to the horizon. In the hilly country, the avenues of the hilly country, the avenues of ley wall, disappearing aurupos, reappear miles away on a distant Mr. Meredith observes that the old of life, trees and branches are carefully used mobiles, used for all purposes, for fuel, but as soon as a tree disappears one is planted to take is place.

trees writhe up and down the val-ley wall, disappearing abruptly, to

He remarks: "Here at home we treasure what roves of trees we find in the country and are furious when some selfish farmer 'rings' a fine elm, some telephone line demands the slaughter of a row of trees, or a soulless road foreman clears a clump from near his sacred ditch. We would see that the sacred ditch. from near his sacred ditch. We would not mind if the established custom was growing—cutting and replacing—but it is short-sighted butchery that irritates."

Advertising the Maritime Provinces The Free Press has been suggesting put all things across; justice on her that the Maritime Provinces, as one perch is sobbing, and the law's a total to British goods. There is only one solution of their difficulties, should ad- loss." I replied, "This man is greater remedy, and the sponer we all get down Toronto Saturday Night, makes some suggestions how Canada can increase this business. He sug-Provinces is that we do not hear path of safety wend, but the law, which This is from The Financial News, of making and the possibilities awaiting

NOTE AND COMMENT

Only reliable thing about some peopl is their unreliability.

Toronto Exhibition claims to be some of this fine weather for Western metic. People that never get arif-metic rite in skool should try to grow

Service Commission has adopted the does not understand him it usually is mixed chocklits in a candy store and

The chief trouble with the man who followed by any business establishment? he has a son who is working down from spell a werd by the way they pronounts ceed the late Hon. Frank B. Carvell, the other hand ink lasts longer and is not too often. commission, will be promoted to suc-

A THOUGHT

The Third Column

Do you know the rich delights Of the food called "shiver bites?" Raisin bread with butter on it And an inch of jam upon it. Can you feel once more the hunger Of the days when you were younger And you hurried home from swimming, Now and then to get a trimming? But more often, oh my brother, To get something good from mother; Maybe cookies by the fistful? Oh, in those days eyes grew wistful Seeing food, and appetites Fairly shouted: "shiver bites!"

"Shiver bites!" we called them then, "Shiver bites-" and now we're men And our children stand and shiver Till the good things we deliver, dancing

To the kitchen fairly prancing, Cold and hungry; and that clatter Sounds to me like teeth that chatter. It is food those kids are after, "Shiver bites" I hear them shouting Oh, there isn't any doubting That's real hunger that is shricking For the nourishment it's seeking. 'Shiver bites!" Oh, was it wasted, That glad youth when cookies tasted Sweeter far than milk and honey n these days of making money, n those days when we were younger You and I knew real hunger, Knew the joys complete of swimming. But to-day our strength is dimming

And we wonder, quite forgetting That our sun is slowly setting. If we had such appetites-Did we plead for "shiver bites?" Yes, time was they said of us We were just as ravenous.

Copyright, 1924, by Edgar A. Guest.) DISCONTENT.

Content is degeneration if anything is. If there be any divinity in this world be an inducement to settlement at all it is found in discontent. Discontent is growth. Just as much as the wiggling of the the tiny roots in the soil are manifestations of growth. every new change, every radical thought r suggestion, and you will not only be PENALIZING CAPITAL e fixed upon something better than that at which we work and strive.

building up. Everything great in this world comes from those who strap this latter idealism to their breast. Sweet content is all right in its place, faith.'

but its place must be after the day's REDUCTIONS WANTED work is done and some useful task per-formed. It is not enough merely to do the thing at hand because it is at hand.

Discontent is looking ahead-that is the divine sort of discontent. That is what makes all great men and great nations as well as happy and successful men and women in all walks

-George Matthew Adams.

THE INEVITABLE END. In this fair and sunny region long a bandit held his sway, and his vicious and we made our journeys townward and balance its accounts." with our bosoms full of dread. Oh, the DOLES AND TAXES Service of the Department of Interior, which is doing a splendid work in

MISTAKES.

Everybody makes mistakes sometimes on account of it being impossible for everybody to be rite all the time, some If the weather man will only save up harddly ever being, espeshilly in arifup not to be bookkeepers or cashiers. When a man tells a girl why his wife Some mistakes are meerly panefill, sutten as asking for 5 cents worth of then finding out you only have 4 cents in your pockit, wile others are reely Mud baths are being used to make serious, sutch as swimming out about remembering you can ony swim good enuff to swim one way. Spelling is easy to make mistakes

The chief trouble with the man who has worked up from the bottom is that can never tell how a persin would it, meny of the most perfeck pronountsers being some of the werst spellers. Lethbridge is blowing because it has History is easy to make mistakes in wheat 20 bushels to the acre. Western on account of all the dates. The ony Ontario has numerous crops which are running 50 bushels.

The Americans may not want a king

On account of a the dates. The only date everybody knows for sure is 1492 wen Clumbus discovered America, proberly being the easiest date to remember he could pick out at the time.

Keeping the hair clean and the scalp in good condition during the dusty, hot summer days was a duty to which Mrs. Mann, of Anytown, applied herself, par-looks more intelligent. Proving chances. One of the best mistakes you can make is to think you are going to We all do tade as a leaf .- Isa., Ixiv., have rice pudding without raisins in it for dizzert and then find out its 2 diffrent kinds of pies insted. One of 266,627, and in 1923-24 the total em-ployees was again growing, reaching Church Burial Service. In the midst of life we are in death. the most diskusting mistakes is to kick a nale and think it was at leest a cent.

HAKESPEARE

This figure, that thou here seest put, It was for gentle Shakespeare cut; Wherein the Graver had a strife With Nature to outdo the life: Oh, could he but have drawn his wit As well in brass, as he hath hit His face; the Print would then surpass All that was ever writ in brass. But since he cannot, Reader, look Not at his picture, but his book.

Money Matters Overseas

Other Parts of the Empire Are Grappling With Questions of National Debt, Taxes and the Like.

Countries across the seas, though all | measures of trade expansion must be concerned about the question of revenue and taxation, are showing considerable the responsibility to provide others better, or, at least, equally good. They claimed to possess the key to economic difference in their attitude toward it, recovery; let them use it, or tell us because their financial conditions are why!" different. National debts and high rates of taxation are nearly universal, but one country, at least, has come out of the war without a heavy load to carry. The Rhodesia Chronicle tells about it "Part of our prosperity is undoubtedly due to the fact, that unlike other countries, we have no burden of war debt. This, when realized by the prospective British emigrant with capital, sught to Rhodesia. The treasurer made the frank confession that the current revenue

B. Meredith, in which he contrasts the conditions in Canada and France along the country roads. He points out that in Canadian towns and cities tree-planting is a part of municipal beautification, but that the country roads too often are little more than "lonely, man-made motor paths." He adds:

"The Old World is old, and old-fashioned, but she has more to teach than she has to learn. In one of the conditions in Canada and France along the considered a "back number," but you will not only be a "dead one."

Progress and the betterment of this world one. "Progress and the betterment of this world can come about in no other way than through the divine agency of discontent.

It is the thing that makes youth triumphant and brave, and which hardens the muscles of the worker.

But in our discontent our eyes must be fixed upon something better than the contrasts the considered a "back number," but you will not only be considered a "back number," but you will ere long be a "dead one."

Progress and the betterment of this world can come about in no other way than through the divine agency of discontent.

It is the thing that makes youth triumphant and brave, and which hardens the muscles of the worker.

But in our discontent our eyes must be fixed upon something better than the country roads.

But South Africa has its problems of taxes and their effect on capital. The Cape Argus, for instance, says: "It seems strange that the necessity of saving and the madness of penalizing capital unduly is not more clearly understood by those whose vital and hot-blooded." I am reminded by the constancy of plot, by the dan-suck as and their effect on capital. The Cape Argus, for instance, says: "It seems strange that the necessity of saving and the madness of penalizing capital unduly is not more clearly understood by those whose vital and hot-blooded." I am reminded by the constancy of lots as the seems of taxes and their effect on capital.

But South Africa has its problems of taxes and their effect on capital.

But South Africa has

New Zealand has been clamoring for tax reduction for some time past, and The Auckland News is still strong for question. We are also permitted to see ficit of £2,500,000 and still have a sufficient balance at the end of the year urged that the first duty of he Governget away. All the crimes from murder downward he'd committed, it was said; and we made our found that it was said; and we made our found to the following the found to the following the found to the following the Master Mind was busy, drawing ran- In England the unemployment situasoms fit for kings, and the sleuths were getting dizzy chasing round in futile of taxes, and leads The London Daily rings. And my neighbors read the papers, tab on all his crimes they kept: ents which have been tried for the re-'Crooks can pull their evil capers and lief of unemployment have only comget by," they said, and wept. "When plicated the disease by adding to the a man of brains goes robbing, he can taxes on industry. Someone must pay taxation must be lightened.

conflicting parties, the results of the im-

two very informative handbooks on the but she packs a chain and halter for perial conference have been lost and another rebuff offered to imperial trade. We can, of course, do no more than accept the situation, unpromising as it may seem, but we should be doing less than our duty if we did not point out that upon those who have rejected these

LITTLE JOE

SOME WOMEN WOULD BUY A HIPPOPOTAMUS IF THEY COULD GET IT CHARGED!

"The Black Hood," by Thomas Dixon; the Ryerson Press p.p. 336, price $2.00.

The author of "The Black Hood" has written many books, such as "The Clansman," "The Leopard's Spots" and may be underestimated. So much the "The Southerner." The publishers have better. Among the best assets at the well said in a note on the wrapper that moment are low taxation, which must add to our credit in the eyes of the world, and especially to that class of of intense popular interest and present-Stand still, frown at every new thing, settler whom we hope to attract here." ing it in the form of a romance that is vital and hot-blooded." I am remind-be fixed upon something better than that at which we work and strive.

We must more and more enter upon living as a business, not merely a vocation.

Is the capital available for the business of production? The uneven distribution of the history of and a revelation as well of the history of the Ku Klux Clan as at least ensure saving and without saving, large-scale industry becomes imaging, large-scale industry becomes imaging, large-scale industry becomes imaging afterdays of the war between the North and the South The war between the North and the South The same well in the capital available for the business of production? The uneven distribution of the history of and a revelation as well it is a story of and a revelation as well in the capital available for the business of production? The uneven distribution of the history of the Ku Klux Clan as at least ensure saving and without saving, large-scale industry becomes imaging the capital available for the business of production? The uneven distribution of the history of the Ku Klux Clan as at least ensure saving and without saving, large-scale industry becomes imaging the capital available for the business of production? The uneven distribution of the history of the Ku Klux Clan as at least ensure saving and without saving the capital available for the business of production? The uneven distribution of the history of the ku Klux Clan as at least ensure saving and without saving the capital available for the business of production? There is, however, the discontent of tearing down and the discontent of tearing down and the discontent of draw their development upon the recertainty prevails that they will keep Julius and Henry are sufficient testimony to the helplessness of that large class who had become accustomed to serve. We see in the political campaign it: "Mr. Massey implies that he could question. We are also permitted to see terrorizing methods and practices of the organized white population. The black hood was part of the disguise of to cover the problem of the lean period. the order, whose whole outfit seemed Once more, it cannot be too strongly ghoulish enough to those who either had no connection with it or had reason to ment is to make a drastic reduction in fear its strong arm. Indeed, Dixon in a taxation, and if the prospect is that brief prefatory note appeals to the "five there will consequently be a deficit, that million members of the new Ku Klux risk should be taken. Since last year's Klan that they read this book. He guarbudget, designed to concede £1,563,000 antees to each reader the warning of an in taxation, yielded a surplus of £1,812,- old proverb that history will repeat in their true perspective and regard their significance." So in thirty-eight chapters the author tells how the Clan swept away "every prestige of the reconstruction regime" except Justice Hawkins. Indeed, the tragedy of that man is the history of the final phase of the struggle between the Craig estate while John was at the war. Knowing that Craig was the head of the clan, he made it impossible for him to practice in court. Eventually Craig disbanded the clan, but Wilkes. who sought Claudla's hand, resurrected the clan as a new-found source of power. At a party in which the boys were dressed in chan attire the judge was murdered by his opponent, Black-mar. Craig had warned the judge about the danger. Wilkes tries to fasten Columbia leads in tourist trade he enough of them in Scotland." What the travels slowly, always gets there in London: "It would seem that when our the murder on Craig. He suborns Julius the murder on Craig. He suborns Julius the murder on Craig. accounts for, not from its superior Maritime Provinces evidently need is a the end." And this bandit, who had best customers, who are - per head and others, but his case hopelessly good press agent.

The Natural Resources Intelligent vail, who by many towns was wanted, their offer of preferential terms, it the sets at the preference of the preference He sets a trap for Craig by having Claudia get him as her attorney and try to persuade her to betray the secrets of the clan-an act followed by swift death. She uses all her wiles and succeeds. Wilkes plots to murder him at Inwood, but is in the end frustrated by Logan and his followers. Little Samm, the Jew's son, being the spy who gets the information. Wilkes and Lowery are killed and Craig and Claudia, who have really been lovers all the while, are left to each other. Craig comes off well and proves an admirable character, Claudia, one has difficulty in admiring, though she does bravely in the end. Her virtues hardly outweigh her agility at scheming. The story has thrills enough for a dozen stories; the negro element affords a bit of fun and the eventual assertion of the power of the state gives one satisfaction. The words of the general, which form the closing paragraph of the book, are very significant: "There's room for just one uniform in this republic and I am

Is not Sammy the gem of the book? Surely a brave and charming lad. S. K. Radcliffe has strong words to say about the Ku Klux Klan in the Hibbert Journal for July. E. W. EDWARDS.

Italy has a singing lightning bug. affin is added to the blacking. Methylated spirits will remove fly tains on mirrors. Rhubarb juice is one of the best agents

-FABLES ON HEALTH-Treating the Scalp

The Americans may not want a king to rule them, but they would be an unto rule them, but they would be an unto rule them, but they would be an unto rule them, but they only had to remember their own the rule them. recommendations for its reform as the Senate, as the result of an inquiry car
Senate, as the result of an inquiry car they ony had to remember their own dates on account of that all there was doubted, dates on account of that all there was dates on account of that all there was dates on account of that all there was dates on account of the principle of the several baths of water, the dates on account of that all there was dates on account of the principle of happy lot if royalty was abolished, dates on account of that all there was judging by the way they are preparing to idolize the Prince of Wales.

Just how appreciative the nair is of a good shampoo is shown by its gloss and soft, fluffy look after the shampoo has been applied.

Give the head a first rubbing with a hard, thick Turkish towel. Other rubband has been applied. ways.

Ottawa rumor has it that S. J. Mc
If you rite in pencil it is easier to Use clean brushes and don't be afraid bings can follow with ordinary hand snowball, keeps rolling up yearly. The Ottawa rumor has it that S. J. Mcif you rite in pencil it is easies not figures prepared by the Senate show that completely the senate shows the sena will dry the hair more quickly

King is the leader of the Government,

LIBERALS AND THE PARTY. while being done in a naval sense. The anyone go there, or is it just for cer The inaction of the present Govern- subject, however, must be kept alive so tain people in London? ment is not a Canadian 'policy. It is a Liberal policy, or what might be more correctly described as a Liberal-Progressive policy, for if Mr. Mackenzie has yet to assume.—Victoria Colonist. are open to any person. The fees for there is little doubt that Mr. Forke is THAMES VALLEY GOLF COURSE. are 50 cents. Clubs may be rented for the leader of Mr. King. The truth is that under existing political conditions, Editor Free Press: Could you give 25 cents. Season tickets, good until London, August 30, 1924. Answer: The Thames Valley Golf links those who have not a season ticket with a group Government in power, any information regarding the Thames June 15, next, are on sale at the Pubthere is no prospect of anything worth Valley Golf Course regarding fees. Can lie Utilities Commission offices at $10.

Something More!

After meals you want something more—a bit of sweet with a change of flavor. WRIGLEY'S is that "something more" and it's more than that! It is a great aid to your good health, as medical authorities say.

This is from a recent book on health:

"Many physicians now recommend gum chewing for a better and more complete change of the starches into dextrin."

after every meal

-means that your digestion is aided while your pleasure is served; teeth and digestion both benefit.

Your choice of several flavors, all of the WRIGLEY quality—sealed in its purity package.

Wrigley's makes the next cigar tastebetter

Your rapidly expanding market

The number of telephones you can reach to do business with in Ontario and Quebec has more than doubled in the past 9 years.

Each year for 9 years Bell telephones in service have increased over 11 per cent.

The value of telephone service may therefore be 11% more each year to those who diligently profit by the opportunities it offers for saving time and expense.

It takes 113/4 years for capital to double itself at 6% interest compounded annually.

How much can you make the telephone worth to you today?

C. H. BEARD, Manager.

EVERY NEW SUBSCRIBER ADDS TO THE VALUE OF YOUR TELEPHONE