The One Sure Way To Good Health

Is Keeping the Blood Pure by Using Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

Impure, weak blood is the cause of most of the troubles that afflict people. This is the cause of the wretched feeling of languor and faintness, pains in the back and side, headaches and breathlessness, that afflict women and make her daily life a torture. To get new health and strength the blood must be enriched. What Dr. Williams' Pink Pills do in cases of this kind is told by Mrs. Augusta Emery, Woolford Station, Alta., who says: "Living on the prairie and knowing that there are thousands of women like myself miles away from a doctor, I want to tell them what Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have done for me. After my first baby was born I seemed to have little energy. I felt weary and run-down and unable to do even the ordinary household duties. I felt I needed a tonic and as I had long seen Dr. Williams' Pink Pills advertised I decided to try them. I got a supply and carefully followed the directions and before very long the result was wonderful. Day by day I regained my former strength and energy. The pills seemed to give me a keen appetite and I gained in weight and soon was able not only to do my work about the house but to help with many chores on the farm. For this reason I would advise women, particularly those on the prairie or the farm, to keep a supply of these pills always on hand. One trial will convince you of their worth. I have recommended them to many of my friends and never have they failed to produce good results."

You can get these pills from your druggist or by mail at 50 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

It takes the wool of ten million sheep to supply the Canadian demand for woolen and knit goods. The secret of how it is done will be revealed at the Canadian National Exhibition.

PRISON NOT SO BAD SAYS ONE WHO KNOWS

Mrs. Huck Had Herself Jailed Just To See What It Was Like

Mrs. Winnifred Mason Huck, formerly representative in the United States congress, had a great yearning for experiment. Being a forceful lady with great tenacity of purpose, she decided that she might as well investigate things as not. She had plenty of time.

She arranged for a friend to charge her with stealing an overcoat. The case came to court and Mrs. Huck pleaded guilty. She was given a six months jail term.

Three days were spent in Cleveland surrounded by bums, dopes and bad food, according to the congresswoman's account. The voluntary convict was then transferred to Marysville prison in company with a negro bootlegger. There she resided with female murderers and thieves, found them a kindly lot and conditions generally satisfactory.

After a month, she was pardoned and, following a dinner at the executive mansion, set out again with a total capital of $5.00. Despite the fact that she made no secret of her prison record, she easily secured a job as maid in Columbus. After she had saved $15 she went to Wheeling, W. Va., worked in a factory at $9 a week and lived on her earnings.

Her next job was one as chambermaid in a Pittsburg hotel. When the management learned about her past, they refused to allow her in the guests' rooms but, on the whole, were very nice about it, and gave her a new job in the afternoon.

Eventually she reached Manhattan with 43 cents, where the Salvation Army gave her a night's lodging for 30 cents and the United Charities found her a position.

Then she returned to Chicago and her children, with a huge collection of experiences.

Incidentally her ideas on the subject of prison reform were greatly changed.

"Every prisoner I met" she told reporters "feared the law and hated it for the punishment it imposed. There is a dread, caused by fear of prison, which I am now convinced is practical. Formerly I thought prisons out of date. But they serve a useful purpose. Only there is not enough attention paid to the problem of fitting girls to lead a new life, once they are released."

Out Goes All RHEUMATIC POISON

Rheuma Acts on Kidneys, Liver and Bladder the Very First Day

Get a bottle of Rheuma today and wear a satisfied smile on your face tomorrow.

It's a remedy that is astonishing the whole country, and it's just as good for gout, sciatica, lumbago and kidney misery as for rheumatism.

It drives the poisonous waste from the joints and muscles—that's the secret of Rheuma's success.

But we don't ask you to take our word for it; go to J. W. McLaren or any good druggist and get a bottle of Rheuma today; if it doesn't do as we promise get your money back. It will be there waiting for you.

Lieut. Governor Cockshutt will be presented with a complete Made-in-Canada outfit at the Canadian National Exhibition. Mrs. Cockshutt will also be the recipient of a 100 per cent. Canadian costume and will also receive a tiny lamb, emblematic of the woolen and knit goods industry and its importance.

SSING TOURISTS TAKE FREE BEER WHEN RUNNERS' TRUCK UPSETS

Dezing and Henry Parker, each 19 years of age, who give Dexter as their home, were arrested by High Constable Wharton, of London, on Monday, charged with the illicit transportation of liquor as the result of their cargo of ale upsetting in a ditch on the fourth concession of delatide township Sunday morning.

Between 5.30 and 6 o'clock Parker was seriously injured and is now in Victoria Hospital. Dezing, of the Middlesex county jail, was driving a one-ton Zion United with 70 cases of ale on it, on to St. Thomas. Parker, is a widow, living at the time of the accident, and gave no reason for the transportation of liquor.

Dezing fled from the scene of the accident, was later in the day arrested by the police of Strathroy. Before the police reached the accident, the 20 cases had disappeared, motorists helping themselves. About 50 cases are held under lock and key by the police. The truck is a one-ton wreck.

Prisoners told the police they had been working in St. Thomas all night, and suspect they are tools of big business in the bootlegging business, working on this angle of the case.

PASSION PLAY IS STAGED IN QUEBEC

Sacred Drama Produced for First Time in Canada

For the first time in Canada, the Passion Play was produced on Sunday by residents of the Town of St. Jerome, a thriving industrial community set in the heart of an agricultural district close by the foothills of the Laurentians. The sacred drama was enacted on a large scale based on the methods followed by the natives of Oberammergau, and as the story of the great tragedy was unfolded by picturesque and stirring tableaux and gripping narrative, it enthralled a large audience which had gathered from the town itself and all the neighboring communities. The situation of the town lends itself admirably to such a production. First, by reason of its location on the north river, which tumbles down from the hills at the point where the Canadian National Railways bear off on its climb into the charming mountains, and then by the fact that people of these communities are intensely religious in sentiment and enter thoroughly into the true spirit of the faith that is theirs.

A priest of the parish, Father Jean Davila Ethier, blessed with experience and travel and special training in music and other cultured advantages, in addition to his theological training, suggested the idea of the Passion Play some months ago and it was taken to so readily that today his aspiration became a reality.

The large cast necessary for the production, helped by one or two special friends of Father Ethier, who surrendered their annual vacation to aid, was found from among the townspeople, and they not only gave up their time to the study of their parts and rehearsals, but also made their own costumes and helped to build the scenery necessary for the staging of the numerous scenes. The people took so earnestly to the drama that the week previous to the performance was spent in spiritual retreat, so that each might approach the depiction of the story animated with the highest principles.

The result was a performance most edifying, produced in an atmosphere of sincerity, which left its visible impress on the large audience. Some of the scenes, such as the entry into Jerusalem and the crucifixion, were really marvelous by reason of the wonderful grouping of hundreds of figurants and the amazing success achieved by purely native talent. The costuming was excellent throughout and, indeed, the whole production was most impressive. Some of the individuals who essayed the characters in the sacred drama came from odd walks to the stage of the Passion Play. The actor who essayed the role of Christ and gave a most appealing performance in its impersonation is an advocate in everyday life. Mary is a good housewife of St. Jerome. The Magdalene is a sister of the priest who ducced the work. St. Peter is a cloth cutter, while Judas, who also gave an impressive performance, is employed in a packing plant.

It is intended to repeat the performance every Sunday during August and throughout the month of September.

WALKERTON EDITOR SIDESWIPE BY LIQUORED "LIZZIE"

While Lorne A. Eedy, editor of the Walkerton "Telescope" and some friends were driving into town last week, a Ford driven by Mr. French Pearce of Paisley, met them east of the C.P.R. crossing and in passing caught their rear fender, smashing it and destroying a couple of club bags on the running board. After side-swiping the Walkerton car, the speeding lizzie then headed to the left for the ditch. With the brakes full on, the Paisley car skidded several rods and then crashed into a telephone pole with a bang that smashed in the front of the Ford, breaking the steering gear, front fender and radius rod. Fortunately nobody was hurt. License Inspector Widmeyer who happened along before the crippled car was cleared away, after sniffing the atmosphere decided to lay a charge against the Paisley party.

Auto pushball, said to be more thrilling than auto polo, is the latest dare-devil pastime to be introduced at the Canadian National Exhibition this year. It is played with four cars and a huge rubber ball weighing 250 pounds. It has a spine-creeping effect on the spectators.
