Local Death Roll

Many Prominent Residents are Passing Away

MRS. E. G. LANGLEY

The people of Bridgetown and her friends throughout the Maritime Provinces and elsewhere were shocked to learn of the death of Alice, wife of Mr. E. G. Langley, who died at her home in Bridgetown at 12.30 Wednesday morning, aged 66 years. Mrs. Langley, after spending more than thirty years in the hotel business in Bridgetown, retired less than a year ago, she and Mr. Langley residing in their private residence on Granville Street. She had a very large circle of friends and acquaintances, was highly respected and a general favorite with all who knew her. Her health had been falling for a couple of years, but it was hoped that a general rest would restore it. She is survived by three sisters, Mrs. J. W. Salter and Miss Ada Munroe, of Bridgetown, and Mrs. Adoniram Rumsey, of Clarence. She leaves a husband, but no family. The funeral, which was largely attended, took place Friday afternoon, with interment in Riverside Cemetery. The services were conducted by Rev. M. S. Richardson, pastor of the Bridgetown Baptist Church, of which the deceased was a member assisted by Rev. E. Underwood, Rector of Saint James' Parish. The pall bearers were B. N. Messenger, T. B. Chipman, A. C. Charlton and Karl Freeman. The floral tributes were many and beautiful, showing the high esteem in which the deceased was held by her friends at home and abroad. The MONITOR extends its deepest sympathy to the bereaved ones.

MRS. EDWIN RUGGLES

Mrs. Ermina S., wife of Edwin Ruggles, Esq., Barrister, passed away peacefully at her home, Granville St., at 9.30 Sunday morning, aged 66 years. Mrs. Ruggles, who was one of the most highly respected ladies of the town, had always taken a deep interest in church and social affairs until the beginning of her illness two years ago. Her death although by times daily expected, has cast a gloom over a large circle of friends.

The deceased was a daughter of the late Charles Fitz Randolph, for many years proprietor of the big Randolph farm at Carleton Corner. Besides her husband she is survived by one son, Frank, of Winnipeg, and one daughter, Bessie, at home. She also leaves two step sons, J. W., manager of the Standard Bank of Canada, at Toronto, and E. D., who is at present in Winnipeg. Her only sister is Mrs. Owen Nelly, of Toronto, who spent the summer with her. Funeral takes place from St. James church at 3 o'clock this afternoon (Wednesday) with interment in Riverside cemetery. The services will be conducted by Rev. E. Underwood, rector of the Church, of which the deceased was a prominent member.

WILLIAM A. PICKLES

The death occurred at Nictaux Falls, Annapolis County, on November 12th, of William A. Pickles, aged 73 years, one of the oldest and most prominent residents of the Valley, after a lingering illness. The deceased was highly respected in the neighborhood and the funeral on Nov 14th was largely attended. Mrs. Pickles predeceased him by nine years, and four daughters and a son survive. They are Miss Bertha Pickles, of the staff of the Victoria General Hospital, Halifax; Mrs. A. B. Balcom, of Wolfville; Mrs. L. F. Heath, of Albany, N. Y., and Miss Margaret, of Boston, and George, of Fort William, Ontario.

OIL FOR LOCOMOTIVES

PARIS, Nov 26.—The first locomotive on a French railroad to use oil was sent out on an experimental trip yesterday and hauled a heavy train with complete success. It is announced that railroads in this country have planned to alter their engines so as to use oil fuel instead of coal and that 200 locomotives will be thus changed.

Recent Weddings

A Number of Interesting Happy Events

PATTERSON—HOYT

The flag was hoisted early Wednesday morning on the MONITOR building in honor of a very pretty wedding which took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hoyt, Granville Street, at 9.30 a. m., when their youngest daughter, Nan K., was united in marriage to Mr. W. Henry Patterson, sales manager of the George Phillips Co., wholesale cut glass dealers, Montreal. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. Underwood, Rector of St. James Parish, in the presence of a number of invited guests. The bride, who was given away by her father, was prettily dressed in white satin, and carried a bouquet of white roses. She was attended by Miss Marjorie Roberts, who was attired in pink crepe de chene wearing a large black picture hat with pink plumes and carried a bouquet of pink and white carnations. The wedding march was played by Mrs. H. G. Hoyt, of Sydney.

After luncheon had been served, the happy couple left via the west bound express and after a short wedding trip will reside in Montreal. The bride wore a travelling suit of navy serge with hat to match. The groom's gift to the bride was a handsome set of furs, to the bridesmaid a signet ring, and to the organist a cameo pin. The other wedding gifts were numerous and costly, showing the high esteem in which the young people were held. The bride for the past four years had been an obliging member of the Bridgetown Post Office staff. She had a very large circle of friends in her native town, all of whom join in extending best wishes. Among the out of town guests were Mrs. A. Patterson, mother of the groom, of Stratford, Ont.; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hoyt, Weymouth; Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Hoyt, North Sydney; Mr. and Mrs. J. H. MacDaniel and Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Hoyt, Middleton.

BENT—INGLIS

A very pretty event was witnessed by a large number of relatives on the evening of November 25th at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Fenwick Inglis, Tupperville, N. S., when their youngest daughter Mildred Dorothy was united in Bonds of Holy Matrimony to Stanley Whitman Bent, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Bent, Belleisle, N. S.

The home was artistically arranged the colouring scheme of the dining room pink with green floral trimmings. The parlour done in branches of pressed autumn leaves, the drawing room in green and white and an arch placed of hemlock and white Chrysanthemums, the back ground of white ribbons hangings. As the organist Mrs. Howard Ray, rendered the wedding march four little girls (Misses Aggie Bent, Jean Inglis, Dorothy Swetnam and Mary Boehner) dressed in white carrying staffs wending their way to the arch unwinding white ribbon forming the aisle through which the bridal party took their places.

The double ring service was conducted by Rev. W. J. W. Swetnam. The bride was given away by her father. She was becomingly gowned in a dress of white satin, with liver and pearl trimmings wearing the conventional veil and orange blossoms, carrying shower bouquet of white Asters and Asparagus, fern, of the bride Miss Lorna Inglis was bridesmaid, attired in pink satin with silk and jewelled trimmings and carried a bouquet of Chrysanthemums and fern, little Lois daughter, of Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Woodbury, cousin of the bride performed the honour as Ring Bearer, her little youth in a white satin fluffed dress, with a dainty head dress and streamers giving her every appearance of a little fairy. The groom was attended by his brother Roy.

After receiving congratulations a very dainty luncheon was served. The groom's gift to the bride was a gold wrist watch to the bridesmaid gold and ruby pendant; little ring bearers, set ring of Turquoise and pearl, the groomsmen gold fob and to the organist a brooch.

Travelling Desperados

A STRANGER IN A GAS MASK STARTLED BRIDGETOWN

Held up Clerk Friday Night With German Revolvers And Took Till Money—Tried to Shoot Lawrence-town Merchant But Latter Chased Him Away With an Axe

A sensational affair took place in Bridgetown at 9.20 Friday night when a stranger, wearing a gas mask entered Howse's grocery and confectionery store and covered Johnson Howse with a revolver, demanding all the cash he had on his person and in the till, which consisted of about fifteen dollars. The clerk was alone at the time and unarmed and granted the burglar's request. After the burglar's departure Mr. Howse locked the shop and notified the policeman, whom he found in the dance hall in the Ruggles block. Mr. Howse describes the burglar as being a well built man, 5 feet 10 or 11, wearing a black overcoat. Wednesday night two stores were broken open in Middleton and a number of German revolvers and gas masks stolen.

Thursday night a young man about 19 or 20, about 5 feet six wearing a military button brown cap and brown overcoat, entered the general store of H. H. Whitman, Lawrence town, at 6.45 and pointing a revolver at Mr. Whitman, demanded his cash. Mr. Whitman refused the request. The

The wedding gifts consisted of numerous pieces of silver, cut glass china, fumed Oak Rocker and a very substantial cheque from the bride's father, also five other envelopes containing upward amounts. The Belleisle Division gave pieces of china and silver pyrex dish and many friends of Tupperville presented her with useful gifts at a shower given at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Woodbury.

The bride's going away costume was a Salt's Plush coat with a set of Gray fox furs, the furs being a present from the bride's mother. Her hat was of Taupe velvet and tips to match with apricot lining.

The happy couple left with best wishes of future happiness on Wednesday express for Sackville to visit the groom's brother, enroute to Portland, Me.

PIGGOTT—MESSINGER

A pleasant event took place at the Baptist Parsonage, Bridgetown, Monday evening Dec 1st, when Rev. M. S. Richardson united in marriage one of Centrelea's most popular young ladies, Miss Blanche Messinger to Mr. Calvin Piggott, also of Centrelea. The bride who was unattended was prettily dressed in white silk. The happy couple left the following day for Boston and New York and after a bridal trip of a few weeks will reside at Centrelea. Their many friends extend congratulations and best wishes for a long, happy and prosperous wedded life.

RITCHIE—POTTER

A quiet wedding took place at St. Luke's church, Annapolis, Wednesday morning when Miss Lulu Jane, younger daughter of the late Andrew Ritchie, Moschelle, became the bride of Homer Parker Potter, son of Thomas Potter, of Upper Clements, the ceremony being performed by the Rector, T. C. Mellor. The bride is a niece of Mrs. Mary Kinney and of Mrs. M. C. McDormand of Annapolis and has been very popular among the young folks who all join in hearty congratulations and best wishes to both for their future happiness. The bride was married in her travelling dress, attended by Mrs. M. Kinney. A wedding breakfast was revolver was clicked but failed to go off. Mr. Whitman immediately grabbed an axe and the young fellow turned and ran out the door. Mr. Whitman locked his store, got a revolver and searched the town for the stranger but failed to locate him. He then communicated with the Chief of Police at Bridgetown and all along the line.

Saturday Chief Police Gill went as far west as Clementsport on the south side of the River and as far as Granville Ferry on the north side, but could get no clue to the robbers.

A telephone message to the MONITOR from Mr. Boyd Bishop, Digby's Chief Police, announced that two strange fellows, in that town about ten days ago, who could not give a satisfactory explanation where they were going, were locked up overnight, but as there was no charge against them were allowed to leave town the following morning.

Chief Bishop describes them as follows: One aged about 35 years, height 5 ft 10 inches well built, wearing a black overcoat over fairly good clothes. The other about 19 years of age, 5 ft 6 inches, wearing a brown overcoat and brown cap. The young fellow wore a military button.

partaken of at the residence of Mrs. Henry Ritchie, of Moschelle, and the happy couple left for Halifax on the 1.07 train amid showers of confetti at the railway station.

CONWELL—LACEY

The marriage took place in Halifax on Thursday of Miss Margaret Lacey, a former resident of Annapolis to Frank Conwell, of Digby, where they will make their future home, taking with them the very best wishes of a large circle of friends. The groom is a C. P. R. clerk in their freight department on the Digby pier and is very popular and highly respected by a large circle of acquaintances. The MONITOR extends congratulations.

A TYPOGRAPHICAL ERROR

One That Made "Andy Break A World's Record"

Okotoks Review:—By one of those unfortunate but infrequent (?) mistakes which occasionally are made even in the columns of the Review, the birth of a daughter to Joe Price, was credited last week to Andy. With that laudable desire to avoid trouble for which the editor is noted, we carefully kept out of both parties' way and carefully inspected every visitor through a peephole while the devil interviewed them. Unfortunately we were on the street, one day and Andy saw us first. When he got through he comforted us with the information that what he had given us wasn't a circumstance to what we would get from Joe when he saw us. (Joe won't see us if we can help it.) Andy says we did it "a puppos." He requests us to look back over our file for the last five months and indignantly asks if we think he is trying to establish a world's record. He also says that he objects to having to stay out of town for two or three weeks until the matter blows over, and to locking his doors against his friends and neighbors who come over to inquire after the baby, and when they can't get in, make their queries through the windows.

SOME BOOZE

Fifty seven million gallons of whisky will be available for Americans when the war time prohibition is ended by Presidential proclamation probably within a week. It is estimated that the owners of the whisky stocks now in bond will clear up $600,000,000 in profits and possibly more, in the short time intervening before constitutional prohibition begins in January. The lowest estimates in the liquor will bring $20 per gallon on the average, and even at that figure the consumers will pay about $1,140,000,000 for the stocks now in the warehouses.
