

ter deducting the cost of survey and sale, and the contingent expenses attending the Treaty. The lands shall be surveyed and offered for sale in the usual manner, at the land office in Detroit, as soon as practicable after the ratification of this Treaty. A special account shall be kept at the Treasury of the amount of the sale of the said land, and after deducting therefrom the sums hereinafter stipulated to be advanced by the United States, ten thousand dollars shall be retained by the Treasury, and shall be paid to the said Indians in annuities of one thousand dollars a year for ten years. And the residue of the fund shall be vested by the Secretary of the Treasury in the purchase of some state Stock, the interest of which shall be annually paid to the said Indians like other annuities. Provided, that if at any time hereafter the said Indians shall desire to have the said stock sold and the proceeds paid over to them, the same may be done if the President and the Senate consent thereto.

ART. 3.—The United States shall advance to the said Indians, on the ratification of this Treaty to be deducted from the avails of the lands the sum of two thousand five hundred dollars, and also goods to the value of four thousand dollars, to be purchased in New York and delivered in bulk, at their expense, to the proper Chiefs at Detroit, or at such places on Lake St. Clair as the Chiefs may request, together with the expenses of the Treaty, the journeys of the Indians to and from Washington, and their subsistence and other expenses at the seat of Government.

ART. 4.—The United States shall furnish the said Indians eight thousand three hundred and twenty acres, or thirteen sections of land, west of the Mississippi or north-west of St. Anthony's Falls, to be located by an Agent or Officer of the Government, and the evidence of such location shall be delivered to the Chiefs. In testimony whereof the said Henry R. Schoolcraft, Comss'r, as aforesaid, and the undersigned Chiefs of the said Bands of Chippeways have hereunto set their hands at Washington, the seat of Government, the day and year above expressed.

Articles of a Treaty.

Dec. 20, 1837. Proclamation, July 2, 1838.

Made and concluded at Flint River, in the State of Michigan, 20th day of December, 1837, between the United States, by Henry R. Schoolcraft, Commissioner, duly authorised for that purpose and Acting Superintendent of Indian Affairs, and the Saginaw Tribe of Chippeways.

ART. 1.—It is agreed that the sum of fifty cents per acre shall be retained out of every acre of land ceded by said Tribe by the Treaty of the 14th of January, 1837, as an indemnity for the location to be furnished for their future permanent residence, and to constitute a fund for emigrating thereto.

ART. 2.—The United States agree to reserve a location for said Tribe on the head waters of the Osagee River, in the country visited by a delegation of the said Tribe during the present year, to be of proper extent, agreeable to their numbers, embracing a due proportion of wood and water, and lying contiguous to Tribes of kindred language. Nor shall anything contained in the sixth article of the Treaty of the 14th Jan., 1837, entitled them at this time to a location in the country west of Lake Superior.
