

TOASTS.

Here's a health to me and mine—
Not surpassing thee and thine—
And when thee and mine
Come to see me and mine,
May me and mine
Make thee and thine
As welcome as thee and thine
Make me and mine.

THE CORNFLEET TOAST:—"The Evening Star, where can I find a greater?"

TO THE SCHOOL MAIDS OF TORONTO JUNCTION:

May they add virtue to beauty; subtract envy from friendship; multiply amiable accomplishments by sweetness of temper; divide time by economy, and reduce scandal to its lowest denomination.

Here's a health to all those that I love,
And here's to all those that love me.
Here's a health to all those that love those that I love,
And here's to all those that love those that love me.

Here's a health to you and your's, who have done so much for us and our's; and when we can do it in our power to do for you and yours what your's have done for us and our's, then we will will do for you and your's what you and your's done for us and our's.

FIVE O'CLOCK STRAIGHT.—Here's to the Toronto Junction Light. May its fame, like its smoke, rise beauty the heavy summer clouds.
