

OUR HORTICULTURAL EXCHANGES.

Our thanks are due to so many kind friends who have so cheerfully placed our little monthly on their exchange list, that we can hardly find space in our narrow limits for more than a hearty "thank you" to each and all. The plan of the CANADIAN HORTICULTURIST hardly admits of those courteous notices of friendly exchange which are so becoming and pleasant, else the few pages at our command would be wholly absorbed with them; and yet, perhaps, if these notices only resulted in inducing our members to subscribe for them and read them, they would be much more profited thereby than by any words of ours.

Vick's Illustrated Monthly Magazine, devoted wholly to flowers, contains 32 pages, published by James Vick, Rochester, N. Y., at $1.25 per annum. Each number has a colored illustration of one or more flowers.

The Iowa Farmer is published monthly, at Cedar Rapids, at 75c. a year, and keeps us well informed on agricultural matters in that western State.

The American Agriculturist has been received regularly, and is always full of matters of interest to tillers of the soil. Each number contains thirty pages of reading matter, and is profusely illustrated. It is published by the Orange Judd Company, 245 Broadway, New York, at $1.50 per annum, and issued monthly.

The California Horticulturist is a capital monthly, of thirty pages, full of useful information relating to the productions of the Pacific coast; published at San Francisco, at $2.50 per annum.

Case's Botanical Index is a quarterly, of twenty pages, devoted chiefly to botanical subjects, and well worth the perusal of all lovers of plants; published at Richmond, Indiana, at 25 cts. a year.

The Country Gentleman, published at Albany, N. Y., by Luther Tucker & Son, at $2.50 per annum, is a weekly devoted to the farm, garden and fireside. It is now in its forty-fourth volume, and well deserving the high estimation in which it has long been held.

The Gardeners' Monthly, published at 814 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, Penn., at $2.10 per annum, continues under the editorship of Thos. Meehan, and is as ever replete with useful and interesting articles on all manner of horticultural subjects.

The Maryland Farmer, a thirty page monthly, published by Ezra Whitman, 141 West Pratt Street, Baltimore, Maryland, ably discusses all subjects of special interest to the farmer. The subscription price is only $1.00 per annum.

The Michigan Farmer is published weekly, in Detroit, by Johnstone & Gibbons, at $2.00 a year. It is a well prepared farmers' family paper.

Park's Floral Magazine, published at Mt. Vernon, Ohio, at 50 cents a year, is a monthly of twelve pages, devoted to plants and flowers, nicely illustrated.

The Prairie Farmer is an excellent family paper for the agriculturist, published weekly, at 118 Monroe Street, Chicago, for $2.00 a year.

The New England Homestead, published weekly, at Springfield, Mass., for $2.00 a year, is a farmer's family paper, well filled with instructive reading.

The Western Agriculturist is published monthly, in Quincy, Illinois, for a dollar a year, and is devoted to all matters of interest to Western farmers.

The Western Rural, published in Chicago, Ill., 155 Dearborn Street, every week, at $2.00 a year, is well filled with such reading as should interest the farmer's family.

Moore's Rural Life is a new monthly, most profusely illustrated, and under the editorial care of D. D. T. Moore, so long and so favorably known to all as the editor of Moore's Rural New Yorker. This beautiful journal for country homes contains twenty-four pages, and is published by the Rural Life Company, 34 Park Row, New York, for $1.50 a year.

The Fruit Recorder, published monthly, by A. M. Purdy, Palmyra, N. Y., at one dollar a year, is devoted almost exclusively to the cultivation of small fruits, and is full of valuable information.

The Canadian Farmer, published at Welland, Ont., is issued weekly, at one dollar a year, and contains in addition to its agricultural reading much that is interesting to the farmer's family.
