

Master and Wardens and if he refuses to pay the fine or offends the third time shall be excluded the Lodge for irregular behaviour.

Reg. 7th. That every Brother shall observe the Strict Rules of Morality and shall not be guilty of the most enormous Crimes of Cursing, Swearing or Blaspheming while assembled in the Lodge under the penalty of 6d Sterling for the first offence, of one Shilling Stg. for the second offence, and Two Shillings Sterling for the third offence or be dismissed the fraternity.

Reg. 8th. That no Brother shall get drunk on a Lodge night, or strike, or cause to be struck, or call a Liar any of the Brethren belonging to this Lodge or any visiting Brethren, but he for every such offence shall pay Two Shillings and Sixpence Sterling or be dismissed the fraternity.

Reg. 9th. That if any Brother shall Laugh, Whisper, or use any unseemly gestures while the Lodge is open, shall for every such offence pay Twopence Sterling.

Reg. 10th. That every sitting Member shall put into the Lodge Box Sixpence per Quarter of a Year, which must be made good by every absent Brother at his next appearance in the Lodge or by one deputed by him, but if he allows two Quarters Proportions to be unpaid unto the third, he shall pay double or be dismissed the fraternity.

Reg. 11th. That no person shall be initiated or assumed into this Lodge without sending a Petition to the Right Worshipful Master or some other Member of the Lodge, at least one Meeting night previous to his admission and no person shall be admitted into this Lodge unless he be of age or acting for himself and none whatever shall be at any time admitted if there be three of the Brethren against him, and that to be determined by Ballot.

Reg. 12th That every person approved of to be admitted into this Lodge shall pay One Pound Five Shillings Sterling for these Benefits but if he has received them before, he should only pay Eleven Shillings Stg. and that out of the above Sums Two Shillings and Sixpence Sterling shall be remitted to the Grand Lodge of Scotland for the Registration of the Brethrens Names in the Grand List & one Shilling given to the Taylor and the remainder with what fines may be incurred by the Brethren is to be applied as the Right Worshipful Master and the rest of the fraternity shall think proper.

Reg. 13th That if any Member of this Lodge be rendered incapable of supplying himself and Family he shall have Three Shillings Sterling per Week paid him out of the Public Funds after he has been three years a Member of the Lodge and made regular payments of his Quarterly Accounts up to the term at which he demands the supply.

Reg. 14th That no distressed Brother belonging to any other Lodge shall be entitled to any of this Lodges Charity unless he produce a regular Certificate and give other satisfactory proof of his knowledge in the Craft, & in that event the Master and one or other of the Wardens have a discretionary power to draw upon the Treasurer for any sum not exceeding Five Shillings Sterling at one time.

Reg. 15th. That the whole Juels, Tools, Materials and Register Book shall be put into the Lodge Box, there to be secured with a strong Lock with three different Keys and Bolts, one to be kept by the Master, one by the Depute Master and the third by the Secretary, and if it shall so happen that any of the Juels, Aprons, Tools, or Materials belonging to the Lodge shall be brock, lost or destroyed by any of the Brethren they shall be obliged to make the same good at their own expense or be dismissed the fraternity.

Reg. 16th. That whatever dispute may arise with regard to the Ruels of this Lodge or Behaviour of the Brethren shall be left entirely to the Determination of the Master and Wardens, but if the same be of moment the opinion of the Brethren may be Demanded.

Reg. 17th. That every Member of the Lodge shall Subscribe these present Regulations and whatever new ones may be made, the same being engrossed in the Minets of that nights meeting, shall if Signed by the Right Worshipful and Secretary be as binding as if the same had been Subscribed by each Member respectively.
—Scottish Freemason.