

We shall have much pleasure in inserting the account of a "self-supporting Diocese" in the number for October. It reached us too late for the present number; and, as it is, there are several papers already in type for which we could not possibly find room.

Rejected articles will only be returned when requested.

"Young Communicant."—The Companion to the Altar published by Nelson & Sons, Edinburgh, is not the style of Manual you would imagine from its title. In selecting books of devotion, or Church teaching, you will have to be governed by the names of the publishers, and may soon learn who publishes the right kind. 2. It is a matter of both annoyance and regret that the Holy Communion is so coldly and incorrectly administered in the churches in St. John. It is a comfort, however, that St. Paul's is such a happy exception to all the others in this respect.

"Canada West" fears that some of our clergy and people are becoming Erastians. We trust he is mistaken, and that the example of the faithful among the laity as well as the clergy may check any such tendency in this diocese.

We are glad to report an increase in our subscription list since last month.

"A Parish Priest."—Dr. Pusey's speech was not copied from the journal you name, but from one of the English Church papers you sent to your Dean Rural. We regret that such a faulty report of the speech should have appeared in our pages. Send on the P. M.; it will be taken care of. 3. The verses shall appear as soon as a place can be found for them.

"H.—1. A cheap edition of the Church Catechism will shortly be printed at the office of this magazine. 2. We hear complaints on all sides that the Church Catechism is not generally taught in the Church Sunday Schools of St. John.
