

LOCALS.

Principal Campbell visited some of the Prince Street schools the first of this week.

Commissioner L. J. Waker visited the schools of Truro on Tuesday of this week.

Councillor J. Smith paid a visit to Prince Street school on Monday afternoon.

A former pupil of Grade VIII, Frank Archibald, is now attending the Agricultural School on Bible Hill.

The attendance in Grade V for last month has been more encouraging. Miss Lottie McLean and Miss Jessie Stewart who had been absent since Christmas have returned.

Last Friday Grade V had an interesting spelling match. Miss Pearle Pugsley and Miss Beatrice Cummings being leaders. Miss Pugley's side were the winners.

The Grade VIII pupils who made an average of 10 last week in regularity, punctuality, lessons and conduct are: Miss Charlena Schaffner and Miss Hattie Cummings.

The pupils who have made the highest standing during the month of January in Grade V are Miss Josie Sommerville, Miss Carrie Morris, Bertie Pollock and Miss Addie McElhinney.
