

History of the New Testament.

Ch. 1. Zachary's Vision.

1. In the year of our Lord's birth, Zachary, a priest of the order of Abiathar, was appointed to officiate at the altar of the Lord in the temple of Jerusalem. As he was performing his duty, he was visited by the angel Gabriel, who announced to him that his wife, Elizabeth, who was barren, was to bear him a son. Zachary, in his surprise and joy, exclaimed, "How shall this be, seeing I am an old man, and my wife is advanced in years?" The angel replied, "Forasmuch as thou art just, thy prayer is heard, and thy wife Elizabeth shall bear thee a son. And thou shalt call his name John. Forasmuch as thou wast unable to believe, thou shalt be dumb and deaf until the day that this child is born. Forasmuch as thou art just, thy prayer is heard, and thy wife Elizabeth shall bear thee a son. And thou shalt call his name John. Forasmuch as thou wast unable to believe, thou shalt be dumb and deaf until the day that this child is born."
