

clude a Convention for this purpose, that is to say :—

“ Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland : Sir Julian Pauncefote, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, Knight Commander of the Most Honorable Order of the Bath, and Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary of Her Britannic Majesty to the United States ;

“ And the President of the United States of America : James G. Blaine, Secretary of State of the United States ;

“ Who, after having communicated to each other their respective full powers, found in good and due form, have agreed upon and concluded the following Articles :—

“ ARTICLE I.

“ The provisions of the said Xth Article are hereby made applicable to the following additional crimes :—

“ 1. Manslaughter when voluntary.

“ 2. Counterfeiting or altering money ; uttering or bringing into circulation counterfeit or altered money.

“ 3. Embezzlement ; larceny ; receiving any money, valuable security, or other property, knowing the same to have been embezzled, stolen, or fraudulently obtained.

“ 4. Fraud by a bailee, banker, agent, factor, trustee, or director or member or officer of any company, made criminal by the laws of both countries.

“ 5. Perjury, or subornation of perjury.

“ 6. Rape ; abduction ; child-stealing ; kidnapping.

“ 7. Burglary ; housebreaking or shop-breaking.

“ 8. Piracy by the law of nations.

“ 9. Revolt, or conspiracy to revolt, by two or more persons on board a ship on the high seas, against the authority of the master ; wrongfully sinking or destroying a vessel at sea, or attempting to do so ; assaults on board a ship on the high seas, with intent to do grievous bodily harm.

“ 10. Crimes and offences against the laws of both countries for the suppression of slavery and slave trading.

“ Extradition is also to take place for participation in any of the crimes mentioned in this Convention or in the aforesaid Xth Article, provided such participation be punishable by the laws of both countries.

“ ARTICLE II.

“ A fugitive criminal shall not be surrendered, if the offence in respect of which his surrender is demanded be one of a political character, or if he proves that the requisition for his surrender has in fact been made with a view to try or punish him for an offence of a political character.

“ No person surrendered by either of the high contracting parties to the other shall be triable or tried, or be punished for any political crime or offence, or for any act connected therewith, committed previously to his extradition.

“ If any question shall arise as to whether a case comes within the provisions of this Article, the decision of the authorities of the Government in whose jurisdiction the fugitive shall be at the time shall be final.

“ ARTICLE III.

“ No person surrendered by or to either of the high contracting parties shall be triable or be tried for any crime or offence committed prior to his extradition, other than the offence for which he was surrendered, until he shall have had an opportunity of returning to the country from which he was surrendered.

“ ARTICLE IV.

“ All articles seized which were in the possession of the person to be surrendered at the time of his apprehension, whether being the proceeds of the crime or offence charged, or being material as evidence in making proof of the crime or offence, shall, so far as practicable, and if the competent authority of the State applied to for the extradition has ordered the delivery thereof, be given up when the extradition takes place. Nevertheless, the rights of third parties with regard to the articles aforesaid shall be duly respected.

“ ARTICLE V.

“ If the individual claimed by one of the two high contracting parties, in pursuance of the present Convention, should also be claimed by one or several other Powers on
