

QUITE recently the cry of fire called the students from their studies, and soon a motley crowd gathered around the buildings which was being consumed by the flames. Later in the evening some who were present at the conflagration were partaking of a bountiful repast of canned peaches, etc. The following morning one of the lecture-rooms was furnished with new settees. No insinuations intended.

THE Governors of "Acadia" have decided to build an Academy boarding-house before the opening in September, '87. Such a boarding-house as the Governors propose to build is absolutely indispensable, since the present boarding-houses afford only two-thirds the required accommodation. In order that the patronage of the friends of Acadia may not be endangered, or the students suffer from lack of accommodation, it is expedient at the present time that the friends come forward with tangible support.

THE February Meeting of "Acadia Missionary Society" was held in the Chapel on the evening of the 16th ult. Essays were read by Miss Buttrick and L. A. Palmer, respectively, entitled, "Missionary Work among the North American Indians," and "1886 and the Congo Valley." Then followed a duett by Misses Hitchius and Wallace, and a short lecture by Prof. R. V. Jones, Ph., D., tracing, in a terse and pleasing manner, the origin and early progress of the Buddhist religion. The papers were interesting and instructive. The next meeting of the Society, for which a good programme has been provided, will be held on the 16th inst.

POETS are born, not made. The world can't afford more than two or three Shakespeares but recent efforts undoubtedly show thoughtfulness, for a strict examination of ability could only have pointed to inability. The ignited poetic chips soon manifest themselves in that conflagration of foolishness which tends to consume the wiser self in its alluring flame.

THE Billingsgate effusions which occasionally break through the barriers of good sense are rather remarkable.

THE CENTURY

For 1886-87.

THE CENTURY is an illustrated monthly magazine, having a regular circulation of about two hundred thousand copies, often reaching and sometimes exceeding two hundred and twenty-five thousand. Chief among its many attractions for the coming year is a serial which has been in active preparation for sixteen years. It is a history of our own country in its most critical time, as set forth in

THE LIFE OF LINCOLN,

BY HIS CONFIDENTIAL SECRETARIES, JOHN G. NICOLAY AND COL. JOHN HAY.

This great work begun with the sanction of President Lincoln, and continued under the authority of his son, the Hon. Robert T. Lincoln, is the only full and authoritative record of the life of Abraham Lincoln. Its authors were friends of Lincoln before his presidency; they were most intimately associated with him as private secretaries throughout his term of office, and to them were transferred on Lincoln's death all his private papers. Here will be told the inside history of the civil war and of President Lincoln's administration,—important details of which have hitherto remained unrevealed, that they might first appear in this authentic history. By reason of the publication of this work, which has been followed with unflagging interest by a great audience, will occupy less space during the coming year.

THE WAR SERIES.

Gettysburg will be described by Gen. Hunt (Chief of the Union Artillery), Gen. Longstreet, Gen. E. M. Law, and others; Chickamauga, by Gen. D. H. Hill; Sherman's march to the Sea, by Generals Howards and Slocum. Generals Q. A. Gillmore, Wm. F. Smith, John Gibbon, Horace Porter, and John S. Mosby will describe special battles and incidents. Stories of naval engagements, prison life, etc., etc., will appear.

NOVELS AND STORIES.

"The Hundredth Man," a novel by Frank R. Stockton, author of "The Lady or the Tiger?" etc., begins in November.

Two Novellettes by George W. Cable, stories by Mary Halleck Foote, "Uncle Remus," Julian Hawthorne, Edward Eggleston, and other prominent American authors will be printed during the year.
