MANITOBA.—This name sounds so dignified, and of so romantic a character, that it carries with it an air of inviting beauty. The name seems to lend a charm which will no doubt materially assist in the rapid population of that fine country. We have often heard it stated that a Good Name was worth a mint of gold, and carried many a man with The Great Shoshonee Remedy as a cure for this Medicine has reaped innumerable laurels for its wonderful curative properties. from Countrymen and a host of other respectable members of society.
