

my returning from Montreal to Boston, sailed down lake Champlain and lake George, in a birch-bark canoe, with the King of the Connawaga nation, and five other Indians, and was eleven days and twelve nights on the lakes and in the woods with them. During my residence in Virginia, when at Alexandria, I had the pleasure, and I may also add, the honor, of meeting with General Washington, who gave me an invitation to call and spend a few days with him on his estate on Mount Vernon. We are totally precluded from giving you poor mortals any description of this happy country.

“ Hope humbly then, with trembling pinions soar,
 Wait the great teacher Death, and God adore.
 Know this, enough for man to know,
 That virtue only makes your bliss below,
 And all your knowledge is yourselves to know.”

From my habitation in Heaven, the new Jerusalem the City of the saints solemnity, in which, through the infinite mercy of God, I hope to obtain an inheritance.
