Science is "knowing how." The only secret about Scott's Emulsion is years of science. When made in large quantities and by improving methods, an emulsion must be more perfect than when made in the old-time way with mortar and pestle a few ounces at a time. This is why Scott's Emulsion of cod-liver oil never separates, keeps sweet for years, and why every spoonful is equal to every other spoonful. An even product throughout.

In other emulsions you are liable to get an uneven benefit—either an over or under dose. Get Scott's. Genuine has a salmon-colored wrapper.

Literary Notes.

In Appleton's Popular Science Monthly for September Mr. David A. Wells continues his articles on the "Principles of Taxation." In a humorous paper entitled "The Sympsycho-graph; a Study in Impressionist Physics," President David Starr Jordan satirizes the conclusions and claims concerning certain visionary matters, mental and moral, which some enthusiastic persons are disposed to infer from Roentgen's discovery. Important physiological information is given in J. E. Humphrey's "Some Modern Views of the Cell." In "The Vivisection Question," Prof. Hodge makes an argument for the value of the knowledge to be gained from physiological experimentation. Mr. Sidney G. Fisher discusses the relations of "Immigration and Crime." Prof. W. R. Newbold's diagnosis of "Illusions and Hallucinations" is illustrated by the citation of several incidents of experience. Prof. J. A. Udden treats of "Dust and Sand Storms in the West." Clare de Graffenried presents as "Debts of the New Woman" what the emancipated ladies of the present owe to their humbler sisters who have toiled in the past and to those who are now toiling. Helen Zimmer contributes an analysis of Enrico Ferri's treatise on "Homicide." New York: D. Appleton & Company. Fifty cents a number, $5 a year.

Author of "The Indians of Canada," "James Evans, Inventor of the Cree Syllabic System," etc.

Cloth, illustrated, $2.50.

CONTENTS: Some Queer Folk—In the Lodges—Church and Camp—Native Heroes—Native Religions—Races and Languages—On the Trail.

REV. DR. WITHROW writes in Onward: "This is, we believe, the largest and most important book on the native races of Canada that has yet been published. It is the result of the careful and thorough study of many years. During his missionary life among Indian tribes, and by subsequent investigation, Dr. Maclean has familiarized himself with the languages, traditions, religions, manners and customs of the Canadian aborigines. His previous volume on the Indians of Canada is a demonstration of his qualifications for treating the records of our native races. This book will be a permanent authority on this subject."
