Third Week of the Catholic Summer School.

Rev. J. P. Kiernan, of Rochester, Delivered an Able Sermon -Ladies' Week-Some of the Lec-

Toe third week of the Catholic Summer School was a pronounced success. It was given up entirely to the ladies, and indeed all the affairs of the time were and Miss Power, of Philadelphia, Pa... extremely successful. There were many innevations, and from the opening day until the close there was not a single York; Miss McMahan of Boston, and hitch. The Sunday services were, as Arthur R. Ryan, were the entertainers, and made his classical studies in the usual, a source of much pleasure and the The artists were well received and Miss scene of equal splendor. The only dis Keenan and Miss Power sang encores scene of equal spiender. The only dis apprintment received was the inability times. The hop at the Club on Friday of Bishop Michaud, of Burlington, Vt., night was a dream of beauty and pleasto be present to celebrate Pontifica! High | ure to be remembered. The night was Mass. Nevertueless, all went serenely well in the mental, social and physical atter there was no need of comment upon the non-appearance of a Bishop. The R. v. He has been allowed to set up his kingdom here and leaves nothing undone to advance the in crests of that kingdom. He has his agents everywhere. Some are unseen spirits who ply their unnely vocation, in season and out of season. Sometimes our fellow men lend themselves to his nubely agency.

The preacher then spoke at some length on the incerests of Jesus Christ. He compared a Coristian in the service of his Master to the soldier in the service of his country. He snowed that in either case a man is a truter to the cause unless he be faithful to his trust. The interests of Carist may be found in the three great departments, viz. the Caurch triumpoant, the Caurch suffer ing, and the Church militant. These points were fully developed, after which he briefly explained some of the motives that should urge the Christian to an unselfish service in promoting the interests of Christ. He should not lose sight of against Me, and he that gathereth not with Me, scattereth."

The services were attended by the Summer School, and the ideal day and the coloring of the fashion lent a soothing, cooling and peaceful effect to the aspect of the scene. The choir, as usual rendered delightful music. The remain der of the day was devoted to rest and

At 4 pm. the Ray, Dr. Talbot Smith's College Camp held a reception, and among the visitors to the camping ground upon the bluff overlooking the lake were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Storrs Willis, of Detroit, Mich., Mrs. Frances Rolph Hayward, of Cincinnati, Obio, and Mrs. Nicholas Walsh of Covington and Mrs. Nicholas Walsh, of Covington, Ky. They expressed themselves as delighted with the camp life and scene a taste of which was shown them on Friday night at the entertainment. Mr. and Mrs. Storrs Willis are of one of the most highly cultured and literary families in America. The (amous poet, N.P. Willis, and likewise no less tamous "Fannie Fern," being the brother and sister of Mrs. R Storrs Willis, Mr. Willis is also an author of extended note both here and abroad, as well as Mrs. Willis, who is one of the representative Western ladies of America. Their family literary history extends unbroken through 150 years.

The death of Bishop McGovern, of the diocese of Harrisburgh, is announced. The venerable prelate passed away at the episcopal residence, Sylvan Heights, after a long and painful illness.

Bishop McGovern was born in the parish of Swanlibar, County Cavan, Ireland, in 1832, and was brought to this country when he was one year old—so that 65 of his 66 years of life have been spent on American soil.
