

UNITED STATES.

It is extremely laughable to see what ridiculous pains are taken for the laudation of 'Boston' Corbett who shot Booth. We are treated to a history of his early life, a circumstantial narrative of his religious conversion; a graphic delineation of his personal peculiarities and a daily bulletin respecting his present condition and sayings. It appears this Corbett is a very eccentric chap. Among his peculiarities is that of disobeying orders and 'going it on his own hook'—a quality not supposed to be the highest element of soldierlyship. When Booth was shot in the burning barn, around which stood twenty-eight men, waiting for him to emerge, as he must soon have done, Corbett was posted at a certain point, and to 'd stay there. Instead of doing so, he made an eccentric movement to the back of the building, got a favorable position beside a crevice, drew bend on the murderer, — and shot him. Perhaps, as one romantic correspondent asserts, he 'offered up a mental prayer for the soul of Booth as he pulled the trigger.' All things considered the assassin could have been better disposed of. But it really is a suggestive proof of the disposition to manufacture heroes out of small material, that this rash act of a disobedient soldier should be made a pretext for his glorification; as though peculiar virtues attached to the accident of his becoming public executioner, under such circumstances. Carlyle says, it is often the difference between the question of waiting for hot coffee at breakfast or drinking it cold, which makes a man great or leaves him otherwise; and the exaltation of Sergeant 'Boston' Corbett furnishes a striking instance of the philosophic truth of this statement. — Albany Journal.

Notwithstanding the positive statements made by some Northern papers and their correspondents in this city, the general belief in intelligent circles here is that the accusation against Mr. Davis and Messrs. Tucker, Sanders, Clay and other prominent Confederates will not be sustained. — Washington letter in ditto.

Six persons were shot down at Nashville for rejoicing at the death of President Lincoln. Three others were dangerously wounded. Parson Brownlow, who gives this information, says that 'to be candid, they should be shot down every where just as dogs are despatched.'

Dr. Blackburn, who visited Bermuda to obtain clothing used in the yellow fever hospitals for the purpose of spreading the disease in Northern cities, turns out to be Dr. Tumblety, recently the employer of Harrold, the accomplice and companion of J. Wilkes Booth. — Boston Traveller.

Doctor Tumblety. — The so-called 'Dr. Tumblety, whose name is mentioned in connection with the Booth plot, is one of the greatest villains unchanged. After leaving Canada, where he made a large amount of money by practicing upon fools, he went to St. John, N. B., and pursued his iniquitous business in that city for several months with great success. He poisoned one of his patients, however, and warrants being issued for his arrest on a charge of murder, he fled to New York, where he was soon afterwards imprisoned for perjury. When the war broke out, the 'Indian Herb Doctor' obtained an appointment as surgeon in the Federal army, but after a few months' service was dismissed for bad conduct. He is now under arrest as an accomplice in the murder of President Lincoln, and if he should end his life on the gallows none will deplore his fate. — Transcriber.

The embalmed body of Mr. Lincoln is spoken of by a despatch to the N. Y. World, as follows: — 'There is now no blood in the body; it was drained by the jugular vein and sacredly preserved, and through a cutting on the inside of the thigh the empty blood vessels were charged with a chemical preparation which soon hardened to the consistency of stone. The long and bony body is now hard and stiff, so that beyond its present position it cannot be moved any more than the arms or legs of a statue. It has undergone many changes. The scalp has been removed, the brain scooped out, the chest opened, and the blood emptied. All that we see of Abraham Lincoln, so cunningly contemplated in this splendid coffin, is a mere shell, an effigy, a sculpture. He lies in sleep, but it is the sleep of marble.'

THE CURED TO THE SUFFERING, LIVER COMPLAINT. — Some most remarkable facts in relation to the unparalleled efficacy of BRISTOL'S SUGAR-COATED PILLS in Liver complaints have recently come to light. Adoniam Sedgwick, Esq., of Hartford, announces that they 'cured him of congestion of the liver (preventing jaundice) in three days.' Richard M. Phelps, the well-known machinist of Pittsburgh, Ohio, writes: 'The physicians considered me a hopeless case when I commenced taking Bristol's invaluable Antibilious and Alterative Pills. They called my complaint degeneration of the liver, and I suffered great pain in the right side, which was swelled, accompanied with severe constipation and utter loss of appetite. A course of the pills has made me a well man, and I recommend them to all who suffer from similar complaints.' Miss Sarah Jane Deming, of Jersey City, concludes a letter to Dr. Bristol, thus: 'To your medicine (BRISTOL'S SUGAR-COATED PILLS) alone, I owe the re-establishment of my health, after having suffered most severely from bilious remittent fever for more than three months.' These authentic statements the sick should consider as addressed directly to themselves, and act accordingly. They are put up in glass vials, and are kept in any climate. In all cases arising from, or aggravated by impure blood, BRISTOL'S SARPAPARILLA should be used in connection with the Pills. J. F. Henry & Co. Montreal, General agents for Canada. REMARKABLE STATEMENT

Agent of the Grand Trunk Railroad, CANADA.

Read the following letter, received by Mr. James Hawkes, Druggist, Brockville: Lyn, C. W., June 13, 1864.

James Hawkes, Esq., Brockville: Dear Sir,—Allow me to make a statement in favor of BRISTOL'S SARPAPARILLA, which ought to be known by everybody far and wide. In March, 1860, a Tumor appeared on the left side of my head, which had grown so large by December of that year that it effected my eating very much, and the Doctors thought it best to have it removed, which was done at that time. It partially healed up, and the rest remained a running sore for three years and a-half. I had tried several Physicians, who all came to the conclusion that it could not be healed, and I was told to square up my books for the last time. After using several kinds of SARPAPARILLA, I was induced to try BRISTOL'S, from your establishment. Before I had used five bottles, I felt it was doing fine good, and, as you know, I have continued to use it for the past fourteen months, and the result, after using between thirty-five and forty bottles, (which has brought away several pieces of the skull-bone, one of them measuring two, by one and three-eighths inches,) I am a well man. Yours truly,

MEDICAL SCIENCE.

The history of 'Hooiland's German Bitters,' the most remarkable medicine of the day, and the many cures that have been performed with it in cases of Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Nervous Debility, and diseases arising from a disordered liver or stomach, place it among the most astonishing discoveries that have taken place in the medical world. The diseases to which these Bitters are applicable are so universal, that there are but few of our friends who may not test their virtues in their own families or circle of acquaintances, and prove to their own satisfaction that there is at least one remedy among the many advertised medicines, deserving the public commendation. It is a fact that, in the minds of many persons, a prejudice exist against what are called Patent Medicines; but why should this prevent you resorting to an article that has such an array of testimony to support it as Hooiland's German Bitters? Physicians prescribe it, why should you discard it? Judges, usually considered men of talent, have and do use it in their families; why should you reject it? Clergymen, and those the most eminent take it; why not you? Let not your prejudice usurp your reason, to the everlasting injury of your health. If you are sick, and require a medicine, try these Bitters. These Bitters are prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, for Jones & Evans, Proprietors, 631 Arch Street, Philadelphia, Pa. VICTORY!—What a cheering, heart stirring word, that implies long struggles, determined action, patient suffering, and ultimate success. A victorious army marching with all the pomp of glittering arms and rolling drums is a glorious sight, but the conqueror of disease, though an obscure soldier, is none the less entitled to our encomiums. AYER'S SARPAPARILLA.

IS a concentrated extract of the choice root, so combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an effectual antidote for diseases Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. Such a remedy is surely wanted by those who suffer from Strumous complaints, and that one which will accomplish their cure must prove, as this has, of immense service to this large class of our afflicted fellow-citizens. How completely this compound will do it has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found in the following complaints:— Scrofula, Scrofulous Swellings and Sores, Skin Diseases, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Eruptions, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter or Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, &c. Female Diseases are caused by Scrofula in the blood, and are often soon cured by this EXTRACT OF SARPAPARILLA.

When you have used AYER'S—then, and not till then, will you know the virtues of Sarsaparilla. MURRAY & LANMAN'S FLORIDA WATER.—Besides its superiority as a perfume over its costlier foreign competitors, this delicious floral essence forms a delightful tooth-wash and a soothing application after shaving, when mixed with water. A handkerchief wetted with it and applied to the brow will relieve the severest nervous headache, and ladies, who value a clear complexion and a velvet skin, will find it extremely useful in removing blotches, pimples, cold sores, chaps, sunburns, and all those external eruptions and discolorations which militate against the purity, transparency, and flexibility of the skin. See that the names of "Murray & Lanman" are upon every wrapper, label, and bottle; without this none is genuine. Agents for Montreal:—Devins & Bolton, Lamplough & Campbell, A. G. Davidson, K. The New York Tribune says, 'the reason why Drake's Plantation Bitters are so universally used and have such an immense sale, is that they are always made up to the original standard, of highly invigorating material and of pure quality, although the prices have so largely advanced.' The Tribune just hits the nail on the head. The Plantation Bitters are not only made of pure material, but the people are told what it is. The Recipe is published around each bottle, and the bottles are not reduced in size. At least twenty imitations and counterfeits have sprung up. They impose upon the people once and that's the last of them.

The Plantation Bitters are now used in all the Government Hospitals, are recommended by the best physicians, and are warranted to produce an immediate beneficial effect. Facts are stubborn things. I owe much to you, for I verily believe the Plantation Bitters have saved my life. REV. W. H. WAGGONER, Madrid, N. Y.

"... Thou wilt send me two bottles more of thy Plantation Bitters. My wife has been greatly benefited by their use. Thy friend, ASA CURRIN, Philadelphia, Pa."

"... I have been a great sufferer from Dyspepsia and had to abandon preaching. ... The Plantation Bitters have cured me. REV. J. S. GATHORN, Rochester, N. Y."

"... Send us twenty-four dozen more of your Plantation Bitters, the popularity of which are daily increasing with the guests of our house. SYKES, CHADWICK & Co., Proprietors Willard's Hotel, Washington, D. C."

"... I have given the Plantation Bitters to hundreds of our disabled soldiers with the most astonishing effect. G. W. D. ANDREWS, Superintendent Soldiers' Home, Cincinnati, O."

"... The Plantation Bitters have cured me of liver complaint, with which I was laid up prostrate and had to abandon my business. H. B. KINGSLEY, Cleveland, O."

"... The Plantation Bitters have cured me of a derangement of the kidneys and the urinary organs that has distressed me for years. It acts like a charm. O. C. MOORE, 254 Broadway."

New Bedford, Mass., Nov. 24, 1863. Dear Sir:—I have been afflicted many years with severe prostrating cramps in my limbs, cold feet and hands, and a general disordered system. Physicians and medicine failed to relieve me. Some friends in New York, who were using Plantation Bitters, prevailed upon me to try them. I commenced with a small wine-glassful after dinner. Feeling better by degrees, in a few days I was astonished to find the coldness and cramps had entirely left me, and I could sleep the night through, which I had not done for years. I feel like another being. My appetite and strength have also greatly improved by the use of the Plantation Bitters.—Respectfully, JUDITH RUSSELL"

If the ladies but knew what thousands of them are constantly relating to us, we candidly believe one half of the weakness, prostration and distress experienced by them would vanish. James Marsh, Esq., of 159 West 14th Street, N. Y., says, 'he has three children, the first two are weak and puny, his wife having been unable to nurse or attend them, but that she has taken Plantation Bitters for the last two years, and has a child now eighteen months old which she has nursed and reared herself, and both are hearty, saucy and well. The article is invaluable to mothers,' &c.

Such evidence might be continued for a volume. The best evidence is to try them. They speak for themselves. Persons of sedentary habits troubled with weakness, lassitude, palpitation of the heart, lack of appetite, distress after eating, torpid liver, constipation, diabetes, &c., will find speedy relief through these Bitters.

Every bottle for exportation and sale out of the United States has a metal cap and green label around the neck. Beware of refilled bottles. See that the cap has not been mutilated. Any person pretending to sell Plantation Bitters in bulk or by the gallon is an impostor. We sell it only in bottles. Sold by principal dealers throughout the habitable globe.
