MONTREAL MARKETS.

MONTREAL, Nov. 5th, 1890.

ASHES.—There are only about 20 brls. in store, and nothing worth talking about coming in. The rapid advance in price has checked the American demand; we quote $4.90 to 5.00 for first quality pots, seconds have been sold at $4.25; a few brls. of pearls have changed hands at $5.25.

BOOTS AND SHOES.—Travelers for the manufacturing houses are now pretty well out upon the road and report a fair number of orders. Shoe manufacturers are trying to break the advanced prices for leather, which are, however, still pretty steadily held.
