Sir William Dawson's New Book.

Hand-book of Geology, for the use of Canadian Students, by Sir J. Wm. Dawson, C.M.G., LL.D., of McGill University. 8vo., cloth, with numerous illustrations. $3.50.

Intended as a guide to Canadian Geology for private Students, Engineers and Travellers. Contents: General and Historical Geology, Canadian Topography and Geology, including Acadian Region, Quebec and Ontario, Manitoba and North-west, British Columbia, Arctic or Hudsonian and Terranovan or Newfoundland Regions.

The Story of the Nations—Rome, Greece, Chaldea, Assyria, etc.—A series of concise and graphically written histories, by leading writers, adequately illustrated, and with maps and full indices. 25 vols. now ready. Each $1.50. Detailed prospectuses on application.

Chambers' Encyclopedia.—A Dictionary of Universal Knowledge. An entirely new and much improved edition of this excellent work. 10 vols. Cloth, with numerous maps and illustrations. Vols. I-IV, now ready. Each, $3.

Every Canadian Boy and Girl should Read Black Beauty.—The story of Horse's Life as told by itself. By Anna Sewall. Cloth, 60c. Such an inspiring, beautiful, instructive story is rarely met with, and as it strongly inculcates kindness to animals, the great and kindly S. P. C. A. of London has given it strong commendation. Children will laugh and cry over the story of Beauty's Life, and they will also get a new and delightfully original view of life as seen from the horse's standpoint.

Macaulay's History of England—Macaulay's Essays and Speeches—Macaulay's Life, by Trevelyan. Four compact vols. The Handy English edition, now offered at $3.50, offers a rare opportunity for securing a good readable edition of Macaulay's Works at a very small price.

Some New Facts About 1837.

Reminiscences of a Canadian Pioneer for the Last Fifty Years.—An autobiography by Samuel Thompson, formerly editor of The Toronto Colonist, The Parliamentary Hansard, etc., etc. Cloth, $1.50.

"The charm of the book is that it shows the hardships of early colonial life and makes us thankful for the good work done as we compare the Canada of the present with the Canada of fifty years ago."—London Literary World.

"Mr. Thompson visited Toronto in 1837, and his recollections of 'the rebellion' which broke out that year embrace some incidents not hitherto made public or authenticated."—Toronto Week.

The Viking Age.—The early History, Manners and Customs of the ancestors of the English-speaking Nations. About 1400 illustrations from the antiquities discovered in Mounds, Cairns and Bogs, as well as from the ancient Sagas and Eddas. 2 hand-some vols., 8vo. $8.50.

Mr. Paul Du Chailly's great popular work is a book worthy of a place in every library of importance.

The Birds of Ontario.—Over 300 varieties, described in a way to delight the ornithologist and to instruct and assist all who in any measure observe our feathered tribes. By Thomas McIlwraith, member of the Hamilton Association. Limited edition. Cloth, 319 pp. $1.50.

The book is the result of many years of close observation and study, and is pronounced by those able to judge as one of the best manuals issued on this continent.

Canadian Wild Flowers.—Being studies in Canadian Plant Life, by Mrs. C. P. Traill, with chromo-litho-illustrations, after designs by Mrs. Chamberlain. 8vo., cloth, $3.50. The combined names of Mrs. Traill and Mrs. Chamberlain give sufficient guarantee of the great excellence and value of this book.
