

	The Use of Commercial Policy Instruments for Non-Trade Reasons	143
	Domestic Institutional Framework	148
VI.	FOREIGN MARKET ACCESS AND EXPORT DEVELOPMENT	153
	Access Conditions Facing Canadian Exports	153
	Role of Government in Export Trade Development	158
	Trade Development Services and Programmes	160
	Government Supported Export Credit Facilities and the OECD
	Export Credit Arrangement	165
	International Industrial and Technological Arrangements	168
	Market Development Plans	169
	Provincial Involvement in Export Development	171
VII.	THE INTERNATIONAL INSTITUTIONAL AND TRADE ENVIRONMENT	173
	Evolution of the Post-War Trade and Payments System	173
	Canada and the GATT	174
	Issues for the GATT in the 1980s	180
	The IMF and Canadian Commercial Policy	187
	The Place of the OECD in Canada's Commercial Policy	190
	The Role of UNCTAD and other UN Bodies in the Conduct of
	Canada's Commercial Policy	192
	Commodity Agreements and Trade in Primary Products	193
	World Economic Outlook and Competitive Environment	195
	Regional Trading Blocs	197
VIII.	MANAGING OUR TRADING RELATIONSHIPS	199
	Interdependence and Foreign Policy	199
	The Trade Component of Canadian Foreign Policy	200
	The Framework for Managing Relations	201
	The United States	203
	European Economic Community	214
	Japan	218
	Other Trading Relationships	222
	Developing and Newly Industrialized Countries	223
	State-Trading Countries	226
IX.	CONCLUSIONS	237