

No objects of archaeological interest or historical significance will be disturbed or removed from Canada.

18. Information

The scientific, technical performance and evaluation information derived by the appropriate authorities of each Government pursuant to this Agreement will be made available to the appropriate authorities of the other Government.