

CARING CANADA:

A just and inclusive society

- a bilingual, multicultural country with Aboriginal, English and French roots
- a society committed to offering equal opportunities to each person, including women, young people, residents of remote areas, persons with disabilities and ethnic minorities
- a tolerant society, with liberal values and progressive policies
- harmonious labour-business-government relations
- high standards in its public health care, its legal and judicial system, its social services and its education system
