

On the final day of the conference, April 7, there will be a model Heads of Government Meeting during which each delegation will present its countries viewpoint on the agenda items. For this meeting the delegates will follow the same procedures used at a Commonwealth Heads of Government Meeting.