

CHAPTER III.

[1799.]

	PAGE.		PAGE.
Mr. Ryland	470	Resigns his position	492
Milnes applies for some com- pensating rank	470	Elmsley appointed	492
Obtains additional allowance	471	Elmsley's death	492
Official emoluments at that date	472	Public accounts	493
Sir Robert Shore Milnes	472	Military execution, Quebec	493
Finlay, postmaster-general, re- moved	473	Attempted mutiny at Niagara	494
Replaced by Heriot	473	Infliction of death sentence	495
Subscriptions to patriotic fund	474	Attempt to improve Lachine rapids	496
Names of some of subscribers	475 ⁿ .	Milnes returns to England	496
English cathedral of Quebec com- menced	475	Character of Milnes	497
Delay in sending communion plate	477
Charles Baptiste Bouc expelled from the house	477
Milnes' report upon Canada	478
The Jesuit estates	479
State of education	480
Royal institution advancement of learning	481
Old walls of Montreal removed	482
Milnes' remarks on assembly	483 ⁿ .
Bishop Mountain's letter on Roman catholic clergy	484
Lord Hobart's reply	484
Mgr. Denaut	484
The Roman catholic clergy	484
The Canadian seigniors	486
Meeting between Sewell and Mgr. Plessis	486
Mgr. Plessis	487
Demands submitted by him	487
Petition of Mgr. Denaut	488
Acknowledgment of Mgr. Plessis as R.C. bishop of Quebec	488
Complaint against judge de Bonne	489
De Bonne's reply	490
Osgoode's opposition	490
Osgoode protests against acts of the council	491

CHAPTER IV.

[1806-1807.]

Mr. Thomas Dunn, administrator	499
The battle of Trafalgar	499
Nelson's love affair at Quebec	500 ⁿ .
The gaol act	500
Opposition at Montreal	501
The Quebec Mercury and Mr. Cary	502
Proceedings in house of assembly	503
Answer of the lieutenant-governor	503
Appearance of Le Canadien	503
Its tone and character	504
The higher classes of French Canadians	505
The public functionaries at Que- bec	506
Their supercilious exclusiveness	506
The French Canadians hold them- selves apart	507
Failure to act with English-speak- ing Canadians	507
The episode of the "Leopard" and "Chesapeake"	508
Threatened invasion	508
Militia called out	509
Public spirit throughout the pro- vince	509
The administrator's general order	509
Mgr. Plessis' mandement	510

Absence of Mr. Peter
No ground that he obtain Count de F
royalis
Chief justi against Parliament
June, 1
Alcock app
Brant's pret
Indian
Death of M
Policy recoi
Road to bay
Hunter's a his abse
Fatal duel
general
Increase of