

I N D E X.

	Page
Translation of his geographical description of the North of Europe	54
Whence he had his geographical knowledge	74
Alëutian Islands, the discoverer of them, and their situation	481
Alexander VI. bishop of Rome, portions out the newly discovered countries	446
Allemanni, the origin of the name	24
Confederacy of this people	32
All-Heath or All-Heide	69
Almalig, city of	152
Amber imported by the Phœnicians and Greeks	6
Described by Pliny	21
Known to the Romans	26
Amsterdam Island	349, 422
Ancona, vid. Akko
Andanicum, the same as Steel	135
Origin of this name	242
Andreanoff Islands	481
Angelis, his account of the land of Eso	463
Anglo Saxons, their piratical expeditions to Britain	44
The place of their residence	56
Anian, Straits of	447, 460, 463
Anjoy, vid. Anian Straits
Anticosti, Island of, its different denominations	439
Aral, River of	99
Arambec, an unknown coast	290, 436
Ardu, Empire of the Asconian Turks	475
Argonauts, sail to the country of the Hyperboreans	12
Argon, his embassy to Kublai Khan	124
A mixed race at Tenduc	141
Arimaspians, why they were supposed to have but one eye	Introduction
Arak, the Beverage of the ancient Northern nations and of the Chinese	146
As, the same people as the Alanians	166
Ashurst, Thomas, undertakes to plant colonies in the North	289
Asof	151, 165, 168
Affam, John, King of Bulgaria	97, 99
Affara, the same as Saray
Affumption Island	439
Astracan	151
Its trade in former times	171
Athel, or Athol, i. e. the Wolga	35, 38, 116
Attila, the extent of his Dominions	39
Aubert, Thomas, his Voyage to Newfoundland	432
Augustus Cæsar, Discoveries in the North in his reign	26
	Baals