

- Sandwich Islands*, labours of missionaries there, ii. 191. Depopulation, 207.
- Say (M.)*, character of his economical views, ii. 236.
- Scrope (Mr. Poulett)*, his plans for obtaining free labour in colonies, ii. 29.
- Senior (Mr.)*, his view of absenteeism, ii. 249. Of the causes which determine the rate of money wages, 226.
- Slaves*. (See Negroes.) Employment of slave-labour, Lect. XI. Dearer than free, wherever the supply of the latter is abundant, i. 297.
- Slavery*, prevalence of absenteeism in colonies where it exists, especially in the British West Indies formerly, i. 77.
- Slave trade*, its abolition, by England, gave a stimulus to the prosperity of the Spanish islands, i. 35. Effect of its abolition on the British colonies, 82. 295. Amount of it at the present day, 293. Recent project for its suppression, 302.
- Smith (Adam)*, i. 58. His sketch of the general policy of England towards her colonies, 68. His view of the effects of competition on profits, 168. Of the tendency of the colonial system of trade to raise profits, 189. Of the causes of the prosperity of new settlements, 245.
- South Australia*, i. 123. ; ii. 65, 66. Climate, i. 123. Statistics, 129. Dispersed condition of its population, ii. 83. History of the colony, 110—122. Sales of land, 133. Execution of natives there, 162. Reserves of land for natives, 181.
- Southey*, ("History of Brazil," ) his views respecting the Jesuit establishments of Paraguay and Brazil, i. 280. 285.
- Spain*, humanity of its ancient policy and manners regarding the negroes, i. 37. Change in recent times, ib. Progress of its population little affected by emigration, 143.
- Spanish colonies in continental America*, sketch of their history, Lect. 1. Legislation respecting the Indians, i. 4, 5. 269—276. ; ii. 157. State of society, 5. Commercial policy, 7. 13. Political system, 10. Church, 11. Sketch of physical geography, 15, &c. Their general condition just before their emancipation, 20—26. Effects of their revolutions, 26—30. Statistics, 31, 32. Missions, 277. 291.
- Spanish colonies at the present time*, Lect. 11. (See Cuba, Portorico, West Indies, Philippines.)
- Spice Islands*, results of Dutch monopoly there, i. 188.
- Stephens (Mr.)*, his visit to the ruined cities of Central America, ii. 220.
- Sugar*, raised in Portorico by free labour, i. 41. Comparative productiveness of that island, Jamaica, and St. Vincent, 44. Its production requires either large capitals, or an extremely fertile soil, 76. Stationary condition of production in British West Indies for 20 years after the peace, 85. Average consumption of it in England supposed by Mr. M'Gregor to be greater than on the Continent, but that of the lower classes less, ib. Statistics of its production, &c., i. 88. 96, 97. Effect of high rate of duty on consumption, 200. Refining, peculiarly protected branch of industry, i. 219. East India, 318.
- Survey*, expense of, in colonies, and modes of providing for it, ii. 136—138.