TEN DISTINCT PERIODS REPRESENTED IN SONG

Costumed Concert for Mother's Pension Delights Audience at Technical School.

MANY UNIQUE FEATURES

Successful Event Was Conceived and Presented by Miss Hope Morgan.

From an artistic and educational standpoint the musical entertainment held in the new technical school on Saturday evening in aid of Mothers' Pensions has not been rivalled this season. This unique and successful affair was conceived and presented by Miss Hope Morgan, assisted by a number of Toronto's talented and wellknown artists, including Miss Grace Smith, P. Redfern Hollinshead, Harold Hollinshead and C. S. Swayne. The accuracy of the beautiful costumes, which represented ten distinct periods from 1815 to 1915, and the manner in which the music for each successive period was interpreted, did credit to Miss Morgan and her pupils. A pleas-ant incident of the evening was the presentation at the conclusion of the program of a large basket of sox for Canadian soldiers.

The opening number introduced Miss Elsle Keefer, artistically costumed in a green and silver empire fown of the 1815 period. "What Will You Do, Love?" by Samuel Lover, was weetly rendered accompanied by Mrs. H. S. Hutchinson, at the piano. Mrs. E. Freysong sang beautifully the eria "Casta Diva," from La Norma, ac-companied by Mrs. A. M. Blight. Mrs. Freyseng was exquisitely gowned to represent the period of 1825 in a costume of white and green satin and ostrich head dress. Full skirts, quaint flowered muslin and a coquettish poke bonnet was donned by Miss Marjorie Rogers, who was a fashion plate from 1835. With feeling and delightful ex-pression she sang "The Three Fish-ers," by Hallah.

Songs and Dances.

A favorite number was that interpreting the songs and dances of 1845, most effectively presented by Miss Grace Smith and Mrs. W. G. A. Lambe. Miss Miss Smith looked lovely in a priceless old costume and hair poudre, while Mrs. Lambe was also exquisitely gowned in satin, flower trimmed, and her hair in curl. Miss Jeannette Barclay, who is the possessor of a beautiful and very high soprano voice, gave the 1855 number, "The Carnival of Venice," costumed in blue tartan with

In a lovely pale yellow brocaded cosby Blockley, chosen for the 1865 per-iod. P. Redfern Hollinshead and Miss Kathleen McMurrich provided the delightful number interpreting the period of 1875, their songs being "Sperto Gentil," La Avonta, and "She Wandered Down the Mountain Side," the latter being delivered with dramatic ability. In quaint 1885 afternoon frock, dainty hat and parasol
Mrs. A. H. C. Proctor was much appreclated in her delightful singing of "Enchantress." C. S. Swayne, in crooning old darky songs from 1895, was enusiastically recalled, accompanying Ms cwn songs on the guitar. A new member of Toronto's musical world was heard to advantage in "Eleanore," when Harolu Redfern Hollinshead sung the 1905 period number. This remarkably effective and unique prograin was only brought to a close after Miss Hope Morgan, gowned in a fashionable 1915 creation, had delivered, in beautiful voice, "Depuis le jour," from Louise, winning repeated encores.

An enquiry into the nature and function of faith, and the emphasis of the fact that evil is transitory while spirit forces control the world's destiny formed the focus of the sermon delivered by Rev.
