

EDUCATION.

GEORGE THOMSON'S

English and Commercial Academy, upper side
the Parade,

IS now open for the instruction of youth of both sexes, in the most useful branches of Education, and on an entire new plan, derived from experience and study, as well as from information received lately from some of the first Teachers of England and Scotland, regarding the different systems of Education; with the aid and the experience of nine years' teaching in this town, he earnestly hopes to merit a continuation of the public favor.

His Evening School will be opened about the beginning of October; early application and attendance, are necessary and best, particularly for adults, or those whose previous education has not been attended to.

September 1831.

H. Hamilton,

Cabinet Maker, &c.

RETURNS thanks for past favours, and respectfully informs his friends and the public, that he has lately removed to the shop in Granville-street,

Two doors north of the Chocolate
Manufactory ;

where he continues to execute orders in the above business, on moderate terms ; and hopes by strict attention, to merit a share of public patronage.

Venetian Blinds neatly made.—Funerals carefully conducted. November.

J. W. LORRY,

Tailor and Habit Maker, from London.

Thankful for past favours received from his friends both in town and country, takes this opportunity to let them know, that he has commenced business again in Argyle street, one door south of the Rev. Archdeacon Willis', west side of St. Paul's Church, where all orders in his line will be thankfully received and punctually attended to. Naval and Military uniforms, and all kinds of lace and ornamenting work made as usual, in the neatest and most fashionable manner.
