

SUPPLY—PELAGIC SEALING—Con.

Sloan, Wm.—Con.

ese governments—3941-46. Treaties with Japan—3946-47. Report of Edwin W. Sims to U.S. government, on the Alaska fur seal fisheries; extracts from—3948-49. Regulations ignored by Japan—3949. Japanese sealers operating without restriction decrease catches of Canadian sealers; statistics showing decrease in Canadian catch—3950. Proposals for a settlement of the question—3950-51. Statistics of Alaskan fur seal fisheries—3953.

Sproule, T. S. (East Grey)—3979.

Present difficulty due more to negligence of Canadian government than to any action of British people—3979.

Thompson, A. (Yukon)—3954.

Sketches history of British colonial system 3957-58. Surrender of Canadian rights under various treaties between Great Britain and the United States; the Treaty of Paris; the Hague Tribunal; the Ashburton Treaty of 1871—3958-62. Russian treaty of 1825—3962. The Alverstone award—3962-63. Where Canada loses—3964. Canada's position in the event of war between the United States and Japan—3965. Great Britain's defence of Canada; quotes from articles by John S. Ewart—3965-68. Attitude of U.S.; quotes from address by Secretary Root—3968. The treaty-making power—3968-69. Mania with England to protect the United States as against Canada; quotes from Mr. Ewart—3970. Canada's present position untenable; should have a navy of our own; must have independence in some form—3970-71.

SUPPLY—POSTAL ARRANGEMENTS BETWEEN CANADA AND THE UNITED STATES.

Statement made to the committee—Hon. R. Lemieux—3161.

Armstrong, J. E. (East Lambton)—3162.

Protests from publishers of newspapers—3162. Discrimination against high class scientific and religious American publications—3164.

Borden, R. L. (Carleton, Ont.)—3169.

Reimbursement of Canadian publishers; what the principle might lead to—3169-70. Character of U.S. publications; danger in experimenting—3171.

Henderson, David (Halton)—3164.

Advocates reduction on drop-letter rates outside large cities—3165-66.

Lake, R. S. (Qu'Appelle)—3166.

Urges that exceptional treatment should be given in case of bone fide country weekly newspapers—3166.

Lemieux, Hon. Rodolphe (Postmaster General)—3159.

Agreement with U.S. Post Office Department made last year—3159. Reads section of convention of 1888, which is affected—3159. Postage on newspapers and periodicals—3169. Canada suffered under previous arrangement—3160. Canada can now control classification of publications coming from the U.S. and keep out undesirable literature—3161. Action of Canadian newspaper publishers—3162. Amendment to the convention—3162. Reduction on rates of postage from England—3163. Effect of decreased rate on newspapers—3164. That will be stopped—3166.

SUPPLY—POSTAL ARRANGEMENTS BETWEEN CANADA AND THE UNITED STATES—Con.

Lemieux, Hon. Rodolphe—Con.

Recent change affects only daily newspapers of both countries; quotes statutory conditions to which newspaper or periodical must conform—3168. Concession to the Canadian Press Association—3169.

Macdonell, A. C. (South Toronto)—3166.

Bringing printed sheets of whole editions of works into Canada from the States; a hardship to the Canadian printing trade—3166.

Worthington, A. N. (Sherbrooke)—3167.

Is it the intention to continue classification of scientific and technical periodicals and magazines as hitherto; letter from the Canadian Rand Company—3167-68.

SUPPLY—POSTAL SERVICE.

Remarks on motion to go into Supply—Mr. J. E. Armstrong—7257.

Armstrong, J. E. (East Lambton)—7257.

Return asked for re complaints respecting the postal service; no answer received—7257. Complaints regarding handling of weekly newspapers—7258. Transfer of mail from trans-Atlantic steamers at Rimouski—7259. Weighing of mails carried by railways—7260. One cent drop-letter rate in cities; free delivery in cities—7260. Free rural mail delivery should be adopted—7261. Rural delivery in the United States; its cost, etc.—7262.

Lemieux, Hon. Rodolphe (Postmaster General)—7263.

Return asked for being prepared—7263. Amendments of postal convention with the United States; Canadian mails purged of undesirable American literature—7264. Arrangements concerning postal rates on newspapers and periodicals—7265. Privileges granted in case of certain American periodicals coming into Canada—7267. Railway mail service—7268. Favours one-cent drop-letter system—7268. Increasing frequency of service in thickly peopled sections—7269. Purchase of mail tender for trans-Atlantic mails—7269. The steamer Lady Evelyn—7270. The contract with the Rhoda—7271. Free rural mail delivery experience of the United States.