

I am glad that the history of the different units of the Durham Light Infantry, both pre-war and new battalions, is to be written. I know that such a history must provide a record of which all Durham men for all time will be rightly proud.

Haig.

Field-Marshal