"Of this we are certain—the De Brisay Analytical Method is by far the most natural way of learning Latin, as a careful examination of even the first part of Mr. De Brisay's system will show."—Educational Record of Quebec.

"What is most commendable in Mr. De Brisay's Method is his treatment of the suspended character of Latin sentence-structure. Here undoubtedly is the key to the situation for such a teacher."—Educational Journal (Toronto).

"We commend the method especially to those who have but little time to devote to the study of Latin."—Detroit School Record.

"We are convinced of its excellence, and are not surprised that practical results have been obtained by its use."—Christian Guardian (Toronto).

"The system is eminently practical."—London Free Press.

"Worthy of the closest study, not only of students of the classics, but of students and teachers of modern languages as well."—The Open Court (Chicago).

"Persons interested in Latin should investigate the method."—Saturday Night (Toronto).

"The aim of the work is scientific and will be popular as it is so ingeniously concise and comprehensible. Mr. De Brisay has been particularly well fitted for the work by his experience as a teacher, as well as by his extensive acquaintance with the different languages and the primitive derivations of each, and his Analytical Method is made easy to those who wish to master Latin."—Bobcaygeon Independent.

"The exercises and instructions given to pupils are certainly radically different from those in the ordinary Latin grammar, and they seem to strike boldly into the marrow of the subject. From what we can gather from a perusal of the pamphlet, and of the specimen of the method before us, we can conscientiously endorse the method."—Victoria Daily Times.
