

that effect, at any regular meeting ; said member shall previously be allowed full opportunity to make his defence.

VII.

Every member on being duly admitted shall sign the Bye-Laws of the Club, and in case of changing his place of residence, shall notify the same to the Secretary.

VIII.

The Rules and Bye-Laws of the Club shall not be repealed, altered or amended, unless at the regular meeting of the Club in November, notice of motion for such repeal, alteration or amendment to be given in writing, at least one meeting previous to action being taken upon them, when if two-thirds of the members present vote in favor of the motion it shall be carried.