Printers' League. In the Printers' League, at the Toronto Bowling Club last night, the T. Eaton Bowling Club last night, the T. Eaton Company won two out of three games from Toronto Typesetting. The White Elephants only got together in the middle game, which they won by a million pins, collecting 908, while their other two offerings were very much of the "Kitty" League variety, and were easy picking for the Big Store typos. Andy Minty, for the latter, was pins high for the night, with a 565 total. Byrne, for Toronto Typesetting, was second, with 526, with his 226 count in the second game featureing, while Ernie Parkes, also for White Elephants, was third high roller, with 523.
