WITH ENEMY NEAR GATES OF CAPITAL

Turkish army is retreating to the last line of fortifications outside Constantinople, there was little news received from the seat of war tonight. Fighting was reported along the line from Tchortlu to Serai, which was the outcome, doubtless, of the efforts of the defeated Turks to retire within the Tchatalja lines, which the Bulgarians are doing their utmost to prevent.

The besieging forces are tightening their grip around Adrianople, and the bombardment is becoming more vigorous. In other directions the allies are consolidating their occupation of Turkish territory. The Greeks have taken Nicopolis and Preveza, and have landed a division at Stavros, which is marching to attack Saloniki. An unceasing despatch from the latter town intimates the likelihood of its surrender without resistance.

AUSTRIA'S WARNING.

In connection with the Serbian occupation of Prishrend, a warning from Austria appears in the official Vienna Fremdenblatt, which, in the supposition that the Serbians have now attained the object of their operations toward the west, says: "There are neither military nor national motives for the Serbian army to penetrate the districts beyond Prishrend, which are exclusively inhabited by Albanians, that is, therefore, into the undeniable territory of another Balkan people."

ADRIANOPLE'S FALL RUMORED.

SOFIA, Nov. 2.—(Can. Press.)—Persistent rumors of the fall of Adrianople caused great crowds to assemble about the war office throughout the day. There were also reports that the Bulgarians have captured six Turkish trains near Plovdiv. No official confirmation of either of these reports could be obtained.

Bulgarian aviators have made a number of flights over the city, and the latest authentic information is to the effect that the bombardment of the forts continues.

GREEK SQUADRON SIGHTED.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 2.—(Can. Press.)—It is reported that a Greek squadron has been sighted off Enos, at the mouth of the Merizit River in the Gulf of Enos. The Greek warships were conveying a number of transports and it is believed that a landing is contemplated.

BRITISH CRUISER FOR LEVANT.

GIBRALTAR, Nov. 2.—(Can. Press.)—The British cruiser Dartmouth passed here today bound for the Levant. The third battle squadron will arrive from England early tomorrow morning and will proceed onward after a stay of only one hour.

A RISER CONGRATULATES GREEKS.

ATHENS, Nov. 2.—(Can. Press.)—It is reported that the German emperor has sent a letter to his sister, Princess Sophie, the wife of Crown Prince Constantine, which has been communicated to the crown prince, congratulating the Greek army on the courage it has displayed.

Despatches from Kossani say that when the Greeks entered the village of Atraki, a white flag was hoisted. The Greeks, suspecting treachery, sent forward scouts on whom the Turkish peasants opened fire. The Greeks then surrounded and burned the village. One hundred prisoners were taken and they will be tried by court martial.

EPIRUS TIGHTLY BLOCKADED.

ATHENS, Nov. 2.—(Can. Press.)—The blockade around Epirus now extends for 140 miles. Late reports say that the Greeks and Servians have effected a junction and are advancing on Saloniki.

TROOPS CHEER KING FERDINAND.

SOFIA, Nov. 2.—(Can. Press.)—King Ferdinand yesterday visited the heights of Yuruchas, from which he viewed the battlefield and forts around Adrianople. Subsequently he proceeded to the advanced positions. Everywhere the king was enthusiastically cheered by the troops. The royal train stopped at Murishe Pasha, where the king attended a thanksgiving service for the Bulgarian victory before Lule Burgas.

TURKS FLED IN WILD PANIC.

SOFIA, Nov. 2.—(Can. Press.)—It is reported that the Bulgarians surrounded Torgut Shekhet Pasha and a Turkish division on the heights east of Serai. After desperate fighting the Turks broke the Bulgarian circle and fled to Tchatalja. In the battle south of Lule Burgas the Bulgarians captured eighty cannon and one hundred and sixty wagons of ammunition.

FIFTEEN THOUSAND ARNAUTS SURRENDER.

BELGRADE, Nov. 2.—(Can. Press.)—The notorious brigand, Issa Roletina, according to report, has surrendered with 15,000 Arnauts to the Serbian authorities at Mitrovica. They will be permitted to return to their homes after giving up their arms.

AVIATORS' GOOD WORK.

SOFIA, Nov. 2.—(Can. Press.)—Fighting is proceeding all along the line from Tchortlu to Serai, where the remnants of the defeated Turkish army is making a stand.

There is much elation here over the invincible aviators who fearlessly expose themselves to the Turkish fire in order to secure information for the staff. With the exception of Popoff, all escaped unhurt.

AUSTRIA BLOCKS NEGOTIATIONS OF POWERS

Great Britain, France and Russia United in Policy of "Territorial Disinterestedness." But Austria Stands Aloof, and Germany May Join in Opposition.

PARIS, Nov. 2.—(Can. Press.)—Austrian suspicions still block the way to an accord of the powers on the proposal of France, Russia and Great Britain for a declaration of "territorial disinterestedness." The French ambassador at Vienna has given the Austrian foreign minister, Count von Benckendorf, definite assurance that the three powers have no intention of asking Austria to deny herself the right to protect fully her economic interests and that the only desire is to indicate that the great powers are determined to make no demands for territorial compensation.

Up to a late hour, however, the French foreign office had received no reply from the Vienna cabinet, and it is feared that the tone of the semi-official newspaper forebodings a refusal to acquiesce in the proposal. Germany also remains silent. Her ultimate decision doubtless will conform to that of Austria.

Demands of Allies.

The Balkan leaguers, according to information available in Paris, have already agreed to the program, and when the time arrives they mean to dictate terms to Turkey. They will first enforce absolute autonomy in Macedonia and Albania. They propose then to regulate the autonomy of the respective interests and to assume the responsibilities arising therefrom without interference on the part of outsiders. They will permit the great powers to regulate the status of Constantinople and to arrange international questions, such as the Dardanelles and the future of Turkey in Asia.

The powers of the triple entente have agreed to demand that Greece and Serbia, pointing out the danger to Christians and the serious consequences to the commerce of Europe, should occupy Constantinople and Saloniki, and earnestly exhorting the Balkan states to accept the advance of their troops some distance from these two cities.

FLED IN WILD PANIC.

USKUP, Nov. 2.—(Can. Press.)—The flight of the Turks from Uskup was another case of "save himself who can," the officers leading the men to get away no matter where. They melted like mist. The artillery with its guns alone kept the armistice, and had they been supported, the Turks would have been able to carry out their plan of retreating to the south.

The British general, Lord Kitchener, was reported to have been able to carry out his plan of retreating to the south. The British general, Lord Kitchener, was reported to have been able to carry out his plan of retreating to the south.

PERSONAL TOUCH BETTER THAN MEETINGS

Rev. W. A. Cameron Says That in Work of Redeeming Toronto the Personal Touch of the Christian Would Lead to Bigger Results Than All Massey Hall Meetings.

In opening the special series of evangelistic services in Bloor street Baptist Church on Sunday morning, Rev. W. A. Cameron, the pastor, gave it as his opinion that in the work of redeeming Toronto the personal touch of the Christian would be of more import and lead to bigger results than all the Massey Hall meetings that could be held.

"How many mass meetings did Jesus hold in Judea to protest against the flagrant vices of the day?" asked the speaker.

"If last Friday you were able to quietly, effectively, influence some man so that his heart was renewed and he came to Jesus, your speech wasn't printed in the morning papers, but I think you did as much for the Kingdom as the four thousand who visited Massey Hall."

Wrong Emphasis.

"I don't wish to be misunderstood. I don't say that if Jesus were here now he would not hold mass meetings. I would have been in Massey Hall if I had had the time on Friday night, but I say this that there is a great tendency to place the emphasis on the wrong thing. It's much easier to get out a band and to go crying aloud in the streets than to personally stretch out a hand to someone who has fallen. A cleaner Toronto by all means; but a new social order by all means; but around the Church of Christ, a moral and ethical ideal will only survive as you enshrine it in the hearts of men and women. Create in me a clean heart, is what we should pray, but today this has been changed and the prayer now is 'Create a new social order, O God and better relationships among men.'"

Men's Service.

At 8 o'clock in the afternoon the special meeting for men was attended by about three hundred. Rev. A. L. Giesse made an eloquent appeal to the men at this meeting, taking as his text, "I will follow Thee whithersoever thou goest," and there was special music. At the evening service when Mr. Cameron again preached, the text was not a vacant seat in the church, and in fact many stood through the service. In treating the life of the prophet Isaiah, Mr. Cameron emphasized on the fact that Jesus was not always sad. The minister raised his voice in protest against the theory of some who were that Jesus was the incarnation of the Devil himself. Jesus was no monster and he did what he did by yielding to ordinary temptations and ordinary motives. Jesus chose this man to be his follower chiefly for what he might become not for what he was.

Hypocrite's View.

"He who would paint Judas," said Mr. Cameron, "must need put into his face the dying light of what was once a noble enthusiasm. I am here to protest against the common belief that the traitor was always a traitor; that the poor lost woman in the street was always poor and lost. The heart of the true man cries out against this theory, which is simply the hypocrite's view of life."

The special services continue all this week. Rev. Robert Johnston, D.D., Montreal; Rev. Charles A. Eaton, D.D., New York; and Rev. John MacNeill, B.A., Walmer road, are the speakers.

ACROBAT ADMITS MURDER

Silent Treatment Wins Confession From Charles Kramer.

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—(Can. Press.)—Broken by 36 hours' "silent treatment," Charles M. Kramer confessed this afternoon that he killed Sophia Singer, the Baltimore heiress, found murdered here on Monday night. Kramer, whose stage name is Conway, added that the nature of the statement made yesterday by his wife, Beatrice Ryall Kramer, known on the variety stage as the "Burlesque Queen," was that he had knocked Miss Singer down in self-defense when she attacked him with a razor after he had rebuffed her for making, he said, a suggestion to Kramer to go out and meet some men. Kramer exonerated his wife from all blame in connection with the crime.

Kramer, the former clown, high diver and circus acrobat, paced his cell all night begging for a word from the turnkeys, who refused to vouchsafe him a syllable.

Kramer's story differed from his wife's only in the detail that he claimed self-defense. He said that he never meant to kill Miss Singer, but when he took the covered door knob away from her, she came at him with a razor from his dresser and he struck her with the door knob. He said that he had bound and gagged her to prevent her making an outcry.

WILL SALUTE FLAG

Canadian Schoolboy Says He's Sorry He Slighted Starry Emblem.

CAMDEN, N. J., Nov. 2.—George Whiting, the 16-year-old Camden schoolboy, who was disciplined from school because he refused to salute the American flag, is penitent at his home. George announced today that after he had talked the matter over with his father, he was ready to apologize to his teacher and to the school authorities for his failure to observe the rules, and that hereafter he would salute the Stars and Stripes.

It is probable that George will salute the flag Monday, and that his triticism will be triumphant in the education of Camden's youthful citizens.
