TEAMSTERS' STRIKE
COSTING COMPANIES
CONSIDERABLE SUMS

Big Firms Change Work Schedules to Meet Existing Conditions.

ONE FIRM SIGNS

John Shaw Company Said to Have Accepted Men's Terms.

The striking teamsters are said to be sitting tight, and the strike situation remains unchanged, although E. N. Compton, fair-wage officer, has hopes of an early settlement. In the meantime, all manner of business concerns are seriously handicapped in the matter of transportation.

Hundreds of horses of the various companies whose men are out on strike were yesterday afternoon enjoying the time of their lives. They were absolutely king of all they surveyed. It is quite true that they were mostly great fat fellows of hay and perspiring men told off to give ear to their needs through the day. None could have fared better inside or out of the army, and all were as frisky as the proverbial sires of the distant ages. The World made an extended tour of the stables in which the happy equines were domiciled. About seven men were on the job at each of the stables. Some of the men were very affable, but not all, some mistaking the scribe for a strikebreaker. The stables themselves were as clean as new pins, and it is certain that the lords within these places were unaware of any disturbance without. There was no evidence of any of the residents leaving for pastures green at the moment of the visit, three in the afternoon, and no word was given out that such a policy was to be followed.

When the reporter informed citizens outside of the stables that a few of them were heard to remark that if the majority of employers treated their men with the same consideration that the teamsters' union treated their buxom horses, there would be few, if any, strikes.

Freight Yards Busy.
The freight yards were quite busy at the hour they were visited by the reporter. However, most of the wagons and lorries belonged to the firms taking in goods. Only one wagon was on the job from the Shedd-Hendrie Company. Generally this company is understood to employ at least a hundred wagons and lorries. Such well known firms as Christie, Brown, Eby-Blain, the T. Eaton Company, the Soren Manufacturing Company, the Tunncliffe Carriage Company, the Frazee Warehousing Company, the Medland Brothers, the Chisholm Milling Company, Carr Brothers Limited, and many others were largely represented at the siding of both the Grand Trunk and the C. P. R. It was pointed out, however, that these companies were much embarrassed in that they were able to take in only half of their usual amount of freight, that they had to take up time using wagons usually supplied by the large freight companies, and had to employ their men at jobs entirely outside the usual routine, a total loss in time, work and expense which in its entirety would run high.

One Company Signs.
The most significant event in the strike was the alleged agreement signed up with the John Shaw Company, a company of note. Outside of this definite agreement, there was little or nothing to report, although E. N. Compton, fair wage officer, expressed himself as more than satisfied with the trend of events during the day. Despite the best efforts of the companies to handle their own freight, several of them report much congestion at their own warehouses. Among these are the Perkins-Ince Company, the John Macdonald Company, the John Lumbers Company, all of which have their own wagons and lorries. John S. Jones, business manager for the striking teamsters, gave out the following statement to the press, yesterday.

Deliberate Misstatement.
"Mr. Symington's statement in the morning papers that he had received no request, either verbally or in writing, from his own men, is entirely incorrect. On Monday, July 7, he received a deputation of two men, who were in his own employ, and emphatically refused to negotiate with them in any way as members of an organization. It was particularly pointed out to Mr. Symington that these men were in his employ and at the same time members of the union, and that they were there to ask him to enter into negotiations regarding an increase in wages, working conditions and the eight-hour day. His statement, therefore, that he has not yet received any demands from his own men is a deliberate misstatement of the facts of the case. The facts are that the men, in the first place, made a request thru their organization to the cartage companies to meet a committee from the union about one month ago, giving them four days in which to reply. No reply was received. In an effort to avoid a strike and to prove our sincerity for arbitration, and believing the industry to be a public utility, we applied for a board of conciliation.

Board Refused.
"The labor department at Ottawa sent an investigator here, Mr. Killin, who was unable to secure the assent of the employers to a board. A ruling was then asked by us from the deputy minister of labor as to whether it would be possible for him to name a board without the employers' consent. His reply was that the industry was not a public utility, as required by the industrial disputes act. Our application for a board was consequently withdrawn and the firms notified to that effect.

"We then made a request that they meet our committee and enter into negotiations. This request they also ignored. Messrs. Arthur O'Leary and W. J. Hovey, president and secretary respectively of the Trades and Labor Council, interviewed Mr. Symington on Saturday last in an effort to finally avert the strike and requested us to defer our strike decision for another 24 hours. Mr. Symington then suggested to Messrs. O'Leary and Hovey that we send a committee of two men from each of the companies affected, to meet him on Monday. Mr. Symington, who has acted as spokesman for the employers thruout, had a conference with the other employers on Monday morning previous to meeting the deputation, and apparently outlined the attitude to be taken by each company, as the reply received by the 15 men constituting the deputation was an absolute refusal to negotiate thru a committee of the union."

At a Deadlock.
The men are determined to await the next move on the part of the companies affected. They stated yesterday afternoon that an eight-hour day would be as easy of operation as the present schedule. Mr. Symington of the Shedd-Hendrie and other employers, on the other hand, stated emphatically that the eight-hour schedule could not be put into effect without seriously affecting business not only of the cartage companies but also of the firms supplied by these companies.

It was learned last night that 35 or 40 horses had been sent to pasture at the Eglinton farm, near North Toronto. None had been taken away by half-past 2 in the afternoon, and they must have been spirited away later in the day.

STREET RAILWAYMEN
WANT CONCILIATION

Joseph Gibbons, business agent for the Street Railwaymen's Union, has asked Judge Barron to reconvene the board of conciliation to consider 25 points still involved in the dispute with the company.

Judge Barron is awaiting instructions from Ottawa. If he is unable to convene his board, the men will request the government to appoint a new one.

P. BURNS' TEAMSTERS
NOT STRIKE BREAKERS

A driver for the P. Burns Coal Company has written to The World to point out that all the drivers of this company have not gone on strike, since many of them do not belong to the Teamsters' Union, and are considering organization as a coal drivers' or longshoremen's union. He writes this letter so that strikers may not think he and his colleagues are strike-breakers.

AN ELEVENTH HOUR MEETING

Bread drivers will meet employers on Friday for a final attempt to arbitrate respecting the demands of the men for $25 a week. There are only three or four employers alleged to be refusing the demand of the men.

CAPTAIN KIMPTON
EXPLAINS PROBLEM

Gratuities for Canada Men Are Not Over-Liberal.

Captain Kimpton of the paymaster's department, started last night that men with service in Canada only would receive in gratuity $100 (if married) for every year of service. No imperial service men, whether residents of Canada or not, said Captain Kimpton, would receive the gratuity now awarded C. E. F. men unless they war service to his credit, ten months of which were spent with the C. E. F. would be granted the $600 awarded to three-year-service men (if married). If he has already been paid an imperial service gratuity covering his imperial service of two years two months, this amount will be deducted from the $600 granted during the C. E. F. war gratuity scheme.

To Reward War Prisoners
Who Tried to Elude Enemy

Ottawa, July 8.—Officers and soldiers of the Canadian expeditionary force who displayed gallantry while escaping or attempting to escape from the enemy, or who rendered exceptional services whilst prisoners of war, or interned, are eligible for reward. An order of the militia department just issued states that recommendations for such reward must now be submitted. The facts supporting each recommendation must be substantiated by statements of evidence from at least two witnesses, who have first-hand knowledge of the case and should reach militia headquarters before August 31. Officers and soldiers who are still serving should submit their claims thru the usual official channels. Those who have been demobilized should submit their claims thru the district record officer commanding the military district in which they live.

GOVERNMENT WHIPPING POSTS

C. authorities are about to memorialize the government and the Ontario Metal Association to reconsider action recently taken against certain members of the association, respecting prescriptions for the cup that should be given to the hand of a hand knowledge of the case and should reach militia headquarters before August 31.
