"A GREATER TORONTO AND A RICHER ONTARIO"

A Railway Policy for the Province

MONTRÉAL REAPS WHERE ONTARIO HAS PLANTED

Wealth of Newly-Opened North Country Diverted to West-East.
IS TIME TO ORGANIZE
Says Claude Macdonell, M.P.—Need for Reorganized Railway System.

The people of Ontario should: (1) Save the north country by an Ontario national road. (2) Connect up with the trans-continental railways thereby. (3) Bring the I. C. R. to Toronto. (4) Make Toronto harbor a factor in ocean and great lake navigation alike. And—this is the matter requiring immediate and vigorous attention—(5) Insist that the passenger and freight traffic of Ontario shall be managed and controlled in and from Toronto, instead of from a rival city in Quebec.

The World's campaign for Greater Toronto and the demand that the railways of Ontario shall not be used to build up Montreal at the expense of Toronto has awakened a lively interest and from all sides come words of commendation and encouragement. Claude Macdonell, M.P., took the first opportunity to pledge his hearty support. "The citizens should call meetings and organize," said Mr. Macdonell, "before it is too late. The three trans-continental railways are crossing the continent far to the north of us. The Dominion government has apparently decided that Montreal shall be the terminus of all ocean-going vessels. During the past session Montreal and Quebec received $20,000,000 to promote their trade facilities, and Toronto, $50,000,000. I consider that the World's policy, respecting a provincial railway from Toronto to Hudson Bay, is of such immediate importance that the citizens should organize, and that the civic authorities should take action and confer with the Ontario government before the next meeting of the legislature, so that the work may begin in 1908."

Mr. Macdonell discussed other phases of this general subject, and which will be referred to in future articles. The World has pointed out repeatedly that if the north country is to be saved to Ontario it must be thru the Province of Ontario adopting a comprehensive national policy, including a provincial railway and telegraph line from Niagara Falls via Hamilton, Toronto, North Bay and the Cobalt to Hudson Bay. As matters stand, the province of Ontario opened up by the lavish expenditure of old Ontario is being diverted to Montreal.

THE WILD MAN DOES NOT LIKE CHAINS.

The World's Wild Man saw the Horse Show from the steel-laced riders of the archery roof. He is afraid of horses and regards them as of less brain power than men, and therefore the less reliable of the two. He watched some women, some men, taking the hunters over the jumps, and the substance of his conclusions was that nearly every horse that failed, failed because of a mistake on the part of the rider. In other words that when trouble came the horse and the rider were separated; sometimes they were separated and they both got over all right—in that case it was the horse's credit. What the Wild Man meant by being separated was that a good performance is made by horse and rider acting in unison, the man directing with his hand, his body, his heel, most of all by his personality, uniting with that of the animal, and the two making one intelligent jumping machine. When, however, the reins fell loose going over a jump, where the pressure, loose or touch between the two is shattered, then you may expect a mishap, a fall, a stumble or a roll off. "It's the pulse of intelligent touch," said the Wild Man. But when he heard the clanking chains on James Murray's pair of reins he was so terrified that he imagined a new kind of demon was out to hunt him and he got quickly away to the Esplanade and from there to a hotel that he sometimes frequents near the shore of Ashbridge's Bay. Horse shows hall no more attractions for him, and as for the bright and perfumed personages in the boxes, he thought of them as taking great risks from a wild horse jumping in among them.

TO TRANSMIT POWER.

The World understands that the hydro power commission are preparing for the distribution of the Niagara energy on extensive scale. As soon as the contract is signed with the Ontario Power Co., on the terms as set forth in Saturday's World, it is intended to commence the construction of a transmission line into Western Ontario. So far have plans matured that it is confidently expected that the commission will be able to supply Niagara power as far west as Windsor and Sarnia in another year.

MILK DEALERS ASK CONFERENCE

Will Meet Producers This Morning to Discuss Settlement.

Many citizens went without milk yesterday, and many more will go without today, but a settlement will probably be made by noon to-day at a joint meeting of the milk-producers and the milk-dealers' representatives. This meeting was asked for by the milk-dealers, and they will probably suggest a compromise to settle the difficulty. The strike has fallen hard upon the small dealers, who have had great difficulty in obtaining milk enough to supply their customers' needs. Complaints having been made by different citizens, that they had been unable to get their usual supply. The World called up ten different citizens at random in different parts of the city. The first was a lady on Concord-avenue, who said she had received but half a pint of milk daily for four days, the other standing order was for one quart.

Her dealer, he it noted, is among the men who have declared their ability to take care of their customers' needs. The next lady on West Macdonell-street, said she had gotten her full supply regularly, as did also a family on St. George-street. The fourth, a lady on Carlton-street, has been in the habit of buying cream from one firm and milk from another. Yesterday the cream made its usual appearance, but the milk was missing. Got Full Supply.

A lady on Spadina-avenue told the World she had daily got both milk and cream from her dealer, but that her neighbors on both sides were without either. The next four were residents of Eglinton, Maple-avenue, Rusholme-road and Howard-street, and had all been receiving their usual supplies and had no complaints. The last enquiry secured the most interesting story of all. It was from a resident at the Beach. "Any difficulty over the milk?" reported a man's voice. "Well, the only difficulty is that it made the baby sick two days ago, my wife sick yesterday and myself to-day. It seems chock full of chemicals, and I'm going to send a sample to the health officer."

"It doesn't look like ordinary milk, and it has a sticky smell," the voice went on. "It's more like chalk and water turned sour, like the stuff they sell in cans thinned out, and has the same sickly smell." The man's voice, vengeance on the firm who sold the alleged milk to him. This random enquiry looks as if half the city is being supplied with milk regularly, and the other half is not. Display "No Milk" Sign.

The World passed six small dairies in the evening, all of which were closed, three having a notice; "No milk" displayed. "Milk galore on Monday morning," is the sign which a Spadina-avenue grocer is displaying. He has been a surprise to the neighborhood since Wednesday, for he has been receiving a good supply of milk from somewhere. Saturday night early arrivals were told to be back at 10.30, by which time there were nearly half a hundred anxious customers in line. A light delivery wagon brought in enough for everybody. One man had a big-sized waterpail. "You'd have one this size, too," he explained, "if you hadn't had a drop of milk for three days."

FARMER WHITNEY: You're probably right, Adam; but get to plowing. We've got to work new—not talk.

Find Marvin Boy Dead With Murder Suspected

Body Not Marked But in a Spot Which Had Been Thoroughly Tramped and Burned Over.

DOVER, Del., May 5.—Lying in a marshy place of land, the body of little Horace Marvin, son of Dr. H. N. Marvin, whose mysterious disappearance from the Bay Meadow Farm, near Dover, had baffled solution since March 4, was found on Saturday about half a mile from the Marvin farm by Ollie Pleasanton, a farmer. Pleasanton, who lives on a farm adjoining the Marvins', came upon the child's body while out gunning.

The body lay face downward in a patch of meadow grass. There was not a mark upon the little boy's body, indicating foul play. It was in a good state of preservation, suggesting that it was frozen. Pleasanton says he saw the body at a distance of 20 feet. Yesterday several gunners passed over this land, but none saw the body, if it was there. The spot where the body was found is midway between the Marvin home and the Delaware River. When Ollie Pleasanton came upon the child's body he found the clothing intact. The tiny woolen tunic was buttoned up securely about the body and not an article of clothing which he had on when he disappeared over the face and the mittens were on his hands.

Dr. Marvin says he searched the same marsh nearly every day after the child's disappearance, and with detectives burned grass off the place four weeks ago, but saw no signs of the body. The theory that the body was recently placed where it was found is supported by the fact that Dr. Marvin, as well as detectives, stood on the spot, where they burned the tall sage grass from it. Further than this, the marsh has been trampled over, time and again, within the past week, by neighbors, and no sign of the child was seen. Dr. Marvin ran to the place described by Pleasanton and gently poked the little form, pulling the cap from the face to make sure that it was his boy. Being satisfied that it was his son, the doctor wrapped the body in a sheet and carried it to the house, where he notified the family. The doctor would not allow an examination to be made by anyone until the coroner and a physician had made a full and complete investigation of the affair. Attorney-General Hastings and Chief Detective Archibald, simultaneously a descent was made on the rear, where P. C. McIntosh (25) was stationed. This none could escape from the building. Meanwhile Plain Clothesmen Armstrong and McMenomy, with P. C. Kennedy (9), and P. C. Reeves had entered at the front.

HINDUS HOSTILE TO EUROPEANS

Quick to Show Violence—Outbreaks Are Spreading.

SIMLA, British India, May 5.—Racial animosity is undoubtedly becoming increasingly manifest in parts of Northern India. The Hindus, particularly the educated and student classes, are hostile to the Europeans, any unpopular act forming a pretext for attacks on inoffensive and unarmoured Europeans. That the movement originating in Bengal has spread to the Punjab is evidenced by the outbreaks, trifling in themselves at Harialandi. The situation is being carefully watched, and incitement to violence is rigorously repressed.

Chinese Lottery Game Raided by the Police

Sunday Afternoon Descent on York-street Grocery Lands 20 in Cells—Lots of Money in Crowd.

Headed by Inspector Davis a squad of eight police from No. 1 station gathered in 21 Chinese in a raid on the Shing Yutah & Co., Chinese groceries, 190 York-street. The raid was timed for 3.30 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and executed with such complete secrecy that the Celestials were caught in the act of operating a lottery. Of the number taken, Win Chou and Chong You are charged as keepers of a common betting house, while the rest are charged with being frequenters of the same. The prisoners were removed to No. 1 cells in the patrol wagon, taxing that conveyance to capacity on two trips. No Chance to Escape. Magistrate Kingsford attended at the station, and the keepers were admitted to bail in the sums of $500 each, while $200 a throw sufficed to release the frequenters. All will appear in police court this morning. At the hour appointed Inspector Davis entered the front door of the building, followed by Sergt. Allison and Chief Detective Archibald. Simultaneously a descent was made on the rear, where P. C. McIntosh (25) was stationed. This none could escape from the building. Meanwhile Plain Clothesmen Armstrong and McMenomy, with P. C. Kennedy (9), and P. C. Reeves had entered at the front.

The standing of the first 25 candidates in the Trip to London contest is given above. It marks the beginning of an increased interest and an added impetus in the greatest voting ever undertaken by a Canadian newspaper. It means that from to-day on each contestant in the race will be forced to extend every ounce of energy to hold her position in the field. The standing of the candidates represents a remarkably well balanced field. Each and every woman is within hailing distance of the leaders, and the coming week will undoubtedly bring about many surprises. Among the nominations received by the Trip to London Editor it is safe to say that there are a number of "comers." It is stated by the friends of a young lady who ranks away down on the list, that she will pour in votes during the week that will bring her to the front by leaps and bounds. A number of candidates are reserving their votes until the last moment. Tuesday and Wednesday will bring in thousands of votes for candidates whose standing is not given on the above list. From the first day of the contest Miss Ethel Vogan has set a terrific pace. Her army of friends have rallied around her with a remarkable strength, and she bids fair to show great popularity. Within close range of the leader and certain of displaying great strength during the week is Miss Ida Vandemark of Williams' Cafe, who has polled 36,893 votes during the past week. The Robert Simpson Company is well represented by Miss Lizzie McGregor, who has polled 32,922 votes. Miss McGregor is one of the most popular young women in the great department stores, and the army of employees, who are mostly her friends, are rallying around her with great devotion. She is firm of the opinion that she will make the two leaders travel at a tremendous pace to keep in front.

The battle of ballots in Hamilton is in its infancy as yet, but the next few days will result in a number of changes and additions. Miss Olive Board is in the lead, but there are also a number of "others" in Hamilton who are certain of displaying strength during the coming week. In the province at large, district No. 3, the contest has but commenced, and it really is impossible to prophesy for the future, as a number of women who will be strong contestants have not yet set in their nominations. Miss Allin has secured a good start, and is confident of holding her lead, but Miss Jessie E. Robertson promises to come to the front in a day or two. To the women of Ontario, to the candidates who have entered the race, to those who contemplate doing so, it is well to bear this fact in mind. Every vote counts. EVERY COUPON COUNTS. Have you started clipping? To those who have not entered the race: Remember, that the race has but started. Stand in your nomination blank and then start to work. Also bear this fact in mind, that it is continuity of purpose that will win. Who doesn't this Trip to London mean to the successful candidates? Isn't it worth while?
