

A Famous Fur Store

The Best Store for Furs

We started out to sell more good Furs than all the other stores put together; we've set our faces against the imitation, the tawdry and the cheap; we sell only Furs of quality and worth and the best trade has come to us to stay. The same consideration is given to style and elegance in our lower-priced garments as in the most expensive.

We know where and how to buy the best of skins in the home and foreign markets, and stand alone among all the fur stores in the country in that we make everything we sell. Elegance of style and perfection in taste have always been pre-eminent features with the Furs we sell.

Our reputation behind our guarantee of quality is your surety that everything you buy here is exactly as represented.

PUBLIC AMUSEMENTS.

The music of "The Sleepy King," which is to be given at the Princess on Monday night, is by G. E. Contorno, and abounds in light, airy numbers, containing many dits to suit all tastes, from dreamy ditties to catchy coon songs. The most popular airs are: "Gloriana," "Dimples," "All I want is a Good Soft Pillow," "Sweet Sixteen," "Captain Kid," "Ye Morning Winds," "Mamie," "Reuben Redbreast," "Dreamship (Lullaby)," "Sweetheart of Mine," "In Missouri," "Ocotrona Lady" and the big hit "If I Were Mr. Morgan," sung by Miss Sutherland.

"The Silver Slipper," as produced by John C. Fisher, is one of the most stupendous and gorgeously staged and costumed musical plays of this season. It is a successful run of six months at the Broadway Theatre, New York City, the original production, scenery and costumes, as well as the cast, will be presented at the Princess Theatre on Monday, Dec. 7, for one week.

"Searchlights of a Great City" will be the attraction at the Majestic Theatre next week. There are several very interesting scenes in the play, including the burning of a fireworks factory and the approach and landing of a foreign boat. Interspersed are numerous specialties of the most varied description. The company is headed by Fredrick Murray. The special electrical feature will be the recent great international yacht race.

In "The Second Mrs. Tanqueray," Miss Sadie Martinot presents probably the best and certainly the most discussed of Pinner's plays, at the Princess, the latter half of next week. Miss Martinot's performance of Paula will be found to rank with that of Duse, Netcherova, Mrs. Kendal and supporting company who also bear favorable comparison with her only four competitors who have assumed this most trying role in the United States.

Manager Blair will present his patrons on Monday, at the Star Theatre, Frank B. Carr's "The House of Northumberland," an organization that has become popular with the lovers of burlesque and vaudeville. The company includes the most famous of the world's greatest comedians, William Humphrey, as "Napoleon," "Queen," by Emile Bergeret, is given next week, with matinee Wednesday and Saturday. The dresses worn by the company are described as the most elaborate ever seen in a historic drama.

by Walter Jones and Ed. Redway. The production is a Western enterprise, and has been staged and equipped in a most gorgeous manner. In the chorus will be found a galaxy of beauty. The principals comprise splendid singers and comedians.

Considerable interest will doubtless be manifested by the patrons of the Grand Opera House when Julia Arthur's great production, "More Than a Mother," is given on Monday, Dec. 7, for one week.

WARDEN BOAG PRESENTED WITH CANE

County Council Will Submit Question of Good Roads Movement to the Ratepayers.

York County councillors will conclude their November session to-day. Yesterday a deputation, headed by J. Knox Leslie, appeared on behalf of the 12th York Rangers and asked for a grant to encourage rifle shooting. Col. Thompson said that the county had given an annual grant up to the present year. Capt. A. G. Hunter also urged the grant. The men get 50c per day when met on duty and 10c when on guard. The grant had not been made in the usual time, owing to an oversight. The Finance Committee was requested to report a grant to the regiment.

The report on county buildings introduced by Councillor Evans stated that an agreement between the city and county had been arrived at by which the county is to pay 22 per cent of the cost of the rooms occupied for judicial purposes. The number is $40,000. The city abandons a claim for $300 for the use of the county judge's room.

The County Solicitor reported that a strong representation from the Comanville family had been received in the matter of the county judge's room. The county aid to high school separation had been approved by the county council. They had not been successful in their protest, but amendment of the act would have to be finally adjudicated upon by the county judge. In regard to suburban railways and the county and city, he reported that the removal of the southern terminal of the Metropolitan Railway line one-eighth of a mile farther north would be a violation of the county franchise, for which we would have to seek redress in the courts.

A lengthy discussion ensued in regard to whether or not the question of a county road system should be submitted to the people or not. Councillor Baird said it was hard on the farmers if they had to build on good roads and were driven off them by the county. Councillor Evans said the municipality had selected the question, and he would not let the whole matter be left to the responsibility rest with the farmers.

Councillor Turner thought the municipal council had not given the matter due consideration, and he favored giving the people an opportunity to say. Other councillors also favored it, and on motion of Councillor Lundy the following resolution was passed: "That the question: 'Are you in favor of a county road system?' be submitted to the ratepayers qualified to vote on money bylaws in the county on the day fixed by statute, 1904, for the holding of the municipal elections, and that the County Commissioners be and are hereby instructed to see that such question be so submitted and the provisions of the Act for the Improvement of Public Highways."

In the evening a banquet was tendered by the people at the opportunity to say. The municipal elections, and that the County Commissioners be and are hereby instructed to see that such question be so submitted and the provisions of the Act for the Improvement of Public Highways."

Councillor Armstrong presided over a meeting of the Works Committee of the Council Thursday night at the Town Hall. An application from water-taker for a new hydrant was received, until a former bill for a water service has been paid.

Toronto Junction. Nov. 27.—Roy Wyatt of May-street, a boy attending Western-avenue School, was playing with other boys yesterday, in running up and down ladders in a new house under construction opposite the school and accidentally fell from the first story thru the centre of the building to the basement, nearly striking other boys who were playing there. He was picked up and carried over to the school, where Dr. J. J. McEwen attended his injuries, which consisted of bruises. The boy fell about 18 feet. Bones appeared to be broken. He was very ill to-day, but unless he has received internal injuries he will soon pull through.

Weston. The West York Farmers' Institute held two very successful sessions here yesterday afternoon and evening. The afternoon meeting was held in the Town Hall with the president, A. E. Mather, in the chair. The president in opening the meeting suggested that action be taken to reform milk cans. The reason for advance had been made in this particular matter was due to the milk dealers' refusal to accept the Dominion government's standard weight of a gallon. A motion on these lines was carried.

"Building up a Herd" and "Common Diseases Affecting Stock." He advocated selecting a good healthy sire, which should be a pure bred sire, which should have quality to back up its pedigree. The farmer should aim to develop general utility stock rather than thoroughbred. After selecting the most suitable sire, the farmer should be well looked after and receive good wholesome food. The common diseases caused in were the following: Ringworm, flounders and spasm. In the evening Reeve Jacob Bell presided. Miss A. Smith spoke on "Labor Problems in the Household," and T. C.
